Friends, relatives honor 'pioneer' SSA retiree

SPECIAL GUEST — Joseph Bracey (R), a Social Security Administration employee for more than 30 years, was the honoree at a recent retirement party given by friends and relatives at the Village of Cross Keys Holiday Room. Shown with Bracey are Walter Statham, director of the Office of Central Record Operations and Mrs. Barbara Huff, SSA labor relations specialist. Statham characterized his friend as a "pioneer" because Bracey was the first black in personnel at SSA.

SMOOCH — Joseph Bracey's wife Norma gives her husband a kiss at his recent retirement party. He received a deluxe set of golf clubs from those in attendance.

GOOD TIME — More than 150 friends and relatives helped Social Security employee Joseph Bracey launch his retirement after more than 30 years of service. Shown here are (L to R) Theodore E. Brown, Mrs. John Stokes, daughter of the honoree; Mrs. Norma Bracey, his wife and Mrs. Maude Brown.

AT GRAMPA'S PARTY — Rodney Starks, 6, grandson of Joseph Bracey, samples fresh fruit at his grandfather's recent retirement party.

Frisby Historical Society holds Christmas bash

The annual Christmas Party of the Herbert M. Frisby Historical Society Inc. was held recently at the Sequoia Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll.

Guests enjoyed themselves in a holiday atmosphere of the gaily decorated home. Refreshments were provided by members of the society.

Charles Woodford, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll's nephew, acted as disc jockey, spinning the latest disco hits.

Christmas carols; games and small talk added to the occasion.

Guests included the Bill Burrells, the Roland B. Williamses, the Algernon Jacksons, the George Carrolls, the Edward Wilkinses and Dr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Frisby.

Also, Elizabeth Johnson, Ollie Cullen, Catherine Perry, Thelma Bando, Charlotte Watkins, Jackie Dutton, Charles Woodford, Buena V. Prettyman, Helen Harden, Edith Thomas, Louise M. Dennis and Doris M. Greene of Washington, D.C.

Society members present included Mary C. Spellman, Thelma Addison, Rosa Gaskins, Mattie Gardner, Mildred Williams, Evelyn Burrell, Gwendolyn De Cicilio, Mamie Woodford, Mary S. Thompson, Catherine Frisby.

Also, Arnethia Williams, Marguerite Carroll, Kathleen Newsome, Allegra Taylor, H. Lota Howard, Catherine Howard, Rosalind Lee, Jessie Perkins, Ida Swanson and Louise G. Turks.

Committee members included Mildred Williams, president; Louise Turks, chairperson; Marguerite Carroll, co-chairperson; Rosa Gaskins, Thelma Addison, Allegra Taylor, Mamie Woodford, Rosaland Lee and Ruth Rosedom.

Mr. and Mrs. Leak Winborne (Phyllis) recently entertained to honor their son, Malverne Cryor Winborne, who received his doctorate degree in psychology and education.

Numerous out-of-town relatives and guests from Detroit, Pittsburgh, Washington, D.C., New York and the Virgin Islands attended the affair held at the Winborne residence.

Delicious food and exotic dishes were prepared by the hosts. Floral arrangements added to the comfortabe atmosphere.

Mr. and Mrs. Winborne are the parents of nine children, all of whom have college educations. The youngest are twins and are presently students at Morgan State University.

How to get social, club news in AFRO

Just mail your announcements to the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN, City Desk, Attention Pattie Hodges.

There is no charge for news or photographic coverage.

Of course publication of any social event is contingent upon factors of time and news space available in our editions.

We try to include activities of individuals and organizations from all walks of life, as space permits.

Chronicling the civic, social and club activities of our community has been part of our mission of service to Baltimore for 87 years.

As we enter the '80s we want to do even more.

Send us news of your weddings, parties, banquets, achievements, reunions, etc.

For coverage, write:
AFRO City Desk, Pattie Hodges, or call 728-8200, Monday through Friday afternoon.

Moses Warner, of Cambridge, Md., celebrated his 102nd birthday Dec. 24, 1979.

He is an active member of Metampkin Baptist Church in Accomac County, Va. for more than 60 years.
