T-Vittles

During the final moments of "The Pearl Bailey Show," the orchestra plays a few bars of "Poor Butterfly" as background music. The number has sentimental significance for Miss Bailey. It was the song that won her an amateur contest at the Pearl Theatre, Philadelphia, in her first stab at show business. She was fifteen at the time. Pearl Mae has been singing (and swinging) ever since. "The Pearl Bailey Show" — with Bing Crosby, Louis Armstrong and Andy Williams as guests — premieres on the ABC Saturday.
 "Movie of the Week" has been renewed by ABC for a third season, 1971-72. There will be 25 films especially made for first showing on television.
 The second "GE Monogram Series" special of the season will be "Wildfire," booked on NBC at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 5.
