Bellamy inks Bullets pact

Walt Bellamy, one of professional basketball's premier big men and greatest young stars, has signed his 1963-64 Baltimore Bullets contract.

The 6-11, 225 pound second team all -pro selection came to terms with Bullets general manager Paul Hoffman, and will report to the club's Fort Meade training camp (Saturday).

BELLAMY WAS the first player chosen by the original Chicago club. He quickly justified his selection by turning in one of the greatest first seasons in league history.

He captured "rookie of the year" honors, averaged 31.6 points per game, scored 40 or more points ten times and was third in the league in rebounding. He also averaged more than 42 minutes of playing time per game.

No other rookie in professional history, except Chamberlain, scored as many points as Walt did in his initial season.

He scored 1,441 points in a three year career to rank as the Hoosiers' third leading all -time scorer. He also was Walt is married to a former North Carolina school teacher.

Colts seek 9th inaugural win

BALTIMORE

The New York Giants help the Baltimore Colts launch the 1963 National Football League season here Sunday at Memorial Stadium, with kickoff time set at 2:05 p.m.

Baltimore, which has never opened on the road, has won her last eight inaugurals. However, this will be the first time the Colts have opposed the Giants in regular season play since 1958, when the Golhamites won; 24-21. In titular games since, the Colts have twice emerged victorious.

DON SHULA, making his debut as head coach of the Steeds, has high regard for the visitors and their quarterback, Y. A. Tittle.

"We've seen how Tittle can move that Giants' offense," said Shula of his initial opponent. "He's an amazing performer who's given hope that our defensive backfield has advanced far enough to cope with receivers like Del Shofner, Frank Gifford, Joe Walton and Aaron Thomas.

"We'll go with the same unit that faced Chicago last week — Lenny Lyles, Andy Nelson, Wendell Harris and Jim Welch — and hope that we get a strong rush from our front line.

"OUR DEFENSEIVE line play improved in the second half against the Bears, with Fred Miller being especially impressive as he went all the way at right tackle. He could now be one of three rookies in our startling lineup.

Offensively, tackle Bob Vogel and tight end John Mackey have made fine progress and should aid our attack, along with a fourth newcomer among the starting 22 — fullback J. W. Lockett."

ONE OF the Colts' primary considerations all week long has been, the status of quarterback John Unitas' throwing arm.

After suffering a contusion of the arm in the opening period of the Washington game in Norfolk, Va., two weeks ago, John has been idle for seven quarters and concluded the pre-season schedule with only 57 passes thrown - 34 of which were completed for 465 yards and three touchdowns.

With Unitas on the sidelines the Colts bowed, 14-7, to the Bears in New Orleans, La., last Saturday night for their first defeat after four straight pre - season victories.

BUT THE Baltimore battle with New York receivers won't be the only interesting phase of Sunday's setto. The Giants will have their hands full, too.

It should be fascinating to watch Erich Barnes and Allan webb, the talented Giant twosome, covering the likes of Lenny Moore, Jimmy Orr and the newcomer, Mackey.

British, Canadian parties to see 'Int'

LAUREL, Md. — The record - breaking crowd which officials at Laurel Race Course anticipate entertaining at this year's 12th running of the Washington, D. C. International will be Augmented by delegations from at least two other countries, Laurel president John D. Schapiro announced.

Plans already are completed for a trip from England via Pan American Air Lines under sponsorship of Sporting Life publication. They also are being completed from Canada where the Canadian Thoroughbred Racing Club is planning a trip - in force to the world classic on November 11.

1963 Colts heavy with new faces

A lineup heavily infiltrated with new faces will trot onto the Memorial Stadium turf Sunday, as the Baltimore Colts are unveiled in the National Football League opener.

Not exactly new to the hometown fans is the face of Don Shula, although the freshman head coach was himself one of the troops when he was creating his own football image here.

SOME 50,000 partisans — many of whom cheered his work in the mid -fifties when there was little on the home side to cheer about — will be rooting for him Sunday as he sends the team he now tutors into action against the formidable New York Giants.

No fewer than ten newcomers will be rigged in Sheed livery when the 2:05 p.m., kickoff is enacted. Two of these fresh faces will belong to veterans who have been obtained from other NFL Clubs. The other eight are freshman hopefuls.

J. W. LOCKETT, after two better - than - bad years at Dallas, will take over the fullback assignment, a position in which the Colts have been hurting for sometime. The 226-pound blockbuster from Central State (Oklahoma) by way of the Cowboys, having displaced Joe Perry and Mark Smolinski, may be the answer to this problem.

