—Meeting On Mt. Moriah

tication to acquire the building and convert it into a museum — center of black heritage.

"It's shame that each year thousands of school children, both black and white, are bussed to Annapolis and they see absoultely nothing that reflects favorable on black heritage.

They see mansion of the slave holders but nothing of the free black community struggling to survive in the midst of a slave-oriented society.

"The people who built the church had beginnings in 1799, the year of George Washington's death. Black Marylanders have a distinctive and honorable past and it is up to this generation to equal such persons as Banneker, Tubman, Douglass, Grice, Garnet, Myrphy, Henson and Marshall.

Frank Showell, executive director, Maryland Commission on Black History and Culture says the attention given Mt. Moriah has created a heightened sensitivity of both black and white citizens in Maryland.

He states "Now that the building has been saved, all concerned citizens should come forth to financially assist in purchasing this building and preserving our heritage for this generation and posterity."

Comments from legislator's in the House of Delegates on the decision concerning Mt. Moriah:

Del. Isaiah Dixon (D-4)- "I had predicted that this would be the ruling. I hope that we will be in a position to help restore the church."

Del. Hildagardeis Boswell (D-4)—"At least the court was fair in that it recognized that Mt. Moriah is an historic building. I feel that this was known all along by the county government. The fact that the county failed to acknowledge the historical right of black people only further points up the fact that we have to strive to insure that our rights to our history are not decimated."

* * *

Del. Joseph Chester (D-2) — "I believe the higher court ruling was a victory for the pastor and members of the great historic Mt. Moriah Church. It has been a landmark in Annapolis in the past generation and will be for generations to come."

* * *

Del. Troy Brailey (D-4) "I was elated to learn of the ruling of the Court of Appeals to save Mt. Moriah. The Black Caucus has been working diligently with Carroll Green's organization since his group joined the fight to save the church."

Del. Lena K. Lee Dem.-4)—"A vital part of the black experience is what are my roots?, 'where do I come from?' 'who am I?. Mt. Moriah Church and Orchard St. Church in Baltimore are examples of fine artistry, skilled hands integrity of the artistic mind, courage in the face of death, period.

"Mt. Moriah is recognized to be a classic example of architecture of a period. As such, it stands beside the Parthenon, Acropolis, Buckingham Palace and the Lincoln Memorial.

"To destroy any of these would be as tragic as the burning of books. The Court of Appeals has a great sense of history as exhibited by its great ruling."

That figure represents various "fringe benefits" for teachers, therefore the actual salary increase would be 9 per cent or less.

The fringe benefits include expanded medical coverage under Blue Cross and Blue Shield as well as two paid personal leave days.

The proposed pact includes a tuition reimbursement plan for teachers taking college courses. According to Mr. Boone, teachers are the only city employees not included in such a plan.

According to a school officials, negotiations will continue "around the clock" until everything is resolved.

He added, "If there is a strike we will try to keep schools open, but it's kind of premature to talk about a strike at this point."

Mr. Boone expressed similar statements and vowed that his people "will keep going as long and as hard as we have to."
