Lambda Kappa Mu Spring Ball is festive fundraiser

By Pattie Hodges, AFRO Staff Writer

The weather may have been horrendous outside, what with high winds, bone-chilling temperatures and snow, but inside La Fontaine Rouge, Bel Air Road all was warm, cozy and very festive.

It was Friday, March 21, the night of the Lambda Kappa Mu (Iota Chapter) Sorority's Spring Ball and the weather did not stop the 300 guests who came out to sip, dine, dance and engage in lively camraderie from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

The menu was scrumptuous buffet which included fried chicken, roast beef, ham, green beans almondine, tossed salad, potatoes, meat balls, rolls, cake and beverages, which of course meant cocktails as well.

The music and the gaiety of the charming sorors set the tone for the evening.

Bill Cummings and his Gentlemen of Professional Sound took everyone on a delightful trip down memory lane, with the oldies-but-goodies from the 40's through the 60's, and then played the latest disco tunes too.

It made everybody - and I mean everybody dance. There was even a line dance going at one point.

The purpose of the affair was to benefit the sorority's scholarship fund.

Lambda Kappa Mu sorors who served on the dance committee were: Mrs. Dorothy S. Stone, chairman; Louise Turks, Vivian Bennett, Elaine Alexander, Imogene Douglass, Arabella Ross, Mary D. Silva, Betty Shelton, E. Monterey Williams, Elizabeth Day, Ovella Queen, Josephine Flournoy, Bertha Sembly, Corrine Terry and Alice Roberts.

Delegate Rawlings, and Lieutenant Bogley presented the plaques.

Senator Welcome whose presentation came last, made the response for the other honorees, expressing thanks to all for the awards with the hope that the significance of what had taken place in producing the banquet would serve as leaven in the community, helping to unify it poltucal.

She also thanked the Bluefeld Management for a huge cake decorated in colorful design for her birthday two days away, and rolled down in front of the dais for all to see.

Seated here and there all over the place were VIPs in city, state and national life — civil rights activists and advocates, councilmen, state delegates, senators, lawyers, doctors, businessmen, educators, church leaders and representatives from national Greek-letter organizations, social clubs, professional clubs, political organizations, grand lodges, labor councils and other people from the community and out-lying neighborhoods.

The five Sitting Judges and other elective office hopefuls were there to shake hands and be seen.

Vocal music for the ocassion was furnished by Michael Tillman, local artist. His accompanist was Mrs. Genevieve Wisner.

Reverend James Wise, Pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church, brought the benediction.

The Alpha Angels, (Sweethearts of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Towson, State University, have a worthwhile project which they engage in on a monthly basis.

Their first project of this semester was participation in the Epilepsy Telethon which took place on March 11 at the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Building, 700 E. Joppa Rd., Towson.

The Bong Show, a part of the telethon, emanated from the Johns Hopkins University, broadcast live on WMAR (Channel 2).

Audience viewers called in to vote on the acts and to make their pledges to the epilepsy telethon. Winners on the show were picked by pledgees who called in.

That's where the 17 Alpha Angels came in. These ladies were kept busy from 8 until 11 p.m., taking pledges by phone from those who called in to help in the fight against epilepsy.

There were others taking pledges but the Alpha Angels were the only ones working as a group.

According to Miss Kim Blaney, an Alpha Angel: "Out of all the projects we have done, on this one we felt the most useful. It was a great experience."

Alpha Angels participating were: Gay Pitchford, Beverly Hill, Rose Marie Jones, Suzanne Pope, Dorothea Thomas, Sabrina Teel, Doreen Rubey, Darlene Bostic and Kim Blaney.
