IT'S IN THE STARS: AQUARUS

Happy birthday Aquarius! You were born during the period January 21 to February 19. Your motto is "I know." As a native of this sign, one really feels that knowledge is his (or hers). Aquarius is universality at its best or worst, depending on how the astro chart is designed.

Aquarius is a sign that confers many moods and inclinations. And that's the issue, they're unpredictable. But, usually the native is very much in tune with people.

organizations — that's what turns
Aquarians on. Eartha Kitt,
Abraham Lincoln and NAACP
Exceutive Director Benjamin
Hooks are prime examples.

The planetary ruler of Aquarius is Uranus. Herein lies the key to the unconventional, sometimes revolutionary nature of our sign of the month. Uranus is associated with an electric flow of ideas put to and spiritual energy" that sets this sign apart from its colleagues.

While a sign like Scorpio prefers to play close to the chest, harboring secrets and cherishing the label of a loner, Aquarius offers The Solution to all and prefers the values of friendship and companionship.

In return for these gifts, only loyalty is expected. Turn - offs to this humanitarian sign are displays of snobbery and hypocrisy.

Now bear in mind that what's been said may not apply to all Aquarians. But, that's the nature of the beast — unpredictability. To court the company of this sign means never a dull moment.

Oh, you might think them impulsive and off - beat at times. You would probably be right. How would you like to have all those fantastic notions in your head for changing the system and reforming the world?

work in ways that many never thought possible.

Small wonder that Aquarians are often seen at the forefront of mass movements and minor crises. Whether leading the great march on city hall or organizing the typing pool to rebel against poor working conditions, Aquarius is in its element.

This sign group also shines in the mental department. Evolved Aquarians are sharp as tacks. Because they see themselves as masters of change in the scheme of human existence, they play this role to the hilt. This means that they have to know what's going on. You'll find them wherever knowledge of any type is being disseminated.

A very positive feature of the Aquarian nature in this regard is that they like to share that knowledge. The greatest reward that they can receive is acceptance of ideas that flow from their knowledge.

This brings us to the significance of the symbol of Aquarius — the water - bearer. It is the spilling "out to mankind the life - force

And then there's love. Aquarians have the capacity to love all humanity. Some really try! A big problem they sometimes face is directing their affections to one person.

They need so much reinforcement from their environment that it takes quite a mate to supply it all. Freedom to expand and experience all is vital. The most destructive move you can make if you have one of these natives is to be jealous and restrictive. For the most part, Aquarius believes in equality. So, if you value your freedom of movement, you'd best value his (or hers).

Health - wise, Aquarians need plenty of sleep, fresh air and good nutrition. Infections can be frequent, so take care. It is said that these natives don't fare too well in cold weather, particularly their feet.

Career - wise, Aquarians can do it all. Because of their high degree of adaptability, they are capable of becoming whatever suits their fancy. To them, money is not everything, only a means to an

LOVE MATCHES

Astrology is not an absolute science, so don't expect perfection. Use it as a tool in evaluating yourself and those you interact with. All of the zodiac signs have qualities of one another that make for a variety of compatibility matches. The following sign love matches are based on general sun sign characteristics to be used only as a guide.

Aquarius and Aries

Aries (March 21-April 20) can be quite domineering. You know how that strikes you. If you happen to be one of those rare non-freedom-seeking Aquarians, fine. If not, look out! This match could cause problems on both ends.

Aquarius and Taurus

Again, you are faced with a marginal match. Taurus (April 21-May 20) can be quite possessive. This sign also tends to stay close to home actually or mentally. You, on the other hand, perceive vistas far and beyond. If you can adapt to narrow perspectives, okay.

Aquarius and Gemini

You're on the right track with Gemini (May 21-June 21). This sign is mental, as you are. The two of you enjoy and relish change and variety. It could be fun and productive.

Aquarius and Cancer

They say that Cancer (June 22 - July 22) lives in the past and is subject to bouts of mood changes. Some Aquarians could regard this as too restrictive. If you can live with this measure of self - sacrifice, go to ±.

Aquarius and Leo

Most Leos (July 23 - August 22) evoke admiration from their mates. They're such kings and queens. They tend to be a bit more conventional than you, but will usually go along with their mate's programs. If you're nice!

Aquarius and Virgo

At best, Virgo (August 23 - September 22) will give you a run for your mental money. At worst, this sign will drive you batty with its critical nature. Know what you're getting before you decide to live with it.

Aquarius and Libra

We have another better mate in Libra (September 23 - October 22). Since both signs have air elements in common, the blend is good. Libra as a harmonizer will be supportive.

Aquarius and Scorpio

Can you deal with the master manipulator? Think twice, because Scorpio (October 23 - November 21) is cake walk. Even to a mentally sharp opponent like Aquarius. If you get one that's not too possessive it could be a fun experience.

Aquarius and Sagittarius

Sagittarius (November 22 - December 21) created the concept of freedom, so you're at home here. The only snag is a fiery temper at times. But, you'll love the sense of independence you find here.

Aquarius and Capricorn

A strong, stable sign, Capricorn (December 22 - January 19) is a leader and you may be compelled to follow. You may also fail to understand what goes for Carpricornian optimism. But if you're really adaptable

Aquarius and Aquarius

For sure, you'll understand each other. There isn't much to say here except that with this match comes either a union of great minds or a marriage of convenience.

Aquarius and Pisces

Pisces (February 19 - March 20) is flexible enough and sensitive enough to deal with even you. This match promises rewards that are fulfilling to both.

Born Between February 10 and February 19 — You are conuled by the moon, giving a somewhat moody disposition. Never forget your dedication to service and remember how imperfect the world can be. Much travel will porbably be to your liking.
