Tawes extending probe to Women's Institute

Gov. Tawes announced this week that the Women's Correctional Institution in Jessup will be included his study of the prison system in Maryland being undertaken by the Maryland Chapter of the American Negro Labor Council, who requested the inclusion of the women's institution.

"Should outside consultants be called in to make a more detailed survey," the governor's letter to Mr. Brailey stated; "they, also, will be instructed to include the women's institution."

The announcement came in response to a telegram from Troy Brailey, president of former Chief Judge Benjamin Michaelson.

Summer at School 104

Boys and girls of the Robert Brown Elliot Elementary School No. 104 have enjoyed interesting and fascinating activities during the summer school session.

Faculty members reported that these activities have helped pupils in reading, writing, spelling, oral and written language skills, art, music, and physical education.

The lessons were correlated with such topics as: Call Them Heroes, Myths and Legends, Animals, Transportation and Communication, Industries and Science.

Highlight was the Goucher College visit to hear the Baltimore Symphony Chamber Orchestra in rehearsal with Miss Jeanette Walters and Joseph Eubanks as soloists.

Pupils also enjoyed an interview by Perry Andrews of WBAL radio.

Mrs. Marlene Mohamed was the Curriculum Specialist and Mr. William Koutre- [illegible] e Head Teacher.
