MVP Willie Stargell: 'I don't know how I feel'

Willie "Pops" Stargell, the 38 - year - old catalyst and acknowledged leader of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, was fumbling for words after he learned that he was the unanimous choice for the car that goes to the most valuable player of the World Series.

This was moments after the Pirates, riding the crest of waves created by Stargell's bat, sank the Orioles, 4 - 1, in the deciding game of the baseball's prestigious title playoff.

"I don't know how I feel right now because this whole thing hasn't hit me yet," said Stargell. "When it hits me, I know I'm going to enjoy all the things we've been throughthis year.

"The term 'Family' is not overrated about our ballclub. We depend on all 25 men. There's a closeness I can't put into words, the feelings we have for each other."

Stargell batted 400 in the series with 12 hits in 30 at bats, including three home runs and seven runs batted in. He was the unanimous choice of nine media representatives.

In defeat, Oriole manager Earl Weaver had praise for Stargell.

"We want to pitch him with the breaking ball off the plate and the fast ball on his fists," said Weaver. "The home run wasn't a bad pitch, but maybe it had too much of the plate.

"If you do that, that's where a ball to Stargell will end up."

Stargell, who will be 39 next March, doesn't plan to retire soon.

"I love this game and I love all that's in it," said Stargell. "When the time comes that I Don't have that desire, I'll step aside and let some youngster enjoy the things I have."

HOPE DISAPPEARS — The last hope for the Orioles' world championship disappeared over the glove, over the fence and from the view of Ken Singleton as the Bird rightfielder vainly chased a blast by Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. The homerun, one of four hits by the Buccaneer captain, gave his team a lead it never relinquished and earned for him the Series MVP.

Colts, Bills see-saw foes

The Colts travel to Buffalo this weekend for their 20th game with the Bills since the AFC merger.

The series is one of streaks. Following a 17-17 tie in the initial meeting, the Colts won the next five games before losing 31-13 in the first game of 1973. The Bills then put together a five-game win streak covering the two '73 games, the two '74 games and the first game in '75.

The Colts started their second five game win streak with a 42-35 win in the second game of '75. Buffalo ended the Colts streak last year in Buffalo with a 24-17 win and the Bills have won two more games since, giving them a three-game string.

In the first game of '79, played in Baltimore, the Bills' aerial attack scored three TDs on passes covering, 24, 47 and 9 yards.

Joe Ferguson passed for 317 yards with Frank Lewis and Jerry Butler being his favorite receivers with three catches each. Roland Hooks led the Bills ground attack with 35 yards.

Kirk Field doubleheader features light MSA slate

It's a rather light weekend in MSA football with but six games scheduled. The teams may even get a chance to play in dry weather after six consecutive weeks of rain.

Two other league games, pitting Mervo against Northern and Carver at Walbrook, were played earlier in the week.

Two games that will loom big in "B" conference will be played Friday at Kirk Field. Dunbar and Edmondson meet at 11:30, and Forest Park battles Lake Clifton at 3:15 p.m.

As of last week's results, Edmondson with a 3-1 league mark is in a three-way tie for second place with Lake Clifton and Northern.

Edmondson's overall record is 3-2-1. Her two losses were to Southwestern and Northern.

Both losses were by margins of six points.

Dunbar's overall mark is 3-1-1. Her only loss was to Lake Clifton. The team's latest win was a stunning upset of previously unbeaten Northern.

Forest Park coming off a scoreless struggle with Mervo, has a 1-1 league mark and an overall record of 2-1-3.

Lake Clifton has been no surprise. Her 3-1 record is about what was expected. The Lakers have beaten, Dunbar, Walbrook and Douglass.

Southwestern, after winning its first two contests, has lost four straight. The Sabers have played only two league contsts and have lost both, which allows them to share last place in "A" conference, Division II with Gibbons.

They'll try and get back on the winning track against unbeaten, division leader Gilman playing at Gilman.

Patterson, who is in second place in Division II with a 1-1 league record and a 2-3-1 overall mark, takes on Gibbons at Gibbons.

Poly and McDonough, both showing 2-0 league marks, battle for first place in "A" conference, Divisin I, on the Engineers' home field.

McDonough has not been beaten by any team while Poly has fallen twice but on both occasions to Division II opponents Calvert Hall and Gilman.

Ironically, the division's two last place clubs, Loyola and Southern, meet at Loyola.

There are no games scheduled for Saturday....Samuel Davis.

Complacency of '78 shadows Morgan at Delaware State

By Samuel Davis

Morgan State's Bears, aware of what can happen to a team that has experienced early success, are determined to be careful at Dover (Del) tomorrow (Saturday) when they take the field against Delaware State.

The Golden Bears, who are off well, with a 2-0 mark and 3-2 overall, are meeting a Hornet eleven that is 1-4 on the season.

When the Bears played Delaware last season, they entered the game with a 2-3-1 mark and figured Delaware, whose record wasn't much better, would be a pushover.

Morgan won a defensive struggle 13-6.

"Last year we thought we could loaf our way through the game," said Bear Coach Clarence Thomas. "That was my fault because my attitude was that we could beat this team with one hand tied behind our backs, and the team sort of shared my view."

The situation with Delaware this year is not much different. The Hornets, who finished last season with a 3-3 league mark and 3-7 overall are having their problems. They have allowed 164 points while scoring a mere 45.

But despite these dismal statistics, Thomas will not allow his team to repeat its mistake of last year.

"The thing about this week's game is that we will probably work hard or harder than we have all season.

"They're a big football team and they're putting it together. The Hornets are much better than their record indicates, but we've come too far to be embarrassed now," Thomas explained.

"Besides all I have to do is show the guys the film from last season. They really put a beating on us," the coach added jokingly.

Bullets reduce roster

The Washington Bullets waived forward Garcia Hopkins and placed forward - centers Mitch Kupchak and Steve Malovic on the injured reserve list this week to bring their roster to the mandatory 11 - man limit.

Hopkins, a sixth round draft choice from Morgan State, appeared in all eight preseason games and averaged 3.8 points.

Perhaps the best sixth man in basketball, Kupchak underwent back surgery June 29 to remove a herniated disc and has not begun practicing with the team. He is currently working out on his own and is expected to join team drills next month.

Malovic has been plagued by injury throughout the exhibition season.
