

Swisher's tactics blasted as 'weasel-like'

MOVE group here to tell its story

Baltimorcamerican

as she fled

What began as a young father's visit with his estranged wife

Wednesday, May 17, ended with him charged with killing his mate as their young children

George Milton Nole, 31, of the 3900 block Glen Hunt Road, is being held at City Jail on $50,000 bail after allegedly shooting his wife in front of their two children. He is also

Mrs. Yvonne Nole, 29, of the 5400 block Belle Vista Ave., was shot during an argument in her Northeast Frankford Manor Apart-

Police arrived on the scene around 7:20 p.m. after receiving calls from neighbors.

When they arrived, they found Mrs. Note in the hall of her second

Police reveal she was shot once with a .38 caliber gun and when she-ran out of her apartment, she was

(Continued on Page 2)

Mitchell charges 'collusion,' harassment floor apartment.

charged with a handgun violation.

DSS chief's views on welfare cheats

See page 5

86th Year No. 80

BALTIMORE, MD., MAY 20, 1978

WE ARE IN OUR 86th YEAR

30 CENTS ONE YEAR $12.00

Under fire

AFRO Photo by Roman Hankewycz

UNDER FIRE - State's Attorney William Swisher

and his deputy Mrs. Mary Ann Willin were flailed corruption investigation here.

by a local daily on the lack of progress on political

See stories, below and page 3.

Mom killed as kids watch

OFF TO EUROPE — Edmondson High School graduate Angela Heard left for Europe Wednesday morning, May 17 where she will join the Joe Tex

Dancers and Review touring London, Paris and Should be investigated Switzerland. The show will preview in New York City at the Apollo Theatre on June 4.

weasel's actions as "Blood - thirst sly, cunning and capricious" wer used at a press conference Thur sday, by Rep. Parren J. Mitchell torney William Swisher. At a meeting with media at Bloomingdale Road office, Rep. the same as what goes on in torney Swisher's seeming unethical, illegal and unendin probe on the Elijah Davis murder, against Lt. Col. James A. Watkins and other leading black citizens,"

(Continued on Page 2)

New city budget could wipe out 1,300 jobs

By Clarence W. Hunter AFRO Staff Writer

A 648-page book of complexities called the Baltimore City Fiscal with bad news.

that it guarantees city employee three percent pay raise and of half of an increment raise.

To hold the tax rate down means some city workers face loss of their The budget shows that one of every 21 municipal workers will not be paid next year. (Continued on Page 23)

