Letters to the Editor

DAWN Magazine welcomes letters expressing all viewpoints. Letters must include signature and mailing address. Names may be withheld for adequate reason. The editor reserves the right to condense letters. Address all correspondence to DAWN Magazine, 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md.

ANTIQUE CLUB

DAWN 1979 November Magazine, there was a story about an antique auto club called the Harbor City Motortiques. .

We have an antique club here in Richmond, and would like to get in touch with the Baltimore club. Can you supply the address? DONALD HUGHES

Cleveland, Ohio - I read with great interest and pleasure about antique cars in the November DAWN. I am not an enthusiast of old cars per se, the 1957 two-door hardtop DeSoto Sportsman I bought new in '57, is fastly approaching the antique status quo.

The bottom line is that it has never had a major tune-up and has only 25,000 miles.

The real purpose for this letter is I would like very much to join that Baltimore antique club. Will you furnish the address?

OLINS. ELLINGTON

These are typical of the many letters received in the DAWN office requesting the address of the club, so here it is.

Address your correspondence to Harbor City Motortiques, 100 E. Trenton St., Baltimore, Md.

ASTROLOGY SERIES

San Pedro, Calif. - Is it possible to get back issues of DAWN Magazine? I would like to get issues all the way back to January 1979.

I am especially interested in the astrological series by Michael that ran in DAWN.

R. SUMLAR Unfortunately, those back issues of DAWN are not available, however there is currently being

The Editor's Desk

On the cover this month is pop singer Gloria Gaynor, who has been called the queen of disco, a title she refutes. But, you can read her story in this issue.

This is our annual entertainment edition, and once again, you will be able to read stories about some of the super stars which were written following actual live performances.

January is traditionally the businesses, wherein most publications are drastically reduced in size as everyone recovers from the strenuous holidays.

Thus, this edition of your DAWN Magazine is of necessity abbreviated, but we have attempted to retain some of the features you have come to expect in DAWN.

Good news for our poetry fans. The response has been so terrific, that poetry editor Melvin Brown has agreed to devote much more time to accommodating the needs and wishes of our readers.

As you may know, a backlog has accumulated, and responses have been rather slow - but this is a new year, so look for speedier

This will mark the second edition of our Astrology series by Amali. We would appreciate your comments on the new feature.

Amali, who was recommended to us by Michael, is one of the favorite astrologers of many entertainers. She regularly did charts for Minnie Riperton, before her untimely death, and currently is the astrological consultant for Stevie Wonder and Gil Scott-compiled a booklet containing all of the astrological data which was produced by Michael for DAWN. It will be available within a couple of months, so watch this space for details.

ABOUT MAX

Orlando, Fla. - In regard to the picture of Max Robinson which appeared on your October cover, it just thrilled my heart from top to bottom since I am one of his permanent viewers.

Thanks to DAWN Magazine for bringing such interest to the many fans of Max.

MISS PEARL IRVING

RECORD ALBUM

Chicago, Ill. - Please tell me where I can get Robert Guillaume's record album. I saw him on a morning TV show, so I know he made one, but I can't find

MRS. OPAL MARTIN The record was rather obscure, and may be out of print. Suggest you check the yellow pages in your phone directory, for those companies which specialize in finding special recordings. There are many such companies.

In This Issue:

- •Celebenit returns this month, and is in its accustomed place on page 4.
- •Gloria Gaynor is one of the top recording artists, who has been called a queen of disco. Complete story begins on page 5.
- •When a married couple is also a successful writing, producing and performing team, they have found the winning combination. Ashford and Simpson's story begins on page 7.
- ·Although she weighs only 100 pounds, she packs more energy into her small frame than you would believe. Page 10.
- Fans of the Poetrie Gallerie will find the latest gleanings on page 12.
- continues her astrological forecast, concentrating this month on Capricorn Aquarius.

Coming

February is Black History Month, and your DAWN Magazine will spotlight some obscure facts about blacks who made important contributions to history.
