Mrs. Lili S. Boston given 'Portrait of a Lady' tribute

ISN'T SHE LOVELY? — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boston admire portrait of Mrs. Boston which was unveiled at the recent "Portrait of a Lady" tribute paid her at La Fontaine Bleu.

A tribute entitled "Portrait of a Lady" was extended to Mrs. Lili Sturgis Boston in the Crystal Room of La Fontaine Blue, Erdman Ave. recently.

The unique presentation was a surprise affair hosted by her club members of a small circle of friends known as S.N.A.

The family, guests and head table enjoyed a delicious buffet and warm program presentation that emphasized the personality of the honoree.

A verbal and musical portrait was painted to climax an actual portrait presented to Mrs. Boston on behalf of all who attended.

The program began with a portrait profile given by Mrs. Muriel D. Johnson, who also presided throughout the evening's festivities.

The verbal profile told of Mrs. Boston's education at Morgan University, McGill University, Montreal, Canada and the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

It also told of her service to the Baltimore City Public Schools a teacher of French, Spanish, English and German, and of her influence on students as she challenged them to strive for excellence.

It particularly stressed her involvement with the "total child" and of her authorship and assistance in the development of program vehicles to increase young minds' grasp of humanistic values.

Miles G. Harrison, Mrs. Eleanor Howard and Frank Beaird followed with her dimensions as a professional;

Mrs. Dorothy J. Barrick, a lifelong friend, spoke of her in original verse as a performer; Vocal flashbacks of Mrs. Boston were done on tape by Mrs. Fonzella Murray, another lifelong friend and school mate.

Mrs. Betty S. Graves, another lifelong friend, spoke of her as a neighbor; Mrs. Lorraine M. Wood, still another friend, spoke of her as a friend;

Misses Maria and Maya Boston, daughters of the honoree, sang "You Light Up My Life" in tribute to her as a mother.

Joseph Boston spoke of his wife in very emotional tones and told of her dimensions as a spouse.

A solo, "Passing By" rendered by George L. Moore, yet another lifelong friend, signaled the unveiling of the portrait by Mrs. Jeannette Spencer and Mrs. Edwin M. Burke.

To the oohs and ashs of all present, the lady, Mrs. Lili S. Boston, took the podium and thanked all for their presence and support in very sincere tones.

The invocation and benediction were rendered by the Rev. Rovenia F. Tatum.

The program was interspersed with fun songs led by Lili's sister, Mrs. Gloria S. Stokes. E. Wayne, Mrs. Boston's nephew, served as disc jockey.

A lovely touch to an evening that was tops was the presentation of ribboned carnations to each lady guest present by Mrs. Edwin M. Burke, who also did all of the corsages.

George Barracks was responsible for the outstanding profile-center-pieces at each table.

Guests attending in addition to program participants were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beaird, Miss Thelma Lucas, Mrs. Hazel H. Givens, Mr. and Mrs. George Ball, Mr. and Mrs. James Spencer and Dr. Frederick and Flossie Dedmond;

Chase House residents celebrate Halloween

Halloween parties were plentiful in Charm City this week, and even though Halloween is mainly thought of as a holiday for children, no age group seems to have been left out.

And so it was that the residents of the Chase House, a senior citizen's establishment at Cathedral and Chase Sts. were not to be outdone.

From 2 until 5 p.m. on Oct. 31 they, too, had their Halloween fun at a gala party held in their recreation room.

The party was given for them by the entertainment committee of the Harmony Club of Chase House.

100 guests, all residents, came out to join in the fun. Many were in costume and there were many amusing sights to be seen.

The recreation room was decorated beautifully in orange and black, replete with pumpkins, scarecrows and cornstalks.

Guests enjoyed, along with the music, lively chit-chat and a delicious menu, which included friend chicken, tuna salad, fish, munchies and cider.

And who said "Halloween is just for children?" Certainly not the Chase House residents, who enjoyed their Halloween bash to the hilt.

U.S. Dept. of Agriculture honors Vanessa Baldwin

Ms. Vanessa L. Baldwin, of Baltimore, received a Group Award for Excellence in Departmental Administration (Employee Safety and Health) from the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture.

This award was given to her for exhibiting exceptional professionalism and effectiveness while serving as a student intern, working on a part-time basis, conducting the management survey entitled "Top Management's Role in Developing Employee Assistance Programs."

Ms. Baldwin's effectiveness created increased awareness of alcohol and drug abuse problems.

The award was presented during the recent "1979 U.S. Dept. of Agriculture's Assistant Secretary for Administration Annual Awards Ceremony."

The honor was received jointly with Mrs. Cortez H. Martin, and was presented by Dr. Joan S. Wallace, assist. sec. for administration.

Ms. Baldwin is a 1975 graduate of the Univ. of Md., Balto. City., and she is presently a graduate student at the Howard Univ. School of Social Work in Washington, D.C.

The honoree is a licensed Social Worker Associate in the state of Maryland.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Spencer and Cicero Baldwin.

HOW TO RING AROUND THE WORLD

DIAL DIRECT*

If your area has International Dialing, you have the whole world at your fingertips, and you can reach anywhere-in no time! Here's how it works to London, for instance. Dial:

INTERNATIONAL ACCESS CODE 011 + COUNTRY CODE 44 + CITY CODE 1 + LOCAL NUMBER

Take advantage of your International Dialing Service. It not only saves you time, but money. Like, 90¢ on a 3-minute call to London-that's more than 16%. And there are comparable savings around the world.

ALMOST DIRECT

Until you get International Dialing, here's the way to speed up your overseas calls. Dial 0, and be ready to tell the Operator the country, city and local number you want. Specify Station or Person. The faster you give your information, the faster you reach your party-and that helps free the Operator for the next call, and the next time you want to call. And on Station calls not requiring special operator assistance, you can get the same low rates as International Dialing.

P.S. Everyone can dial direct to Canada and the Caribbean, to Alaska and Hawaii and to parts of Mexico-just as you dial direct to cities inside the continental U.S.

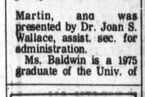

Announcing a new line or a new heir, you can tell the world faster if you keep a record of the codes you use-and use them.

*You can dial direct if your phone number starts with any of these three digits:
