Hints For Homemakers/Inez Kaiser

Salesman emits 'SOS' for close-up spots

DEAR INEZ: My daily work schedule as a salesman is not to be believed! Every day, I am constantly involved in meeting people and making sales contacts.

Naturally, I have to make sure my breath is always fresh and not offensive, because I am in so many face-to-face situations. Can you suggest anything to help me?

SALESMAN ON THE GO

DEAR SALESMAN ON THE GO: There are many people who have this very same concern and I have a very simple, sure solution.

Just use a toothpaste like CLOSE-UP for teeth to cleaning, breath and tissue, healthy teeth.

CLOSE-UP is a two in one toothpaste that has the cleaning benefits of a toothpaste plus all the breath-freshening qualities of a mouthwash.

CLOSE-UP also comes in red-gel or green-liquid so both the gel and liquid lovers can enjoy it. Both do an excellent job of cleaning teeth and freshening breath in one single co-ordinate step.

We are all keenly aware of the importance of fresh-smelling breath and clean, bright teeth in our day-to-day social or business situations, in meeting new people and in making a good impression.

Thanks to its unique combination of real mouthwash and super-whitening agents, CLOSE-UP takes care of both fresh breath and clean teeth.

You don't have to be a salesman to want your personal appearance to be at its very best. And, believe me, you can't beat CLOSE-UP in close-up situations.

WASH AWAY DIRT, SWEAT AND ODOR

MY HUSBAND RICHARD enjoys nothing more than visiting our lakeside home in the Ozarks. He enjoys outdoors, all day walking up and down the road - and fishing off the dock.

When he comes for dinner in the evening, he immediately heads for the bathroom to take a nice, warm shower. And to wash away all the sweat and dirt accumulated on his body during a long, active day outdoors, he prefers LIFEBUOY soap because of its deodorant protection.

LIFEBUOY really gets your body clean and keeps it smelling good. Soiling pores wash dirt, sweat and odor better than LIFEBUOY. It provides deodorants to kill body odor and also wash away sweat and dirt. With all the rushing around we do these warm days, everyone needs a soap that can assure this deodorant protection.

What more could you ask from a deodorant bar?

OUTDOOR LIFE POSES LAUNDRY PROBLEMS

WITH WARM WEATHER bursting out all over, adults as well as children are turning to their favorite pastimes. And that means dirty, sandstained clothes, dusty jeaning suits, and muddy athletic socks, among other things.

There's one good way to solve all of your washday problems, just try WISK, the heavy-duty liquid laundry detergent. In fact, WISK is ideal for the entire family wash.

Use WISK when you launder all washable athletic and sports clothes, along with other soiled garments. Pour a little WISK on the really tough stains. It actually works better than powders and sprays.

WISK cleans your whole wash in any temperature water, hot, warm or cold. And with protective, WISK works just as well in cold water as in hot . . . no powder can do that! It's especially safe for all machine-washable fabrics.

So whether it's hiking or fishing gear, tennis whites, golf slacks and skirts, bathing suits or even canvas athletic shoes, let WISK clean up for you.
