—Douglass Reunion

Latin and Spanish teacher at Douglass and former vice principal of Western High (now retired) introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Edna O. Campbell.

Mrs. Campbell, former English teacher and principal of Douglass (also now retired) pointed up to all present the great significance of the occasion and gave a history of Douglass High, using it from its beginning in the physical plant located at Dolphin Street and Pennsylvania Avenue to its present site on Gwynns Falls Parkway.

She admonished all to remember that Douglass High was one of the first three high schools established for blacks in the United States and that the school has produced many graduates who have become successful and prominent in the mainstream of life.

Earl Hagan presented Certificates of Award to three present Douglass High students. Marvin Pasco was honored for having achieved the highest mathematics score in city - wide testing this year.

Preston Reed was cited for winning first prize in the city-wide division of Essay Writing for the 'Baltimore's Best' competition.

Calvin Blair was honored for being number one in present scholarship standing at Douglass, with an average of 99.6.

Other honorees, who received plaques from terminal Mickens Alma Walker and Elsa Johnson were Douglass alumni who have distinguished themselves in various fields.
