Urban League Guild hosts Beaux-Arts Disco

GHOUL FRIEND? — Greg Johnson (L) is scared by Miss Angela Womack (R) who wears a monster-type mask at the Oct. 12 Beaux-Arts Disco sponsored by the Baltimore Urban League at the Cade Armory.

BEAUX-ARTS FUN — Pictured at the Urban League Guild's Beaux-Arts Disco are (L to R): Mrs. Odessa McLean, chairperson of the affair and Mrs. Clarice LaV Brooks, president of the guild.

More than 200 persons attended the Baltimore Urban League Guild's First Annual Beaux - Arts Disco last Friday at Cade Armory. The lively affair helped to raise funds in order that the Guild could help the League to fund some special activities which cannot be funded normally in its budget.

More than half of the persons who attended the costume ball came in garbs which ranged from the space creature to the Duke and Duchess to Dracula.

Gregory Johnson who came as "Moon Man" won the costume contest. After the contest, everyone danced or as the new term denotes, discoed to music which was provided by WILD BILL.

Fried chicken and all the fixings were provided by the Guild members for their guests. Ms. Clarice LaV Brooks, president of the Guild, stated: "The Beaux - Arts Disco was a huge success. It was an opportunity friends, members, board members and staff of the League to spend an enjoyable evening together while at the same time supporting the Guild's work."

The BUL Guild is an auxiliary organization of the League that promotes, encourages, assists and engages in cultura,, civic and social activities which publicize and further the goals of the Urban League Movement locally and nationally.

Serving as hostesses were Mrs. Consuela Miller, Trevose, Pa.; Mrs. Margaret Murray, Willingboro, N.J.; Mrs. Audrai H. Malrey, sister of the bridegroom, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Carrie Taylor Henson, Mrs. Edith Hayman, Mrs. Bertha Wilson, all of Easton and sorors of Mrs. Hasty, who is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Other hostesses were Mrs. Beatrice T. Goldsborough, a sister - in - law, Mrs. Shirley Goldsborough, Whalen, Trenton, N.J.; a niece, and Mrs. Thelma Johnson. Miss Lori Sherman, a great - niece was a junior hostess.

Following the ceremony, at a catered lawn reception at the family home in Easton, more than 300 dozen crabs were steamed for the guests, who came from Baltimore and other locations in Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia.

The couple cut a three - tiered wedding cake created by Doris Moore Howell of Royal Oak, Md., a friend of the couple.

Surprise action

Another Electric Eye affair was the surprise party hosted recently for Portia Pinkney, who is vice president and general manager of Electric Eye.

Party host was George Mitchell, owner of the establishment, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown Morgan Pinkney, the honoree's parents.

Some 100 guests came out to help Miss Pinkney celebrate. They feasted on a gourmet buffet and enjoyed open bar throughout the evening.

Miss Pinkney received many gifts and cards in honor of her special day.

She is a 1973 graduate of Northwestern and a 1977 graduate of Brown University in Providence, R. I. with a major in political science and philosophy.

Many of her friends and relatives attended her birthday bash, including her brother, Brown Morgan Pinkney Jr., a Poly graduate who was a 1974 All American linebacker.

Electric Eye action

The Electric Eye, that very new, very "In" banquet room and late night disco in the 6300 block of Reisterstown Road, is the scene for many interesting and festive happenings lately.

On Saturday, Oct. 13, a farewell party was held there for Lee Bowman, formerly associate director of the Park Heights Community Corp, who is leaving that post to become director of an East Baltimore Housing Project.

The party, sponsored by Mrs. Earles Mitchell, Mrs. Doris Tuggle and Anthony Turner of PHCC, was to bid farewell and best wishes in his new position.

Some of his co - workers, friends and family members gathered for this fun fest.

Disco music was provided by the club and guests partied back.

Bowman was presented with many gifts and cards.

Among guests attending were: City Councilman Thomas Waxter, 5th District, Councilwoman Rochelle "Ricki" Spector, 5th District, and Mark Sissman a representative from the City Housing Administration.

Also the Rev. Elijah McDaniels, a board member of PHCC and Mrs. Barbara Fleming.

Cabaret disco

Still another eye - opening Electric Eye gala was the cabaret style disco hosted recently by the King Cobra CB (Citizen's Band) Club. The King Cobra Club is one of the largest CB groups in our city.

Their party at the Eye drew a sellout crowd to enjoy the festivities.

Guests enjoyed wining, dining, dancing and party chit - chat from 10 p.m. until 5 a.m.

President of the King Cobra Club is Oliver Robinson. Members from other CB clubs came to their cabaret from as far as West Virginia, Pennsylvania and North Carolina.

Mosher Street reunion

From the early 1950s to early 1970s the 1800 block of W. Mosher St. was a very close - knit and active neighborhood.

Neighbors baby sat for each other, went on block picnics together and watched out for each other and each other's children.

Over the years these children grew up and began to move on. Some neighbors moved. Some married. Some went away to school.

Recently, the people who lived in the area in the 50s, 60s and early 70s got together for a reunion at the home of Delores Long on Elsinore Avenue.

The reunion was organized by Ms. Long, Agnes (Gummer) Hunter and Faye (Jackson) Thomas, who located and contacted people from the "home neighborhood."

On hand to get reacquainted, reminisce and just enjoy each other's company were: Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hall Sr., their son, Lonnie Hall Jr. and his wife, Pasita; Mr. and Mrs. Winston Jackson, their daughter - in - law, Y'Lot Jackson and daughter, Lisa Jackson;

Also their daughter Faye Thomas, (formerly Faye Jackson) and her husband Calvin Thomas and their daughter, Amy Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Long and their daughter Delore Long (hostess) and family friend, James Medley Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Carter, their daughter Michell Carter, and granddaughter Jennifer.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dorham and their daughter Donna; Mrs. Margie Wilson, her son Ronald Wilson, her daughter Camille (Wilson) Tomlin and her two children, Laura and Neal Tomlin; Mrs. Aletha Harris, Mrs. Annie Pendergrass, Rodney Bayton, Bill Turner, Ms. Daria Dixon, Mrs. Agnes (Gummer) Hunter, her husband Ralph and their two children, Stephanie and Lisa.

More than a decade had passed since the group of former neighbors had seen one another. So much did they enjoy themselves that they plan to get together again next year.

Birthday Bash

Bob Dockins, owner of the S.S.B.B.D. Social Club, 1100 Rutland Ave. gave a surprise birthday party there for his wife, Mary, Tues., Oct. 16.

The Dockins have four children — Surether, 19, Margaret, 18, Robert Jr., 16 and Sheldon, 12.

Mary Dockins is a homemaker and attends United Methodist Central Summerfield Church.

Music was provided by the Andy Ennis Quartet.

In addition to Mary's children and family, many others in attendance to join in her celebration were:

Timothy Holt, Brenda Brewer, Teresa Brewer, Sara Frierson, Zomena Brewer, Marua Williams, Ozelia Price, Valera Hughes, Martha Daniels;