The other vet; Jim Martin is well remembered around Baltimore for the many times he gave previous Colt teams headaches with his place kicking. Picked up in a late trade with the Detoit Lions, Martin could fill another glaring need, that of a field - goal man.

ROOKIE NEWCOMERS range from a sparkling fresh quarterback from Virginia to a bold young end from Syracuse; from a powerful tackle from Louisiana State to a will - o - the -wisp two - way performer from Jackson State College.

Gary Cuozzo, the rookie QB from Virginia, has been brilliant in pre -season games. He has teamed well with John Mackey, the tight end, assignee from Syracuse, a youngster who reportedly blocks well and catches

Stone Johnson dies of broken neck

WICHITA, Kansas — A broken neck suffered in a pre-season exhibition game has claimed the life of Stone Johnson, promising young halfback of the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football league.

Johnson died Monday night at St. Mary's Hospital here, nine days ater he was hurt in a game with the Houston Oilers.

One of a team of doctors who performed an autopsy on the speedy flanker back said the findings attributed death to a fracture of the fifth cervical vertebra of the neck and spinal cord damage. It also revealed a blood clot in a lung artery.

THE 22-YEAR-OLD former Grambling College athlete, whose home is in Dallas Tex., suffered the fractured vertebra when he threw a block on a kickoff early in the Oiler game.

He had lain motionless in traction in a Wichita hospital since that time. Johnson, 6-foot-1 and 180 pounds, was left paralyzed in the lower part of his body and partially paralyzed in the arms.

He underwent surgery before the end of the game.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Johnson of Dallas, Tex., had been at his bedside almost constantly.

JOHNSON, WHO cheated an apparent lifetime injury while in high school, was one of the most promising rookies on the AFL's defending champions.

Chiefs coaches were admittedly counting on him and his tremendous speed to help insure a repeat victory in the AFL title race.

While in high school, Stone suffered a severe back injury and was told he would never play again. He followed a rigid physical rehabilitation program, however, and not only become a fine college football player, but a sprint champion as well.

He was a member of the 1960 United States Olympic team at Rome and shared the world 200 - meter record.

Civil rights leader facing trial in Ga.

DETROIT — The president of the Albany Movement, Dr. George Anderson, has been ordered by a Federal judge to return to Georgia to face a conspiracy trial.

Dr. Anderson was indicted by a Federal grand jury in Macon, Ga., Aug. 9 on charges of obstructing justice.

He was charged, along with two others; with conspiring to picket and boycott a grocery store because the owner, also a juror in a Federal suit, had voted against a colored plaintiff in a damage suit against a Georgia sheriff.

DR. ANDERSON, now living in Detroit, protested to United States District Court Judge Thomas P. Thornton that forced return to Georgia would result in certain conviction.

The trial judge in Georgia, he said, would be the same judge who presided in the civil case out of which the charges against him had developed.

Dr. Anderson is under a personal bond of $5,000, pending his appearance at Albany on Oct. 7.

Spingarn's team inexperienced, but Green Wave to roll anyway

WASHINGTON

Rebuilding is the key word at the Spingarn High football field these days.

Faced with the lost of 30 players from last year's squad which placed second in the eastern division with a 6-1-1 record, Head Coach Winfred Evans, tackle Robert Gill, fullback and James Copening guard.

Sophomore halfbacks Paul Barnes and Richard Payne are expected to develop quickly and provide speed for the Spingarn backfield.

WHILE IT SEEMS doubtful that Spingarn has the experience or the size to be major contenders the opposing coaches had better not expect the Green Wave to roll over and play dead.

As Coach McNair says, "We might surprise somebody."

Assisting Coach McNair are Frank Parks, head line coach, Arnold George, assistant line coach and John Chisholm volunteer.

Springarn's first league game is against Carroll on Sept. 21.

Robert McNair must field a team made up mainly of inexperienced sophomores and juniors.

Providing stability for this young team will be the four returning senior lettermen Henry Whittaker, quarter-passes with deftness of a magician.

The Jackson State representative is Willie Richardson, a kid with such potential that the coaches have not yet decided where best he'll suit their needs — as a feather - footed pass catcher or an a quick -reacting defensive halfback.

ALSO NEW to the home fans' eyes will be tackle Bob Vogel from Ohio State, end George (Butch) Wilson from Alabama, and Miller the 240 - pounder being groomed as a backup man at tackle.

Defensive halfback Jerry Logan from West Texas State, and linebacker Jim (Butch) Maples from Baylor, are likewise waiting anxiously for their baptism of fire against the perennial Eastern Divison champion Giants — LACY.
