Woodlawn Highlights

. . . by Marjorie Green

Saturday afternoon was a time to relax in an air conditioned room and forget the record high temperatures outside, but this columnist chose to accept an invitation to a cookout at the lovely Brompton Road home of Mrs. Paige Nixon. We arrived early and had time to marvel at the wide assortment of meats, fruits, and refreshments prepared by our hostess and members of her family.

Arriving close behind me was an old friend, Mrs. Erniser (Ernie) Johnson. Ernie is a supervisor in the Dickinson building. I couldn't help remembering all the good times that I enjoyed with Ernie and our good friend, Helen Tucker who was moving about, performing her role as hostess.

During the afternoon Helen who is the first vice president of AFGE Local 1923, shared her victory hopes for the coming fall election. It was also mentioned that Barbara Huff, second vice president and Eleaner Anderson, fourth vice president will be seeking another term in their respective union offices.

Other SSA guests were, Betty Lindsay and Verna Day. There were more SSA'ers arriving when we slipped away in order to appear at another group gathering.

Last Friday was also one of those busy days. The lunch hour just wasn't long enough. I thought I would be able to enjoy both the Julius Hobson Memorial Program held in the Altmeyer Auditorium and the meeting of Area Ten's Council. Somehow I forget to make a note of the building in which the Toastmaster meeting would take place, and the lunch period ended before I could locate them. Area Governor Al Jones has promised to outline his new program in time for next week's column.
