a teen spectacular featuring Young people with talent, and campership for youngsters to spend two weeks in summer camps.

Mrs. Parrish (Carlie), and Mrs. Smith co-chaired the luncheon committee. Other members, Mrs. Ben Foreman (Adelle); Mrs. Edward Smith (Diana), and Mrs. Hayes.

Attorney Smith, who is president of the Monumental Bar Association, said the invocation. Following the lunch and forum, there was dancing to the music of the Dennis Fisher Trio, with Debby Fisher as soloist.

Other officers of the group are, Lois Owens, vice president; Louise Johnson and Clarice Parrish, secretaries; Agnes Dorsey, treasurer; and Attorney Audrey Howard, parliamentarian.

Les Grandes Dames

Les Grandes Dames lived up to their reputation of giving elegant affairs. Their commemorative dinner dance was on Friday evening at the Regency Terrace.

Guests arrived to find an international cheese board for their enjoyment as they socialized before dinner (crab martinique et al.). After dinner, they enjoyed the dessert table and dancing to the music of Carl Trobaugh's Rockets of Rhythm.

Grande Dames pride themselves not only on their social grace but also on the fact that they use much of their time to help in a variety of community activities.

The red and white program provided guests an explanation of these endeavors and noted that "we seek not only happiness for ourselves but for all mankind . . ." as exemplified "in our support of cultural activities" and "our leadership in and support of our community . ."

Club officers are: Bernice White, president; Lillie Myers, vice president; Phyllis Exley, recording secretary; Nathalia M. Roberts, treasurer; Catherine Howard, treasurer; Marguerite Wilkins, chaplain, and Barbara C. Mitchell, sergeant - at - arms.

Members are: Palestine Anderson, Flossie Johnson, Reva G. Lewie, Arnetta Lottier, Mary Robinson and Mary Thompson.

Among the out - of - towners for the annual affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stephenson, Wellingboro, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spriggs, D.C.; Dr. and Mrs. George McKinley Phillips, Columbia, Md.; Dr. James Kilkenny, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Madden, Princess Anne, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. George King, Sr., Salisbury, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Miles, D.C.

NAACP Unity Ball

Plans for the Baltimore NAACP Unity Ball are shaping up, according to the general chairperson, Margaret L. Dyer. She is the energetic Eastern Star leader who is well - known in Prince Hall Masonic circles, so things are bound to go smoothly.

Meantime, she is asking us to remind readers they should get their reservations in NOW for this worthy event. It is Friday, June 15 at Eastwind (9000 Pulaski Highway). Social hour is at 7. Former Secretary of State for Pennsylvania, C. Delores Tucker, is the speaker.

Mrs. Dyer wants all to know that those who complete payment on their $500 life membership in advance of the ball, will receive special recognition. She tells me also that clubs and organizations already life members, can garner additional honors by paying on and or completing payments on golden life memberships ($1,000).

The benefit dinner tickets are $35 per person. You can get additional information by calling Mrs. Dyer at the NAACP office, 2127 Maryland Avenue, 837 - 6778. And if she is not there, NAACP president, Enolia P. McMillan, can answer your queries. Hope to see YOU there on June 15.

Graduation Notes

Dr. and Mrs. Lonnie Greene (Seretha), report they were "simply thrilled" on Sunday when they arrived at the Boston University graduation exercises where their daughter, Sheryl, was among the 2,500 grads. She received a bachelor's in fine arts, and is remaining in New England for summer stock.

But, the Greenes' report they were thrilled even more to see fellow Baltimoreans', Juanita and Clarence M. Mitchell Jr., because he was one of three to receive honorary degrees at the exercises. Senator Ted Kennedy was the speaker. They report Mr. Mitchell gave a "magnificent" response on behalf of the honorees.

Carolyn and Wesley Stubbs were up New England way on Sunday too. They are Baltimoreans, now residing in Chevy Chase. Their daughter, Wesley, garnered her degree from Tufts College.

Post Prattings

Any number of out - of - towners were about last weekend — for Morgan University's alumni activities and for the Preakness.

Dr. and Mrs. Lionel Desbordes had as houseguests John and Faye Evans, the St. Albans, N.Y. educators. Levi Privott was up from Norfolk with his cousins, Joe and Leona Felton.

Dr. and Mrs. Willam Harris (Jessie) of Yeadon, Pa., were houseguests of the Mrs. Samuel Owings.

And many Baltimore fans had another Preakness Day thrill. In the ninth race, the winner was Hawaiian Ways (No. 12), owned by Baltimore's own Dr. Ernest L. Colvin.

A Sad Note

Hiawatha Shaw Moore, former Baltimorean, lost her husband, Alfred, in Compton, Calif. He suffered a heart attack. The body was cremated.

Mother of Year

The 1979 Mother of the Year of the Dynamite Super-stars is Eyvonne Evans, manager of the credit union office in Cherry Hill.

Mrs. Evans was selected for her outstanding work to the community and dedication to her family. She was cited at the annual Mother's Day dinner and Fashion Show Extravaganza, May 13 at the Holiday Inn.