Commencement, Sunday, May 21

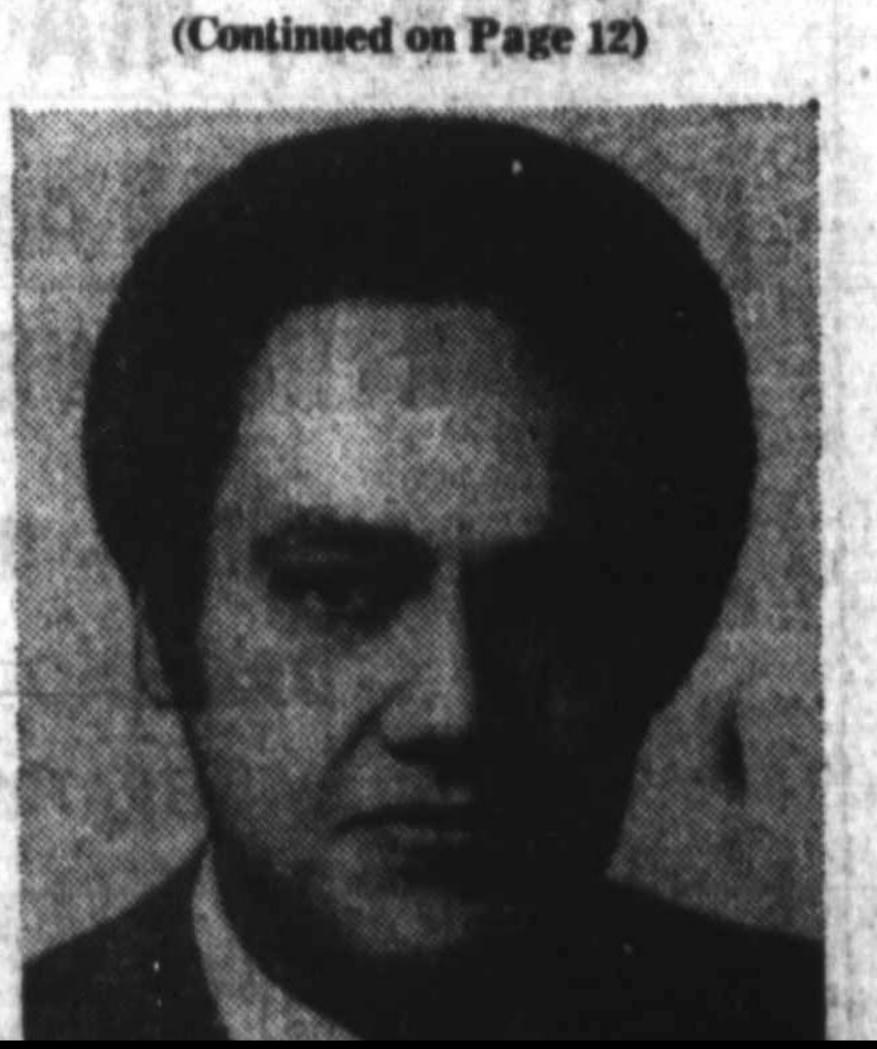

There may be some layoffs of city 1,073 MSU graduates to hear Alexander

The event will mark the third graduation exercise Morgan has held since becoming a university in 1975. The school is expected to hand out 628 B.S. degrees, 149 B.A. secretary of the Army, will deliver ernesta G. Procope, of E.G. Bowman Com-and Otis M. Smith,

Washington, D.C., and has been a law professor at both Howard University Law School and the Park Heights activist abandons bid for Verda's Senate seat

Verda Welcome.

She told the AFRO this week that Community Corporation, said her candidacy would have also meant dealing with a lot of political

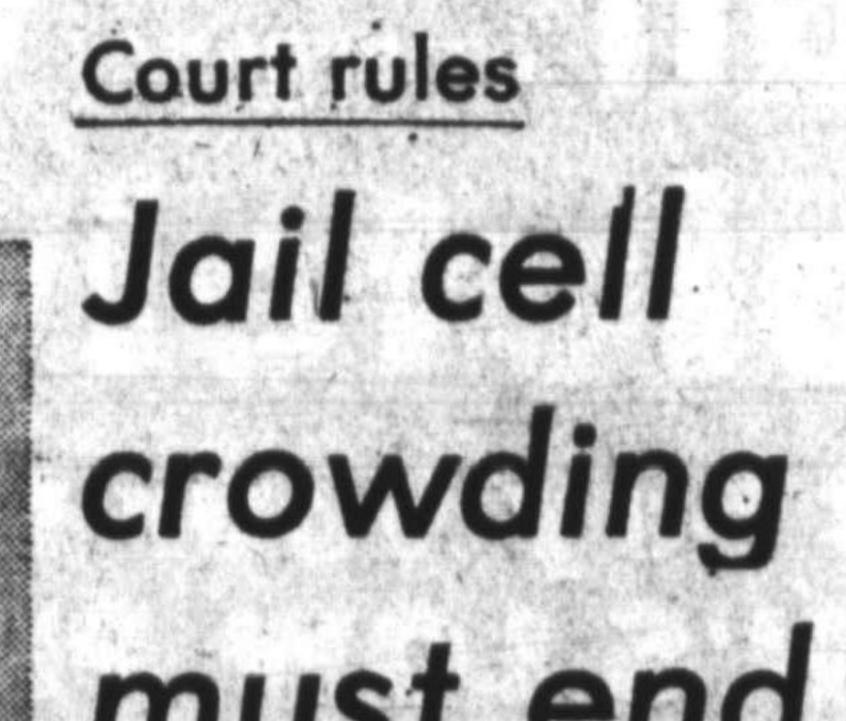

'I could have done a disservice to the Community Corporation," she bi-partisan government all her activities would have to be

But Mrs. Marriot said that if she would have run, there is a good are very few things that I am in

(Continued on Page 2)

Socially prominent Dyetts split

SALIMA MARRIOT

Two federal judges ruled Wednesday that double-celling inmates in small cells at the Maryland Penitentiary and the Maryland House of Corrections is un-

Harvey II and C. Stanley Blair