800 guests at Easter luncheon

Ministers Wives honor Mrs. Bertha C. Winston

The 27th annual Easter Monday luncheon sponsored by the Ministers Wives Committee of the Women's Convention to the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland, was in honor of Mrs. Bertha C. Winston.

Mrs. Winston, who could not attend the luncheon because she is ill, received an award from the Ministers Wives and Mayor Schaefer.

Nearly 800 guests attended the luncheon on April 7 at Martin's West. Mrs. Winston is the founder and organizer of the luncheon. In 1953 she decided that ministers wives should get together for some type of activity at least once a year.

The first luncheon was held at First Baptist Church with 150 guests attending. Since then the luncheon has been held at local churches and in 1965 due to the overwhelming crowd was held at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Mrs. Winston is the wife of the late Rev. W. J. Winston, founder of Wayland Baptist Church. Speaker after speaker alluded to the honoree's leadership and involvement in the church.

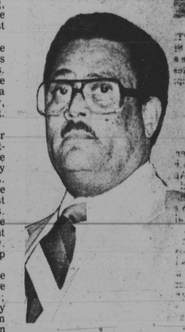
The theme for the luncheon was "Toward A Better World: Living, Loving and Lifting." Mrs. Marie Moyd, of Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church presided.

Several members of the Ministers Wives modeled hats designed by Mrs. Lillian Cates. Others who participated on the program were Mrs. Cecelia McLeod, Mrs. Theophra Silver, and the Rev. Ollie Fleming, St. John Baptist Church.

Also, Mrs. Sallie O. Scott, Cedar Baptist Church; the Rev. Matthew R. Silver, president of the United Baptist Missionary Convention; Mrs. Betty L. Johnson, president of the Woman's auxiliary United Baptist Missionary Convention; Mrs. Pauline Logan, New Cornerstone Baptist; Mrs. Eva Sapp, Pleasant Grove Baptist and the Rev. Dockery Thompson, Friendship Baptist.

Committee members were Mesdames Pauline Logan, Marie Moyd, general chairpersons; Cora P. Crawley, secretary; Sally O. Scott and Lina Toyer, program chairpersons; Mary Harrington and Goldie Kitchen, subscriptions; Leola O'Neal and Mary Gray, publicity; Lovie Johnson and Sarah Fleming, hostesses.

ACCEPTS AWARD — Mrs. Goldie Kitchen is shown accepting the award for Mrs. Bertha C. Winston from Mrs. Pauline Logan. The 27th luncheon was in honor of Mrs. Winston who could not attend because of illness.



GREETINGS — The Rev. Matthew R. Silver, president of the United Baptist Missionary Convention, extended greetings at the annual luncheon.

CITATION FROM THE MAYOR — Roscoe Herring, who represented Mayor Schaefer at the Ministers Wives luncheon, is shown presenting Mrs. Ida Redd an award. Mrs. Redd received the award for Mrs. Bertha C. Winston, founder and organizer of the luncheon who is now in the hospital.

MINISTERS WIVES who planned the 27th luncheon shown are Mesdames Sally O. Scott, program chairperson; Pauline Logan, general chairperson; Marie Moyd, general co-chairperson; Marie Moyd, general co-chairperson; Lina Taylor, program chairperson; Cora P. Crawley, secretary; Mary Gray, publicity; Goldie Kitchen, subscription and Leola O'Neal, publicity.

Deltas adopt Redeemers Palace

Members of Delta Sigma Theta Inc., have adopted Redeemers Palace at 212 N. Pine St. Redeemers Palace is a private non profit corporation administered by a 30 member board of directors.

Activities for youth in the neighborhood from 5 to 25 years old are offered daily. The Rev. Willie Ray is the founder and executive director of Redeemers Palace.

The Palace is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. Services are also held every Sunday at 11 a.m.

The Deltas will render viable services to preschoolers through young adults at the Palace. The areas of services will include education, mental health, counseling, tutorial, a food bank and clothing.

The Deltas have furnished the Palace with a library and have started a tutorial program. A parent awareness workshop and open house was held in March.

Rev. Ray saved the Old Pine Street Police station four years ago when the city was planning to demolish the building to make way for the new city boulevard, which was to run through the area. He said he decided to stay in the area because of the yo large number of young people who live in the area.

Last rites held for James Nix

Funeral services for James Edward Nix were held April 9 at Grace United Presbyterian Church. Mr. Nix died April 5 at Johns Hopkins Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Born in Jackson, Ga., Mr. Nix, 65, moved to Pittsburgh and graduated from Allegheny High School. He graduated from Morehouse College in Atlanta with a bachelor's degree in political science. He received his master's degree in public administration from Maxwell School of Citizenship at Syracuse University in 1954.

He served in the Army from 1941 to 1947 as a non commissioned officer for four years. Until 1947, he held the position of post information and education officer, staff officer and company executive. When he was discharged, he was a heutenant.

Mr. Nix was director of student activities and professor of political science at Prairie View A and M College in Prairie View, Texas from 1952 to 1957.

In 1964, he joined Waddell and Reed's investment company as a registered representative and in 1969, he became the company's district manager.

Mr. Nix was president and a member of the board of directors of Big Brothers of America and the Health and Welfare Council of Central Maryland. He was a member of the board of directors of what is now the United Way of Central Maryland and chairman of the speakers bureau for the United Way campaign drive.

He was also an elder at Grace United Presbyterian Church and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity and the Baltimore Frontiers. He is survived by his wife, the former Sara Jacobs; a daughter, Ms. Patricia McIver of Pittsburgh; a brother, William Morris Nix of Atlanta and three grandchildren.

N. M. Carroll mortgage secured

A local area manager for HUD stated the closing has been completed on the mortgage for N. M. Carroll Manor Apartments at Arlington and Harlem Avenue.

The $3,488.70 mortgage was secured by HUD under section 202 of the National Housing Act, as amended. Section 202 provided direct federal loans for housing for the elderly and handicapped.

N. M. Carroll Manor Apartments were developed by the N.M. Carroll Manor, Incorporated of Baltimore. The 100 unit complex offers one and two bedroom apartments renting from $393 to $495 per month, all of which are section eight assisted.

Tenants who are eligible for section eight assistance will pay up to 25 of their income towards rent and HUD will pay the remainder to the owner.

Each apartment is equipped with a range, refrigerator, kitchen exhaust fan, carpet and air conditioning equipment. Special spaces such as coin operated laundry facilities, a dining room, patio and a community room are also included.

N. M. Carroll Methodist Home for the Aged, Inc., of Baltimore is the managing agent for the project.
