Masons conference here June 24-30; 1,000 to convene at Lord Baltimore

By Marie P. Cooke
Reflections Editor

Some 1,000 masons will be in Baltimore June 30 for the 18th Annual Conference and 14th Joint Session of the General Conference of Grand Chapters and Grand Courts of the Hiram Holy Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons and Rahab Grand Court Heroines of Jericho.

Headquarters for the seven-day conference is the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Royal Arch Masonry, organized Nov. 30, 1796 in Maryland will mark its 180rd anniversary in this bicentennial year.

It was in 1847, however, that King David Chapter No. 1 Royal Arch Masons, Baltimore City, the first chapter of Royal Arch Masons, was warranted. And some 129 years later the chapter continues to serve its obligations. The Most Excellent Grand High Priest is Companion Louis Alton, a 33rd degree Mason.

According to P.H.P. Willie H. Scott, Public Relations chairperson, the conference will not be only limited to men. Women of the Order; the Heroines of Jericho, will hold meetings, too.

The female order is an auxiliary consisting of the wives, daughters, mothers, sisters and widows of the master Masons. This group—also falls within the Maryland Jurisdiction, a Prince Hall Affiliate.

Public activities for the conference include:

June 26: Keystone Ball, lord Baltimore. Tickets, $6.50.

June 27: Parade of States, Lord Baltimore, 2 p.m. Donation, $1.

June 27: Street Parade from City Hall to W. Allen Masonic Temple.

June 27: Memorial Service, W.W. Allen Masonic Temple.

June 28: Banquet, Lord Baltimore, 7 p.m. Tickets,

Mr. Scott, a Columbia businessman, along with a planning committee in 1974 began making plans with city officials, the Baltimore Promotion Council and officers and members of both Orders for this conference.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE—The General Conference of Grand Chapters and Grand Courts, hosted by the Hiram Holy Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons and Rahab Grand Court Heroines of Jericho will hold the 18th Annual Conference and 14th Joint Session June 24-30 in Baltimore. Headquarters for the convention will be the Lord Baltimore Hotel. Shown here are Thomas Foster of the Baltimore Promotional Council and P.H.P. Willie H. Scott, public relations chairman.

Some 350 rooms have been assigned at the Lord Baltimore and several at the nearby Holiday Inn. Many will attend who live in the Baltimore area and surrounding counties. So the Conference will find hundreds of out-of-town guests visiting the "Charm City" as well as many local residents. Mayor William Donald Schaefer has already signed a proclamation citing the conference.

On hand to witness the signing of the official city document were officers of the joint conference. Among them were: Heroine Olive Ann Evans, assistant public relations chairperson; Companion Seth C. Robinson, D.G.G. H.P. of the Grand Chapter; Heroine Edith A. Mosby, M.A.G.M.: Companion Luther Jackson, G.M.W. J.; Companion Ernest Powell P.H.P. Heroine Elaine K. Campbell, souvenier chairperson; Companion James R. Parker, parade chairperson, and Mr. Scott.

Among those who have been working deligently to organize this historical event are: Luther Jackson, Edith A. Mosby and Annie W. Johnson, generals; Seth C. Robinson, Louis Alton, Ronald C. Reid, Robert Greer, Alice Minor, Helen C. Smothers, assistants; Bernice H. Bruuows and John Baynard, coordinators; Elaine K. Campbell Irwin Kedas, M. Rosalind Allen, Elijah Brown, souvenir journal; Willie J. Eure, Ernest Sanders, Celia McLeod and Ernest Powell, hospitality.

Willie H. Scott and Olive Ann Evans, publicity; James Parker, and Ernest Sanders, street parade; Edythe A. Green, Thomas Jefferson, Dorothy Brunson, and William Fletcher, kits; Alice R. Matthews and Rose Minor, entertainment; Evelyn Robinson, Ruth M. Perry and Barbara Williams, registration.

And there are more:

Floyd Thomas and Lessie Hurtt, ball; Samuel H. Johnson and Annie W. Johnson, memorial services; Jessie C. Wells, church services; Gladys W. Dixon and Seth C. Robinson, finance; Josephine Deleon and Cora F. Wilson, general finance;

Harry Allen and Alfred Coleman, transportation; Eva M. Ayers, banquet; Janie Wright, printing; Ethel Barnes and Evelyn Robinson, Tuesday hospitality; Mildred Hatcher and Ethel Barnes, Sunday lunch.

John W. Lancaster, G.G.H.P.; Eleanor D. Carter, G.G.M.A.M., and Fred Alexander, G.G.C. & D.C., general grand conference.

On The Eastside

By Georgianna Moody

Many sorrows go to the family of Sylvester Curley who died June 1. He was eulogized June 4, from Metropolitan Baptist Chuch.

Mr. Curley was well known and loved by those who knew him. He was the oldest son of the late Thomas and Magnolia Curley.

