TO GEAINIS

Happy birthday Gemini! You were born during the period May 22 to June 21. Your motto is "I think." Thinking is your thing, for good or bad. It is often said that few can out think the quick mentality of the Gemini.

This sign is communication personified. Geminis love to talk as well as think. Of course, you may know some quiet ones, but they are rare.

And don't try to get the last word in. An evolved Gemini is way ahead of you. Chances are that your thoughts were picked up and ready to launch long before your mouth formed to speak them.

For this reason, Geminis are often found at the forefront of debat and controversy.

Mercury, the planet of speed and intellect is the ruler of Gemini. Herein lies the basis of the assets and liabilities of this rule, prolonged concentration the exception.

If other zodiac signs had such ability for quick understanding and retention, they too could be termed Gemini - like. This third sign of the zodiac is capable of great learning and lasting contributions.

Writers, on - air broadcasters, teachers and lawyers abound under the sign. If unevolved, Geminis make effective con-artists and gamblers. They're quick, remember! Since the sign rules the hands, arms and nervous system, Gemini folk are always on the move and often described as nervous.

And don't forget that Gemini is a dual sign symbolized by the twins. You may think that you know your favorite native of this sign, but when the other side shows itself, well—. Otherwise, sign. These natives are known for their quick wit and high intellect. They also may be known for their convincing abilities to deceive and confuse.

An almost foolproof way to identify a Gemini is by his - her quickness of speech, thought or rapid eye movement. If Gemini doesn't look you in the eye while talking to you, it's not for lack of interest, just constant preoccupation with other matters of the world.

For the same reason, they are nearly always late for dates. Again, not due to irresponsibility or discourtesy. You just can't imagine all the things that a Gemini can think of doing up to the zero hour prior to showing up for a date.

They also have little habits like reading books and newspapers from back to front. The natives of Gemini are often tempted to read the conclusion and skip the buildup.

Some may call Gemini fickle.

Not really the case at all. Gemini is so versatile that most anything can interest them—though not for long. Short attention spans are the be prepared to bask in the company of a dynamic person who knows few barriers—a true seeker.

THREE TYPES OF GEMINIS

Born between May 22 and May 31 — You are co-ruled by Jupiter, the giver of bounty and generosity. This influence makes for a beneficial package of assets that finds useful outlets in teaching and helping others to better understand themselves and the world around them.

Born between June 1 and June

— You are co-ruled by Mars,
the giver of courage and strength.

What a match for such potentially strong mental attributes. Mars supplies needed fuel to drive you onward to desired ends. Your only need is to watch becoming too aggressive and violent. Impatience tends to be a setback trait.

Born between June 10 and June 21 — You are co - ruled by the sun. Fame, advancement and honor could be natural consequences of your actions. Your strong powers of communication may propel you to great heights. Allowing an inflated ego to dominate your nature is a sure obstacle.
