Red Cross accepts gifts for victims

Disaster relief funds for victims of recent tornadoes in the South and Midwest are being accepted by the Baltimore Regional Red Cross, William J. Witte, local chapter chairman, has announced.

Red Cross volunteers and staff are helping with relief operations in Arkansas, Kansas and Oklahoma which were hit by tornadoes last week. Funds are urgently needed to assist the homeless with food, clothing, shelter and long range rehabilitation.

Anyone wishing to aid these victims may do so by mailing a check earmarked "Tornado Relief" to the Baltimore Regional Red Cross, St. Paul and 23rd Streets, Baltimore 21218.