Mr. Curley was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co., where he was Representative of the Local 2610 for over 30 years serving as vice president, secretary, treasurer and other positions. The men of Sparrows Point and the communities of Baltimore City held a high regard for him and they respected his leadership ability.

Sylvester showed a strong, deep love for his fellowmen.

Mr. Curley is survived by his wife Mrs. Nova Curley, children, grandchildren, two sisters, one brother.

The Timothy Baptist Church held its Combined Choir Day Sunday, June 5. All choirs of the church combined in song and prayer to make the day a happy occasion.

Mrs. Odell Payne was the speaker for the occasion.

The affair was quite beautiful and touching.

Two church members were honored with flowers, Mrs. Edythe Capehart, a dedicated, sophisticated and lovely young woman, was presented flowers for service by Mrs. Avalee Evans and Mrs. Annie Chappel received a bouquet from Mrs. Emma Reese. To put the filling on the cake of the day, the church honored Mrs. Chappie with a birthday party. She was 75 on June 5.

Happy birthday: Ernest moody, June 8; Mory Simmons, June 9; and Pearlie Perry, June 12.

Congratulations, Miss Wanda Milliard who was graduated from Millford Mill Hieh School June 6.

Also to Mr. and Mrs. Coy Hodge, a new baby was born June 5.

R.S.V.P. With Marie returns next week.

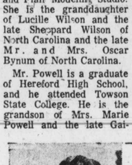
MISS EARNESTINE BYNUM
Engagement told

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bynum of Baltimore have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Earnestine Bynum to Richard Powell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Powell Sr. of Sparks, Md.

Miss Bynum is a graduate of Eastern High School and Flair Modeling Studio. She is the granddaughter of Lucille Wilson and the late Sheppard Wilson of North Carolina and the late Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bynum of North Carolina.

Mr. Powell is a graduate of Hereford High School, and he attended Towson State College. He is the grandson of Mrs. Marie Powell and the late Gaither Powell of Sparks, Md. and the grandson of the late Mrs. Marion Dyett and James Dyett Sr. of Sparks, Md.

An August wedding is planned.



Catonsville Notes

... by Liz Williams

Congratulations to Olga Parker (Mrs. Raynor) for having founded "The Pals", a bowling league which was started in January, 1975.

It was at a Bon Voyage party that Olga told us that she had been thinking of getting a group to go bowling and would we be interested since all of us had retired. The idea was just for exercise, fellowship, and fun.

Space will not permit me to tell you at this time who the original bowlers were but when I adequately get the history of the group I will let our readers know.

We used to meet on Tuesday mornings at Reisterstown Fairlanes but we have been meeting on Thursday since we became a league, as of this past September.

The small number has grown to 20 regular bowlers and 10 subs. The captains of the four teams are: Robert (Barbara) Hawkins, Robert (Cleo) Diggs, Irma Dancy, and Harry (Laura) Newton.

Awards were presented to members of the group at a meeting last Thursday by the lovely, stylish and beautiful day manager at Reistertown Fairlanes, Mrs. Joan Williams.

Among the winners were: High average - Irma Dancy and Joseph Jackson; high set - Jill Bell and Harry Newton; high game- William Terry and yours truly; most improved game - Barbara Hawkins and James Hite.

The team in second place consisted of Robert Diggs, Lucille Williams, Robert Dawson Barbara Hawkins and Ethel Murray. The "Champs" were: Albert Hawkins, Ed. Williams, Olen Parker, Cleo Diggs and Joe Jackson. We cannot forget to thank our dear friend, Diane Williams, the snack bar manager and the "out of sight dresser" the general manager, Dave Branch.

The group held its closing picnic at the home of Rob and Catherine Dawson on their beautiful grounds in the Long Green Valley. We rode on one of the newest school buses (Ridgeway Motors, manned by the owner of the company, Lou Nolan. For eight years, our daughter rode this bus with Nolan and his sons.)

The "spotlight" this week is on the "Flower Circle" at Morning Star Baptist Church. On the second Sunday in April, 1933, Mrs. Naomi Miller called together a group of women of Morning Star and suggested they form a Flower Circle. All who were present agreed that it would be a fine addition to the church.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Naomi Miller, president; and Mrs. Mrs. Eva Brooks Brooks, secretary; Mrs. Beatrice Yancey, Treasurer; and Mrs. Nettie Page, Chaplain.

Throughout the years, the main objective of the Circle has been to keep flowers on the altar, and to provide flowers for the sick of the church and the community. Flowers are sent in the name of the church to families during bereavement.

The group furnished a room at the Maryland Baptist Home for the Aged and held several pantry showers for "I's home. They also presented the church with the silver pitcher and goblet used by the pastor.

Mrs. Miller served as president for many years. After her tenure, Mrs. Agnes Mitchell became president. She served this post faithfully, until her passing. Mrs. Eva Brooks is the present president. "Spotlight" on Eva Brooks is coming.

The Catonsville Golden Age Group will be taking its annual trip to the Pennsylvania Dutch Country Saturday, June, 12th. And next Saturday, the group will be attending the 16th
