Nettie Millard feted at graduation celebration

HOSTS AND HOSTESSES who functioned at the graduation celebration for Nettie V. Millard, who are also 1980 graduates of Walbrook High School are (L to R): Beverly Green, Kevin Benns, Marcis Gattis, and Darnell Tabb. Far (R) is Elnora Noel, guest.

Nettie V. Millard, daughter of Mrs. Osalese Millard and Harry Millard, of Baltimore, and the student who was selected and has been serving as page to Congressman Parren J. Mitchell for the past year, was feted at a graduation party held at the Convention Center, Pratt and Sharp Streets on Sunday, June 22.

The party was in honor of Nettie's June 1980 graduation from Walbrook Senior High School and from the Capitol Page School, Washington, D.C.

This celebration, while providing a fun-filled gala for Nettie and the 200 guests present, served also in giving the youngsters attending for thought.

Ms. Raymona Robinson, of the International Toastmistress Club Organization, presided.

Mrs. Millard, of the Executive Board Committee, Walbrook Sr. High School, gave the welcome, followed by the invocation offered by Mrs. Joan Cooper, family friend, who also gave the occasion.

Guest speaker was Ms. Verna Day, International Speech Contest winner, spoke on the theme for Nettie's party - 'In Pursuit of Excellence.'

She encouraged the youngsters and Nettie to have faith in themselves, to work hard to achieve their goals and not to let disappointments and setbacks discourage them.

Presentation of awards was done by Mrs. Beverly Douglass, assistant to the director, Baltimore Promotion and Tourism.

Nettie was presented a citation from the mayor's office on her academic excellence. Also receiving an award for academic excellence was Anthony Presley, a junior at Walbrook and AFRO-AMERICAN Teen Writer.

Among other awards which Nettie garnered upon her graduation were The Dansforth Award for leadership in the Page School, a certificate of congratulations from President Carter.

Dr. Anne O. Emery, principal, Walbrook High, made remarks, commending Nettie on her achievements and encouraging her and her guests.40 forge ahead to reach their goals.

Following the singing of the 'Black National Anthem' led by Mrs. Beverly Douglass, Nettie and her guests, who had earlier feasted on hot and cold hors d' oeuvres and sippables, danced to the music of Maxi-Disco, by Anderson R. Ward.

Hosts and hostesses for the Ocasion were Darnell Tabb, Yolanda Smith, Marcia Gattis, Keith Puryear, Beverly Green, Kevin Benns. All are also 1980 graduates of Walbrook Senior High School.

Special guests attending were Jerry Lymas, director, Special Projects, 7th-D., Md. and Mrs. Thelma Daley.

Bob Clay wedding reception held at Ritz

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT CLAY are pictured during their reception held recently at The Ritz.

The elegant wedding reception of popular Baltimore business contractor, Robert (Bob) Clay and his lovely new wife, Gerry, was held recently at The Ritz, 28 Light St.

The many guest who attended to extend best wishes to the couple included prominent Baltimoreans from the fields of business, law and politics.

For sipping, there was champagne continously flowing from a silver fountain.

Gourmet chef and caterer Jonathan Edges provided a feast of delectables including baked rock fish stuffed with crabmeat, chicken wings, beef bourguignon and an assortment of salads and dinner rolls.

The bride, groom and guests enjoyed the sumptuous repast among creatively artistic arrangements of floral designs and with continuous music provided by The Johnny Pollie Trio.

The radiant couple cut an exquisitely beautiful six-tiered wedding cake.

The reception was coordinated by Bonnie Butler, assistant to the vice president of advertising, Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN and Evelyn Douglass, head of Eve's Modeling Troupe and the wife of Delegate Archer, Marcia Porter and Fran Straughn, all attire in white and gold.

On hand serving as hostesses were pretty Diane Tunstall, Pat Archer, Marcia Porter and Fran Straughn, all attire in white and gold.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Clay are at home in Laurel, Md.

Epicureans

'Togetherness' inscribed in the middle, circles within circles at the top which contained chapter names with a red rose and a candle jutting out of the top.

Candles were lighted during the dance, giving the affair a lovely atmosphere for dining on the delicious dinner and for dancing.

Bobby Felder's Band provided the out - of - sight music for lots of dancing.

On Saturday, June 21 the Eppies enjoyed a delicious luncheon, at which time a $1,000 check was presented by local president, Mrs. Audrey Pinderhughes on behalf of the National Epicureans, Inc., to the Oblate Sisters of Providence, of Baltimore, for their outreach effort in the inner city.

Entertainment at the luncheon was provided by Cheryl Pasteur and her group who did drama, dances and singing to the delight of all present.

Mrs Pasteur is the daughter of local Eppie Mrs. Elva Edwards.

On Saturday afternoon the Baltimore Eppos entertained the out - of - town Eppos from 12 noon until 4 p.m. at the Ritz, 28 Light St., providing transportation for the trip downtown and back to Hunt Valley Inn.

At Saturday night's dinner dance everyone enjoyed another delicious sitdown dinner, featuring prime rib of beef and other delectables.

Again, Bobby Felder was superb with his fantastic sounds which kept folks dancing until the wee hours.

During intermission many trophies and awards were presented by local Eppos to out - of - town Eppos for excelling in golf and tennis tournaments.

Sunday brunch from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m. at The Inn rounded out the weekend, after which Baltimore Epicureans entertained in the hospitality suite until out-of-town guests, who had a fantastic time, departed at 1 p.m.

The host - chapter received lovely floral arrangements from other local women's organizations, including The Moles, Links, Northeasterners, Smart Set, as well as from the Columbia, New York and Washington, D.C. chapters of the Epicureans.

The Carats, as the sponsoring chapter for the New York Epicureans, gifted each Baltimore Eppie with a crystal champagne stem glass and a miniature bottle of champagne from Tiffany's.

National Epicureans, Inc. is a group of women organized originally in Richmond, Va., in 1944, and locally in December, 1954. They are devoted to social - civic works.

National president Reba Smithea was on hand for the conclave.

Officers of the Baltimore chapter are Mrs. Audrey Pinderhughes, president; Mrs. Gordine Blount, vice-president; Mrs. Elva Edwards, secretary; Mrs. Bertha Forte, financial secretary; Mrs. Barbara Bennett, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Morton, chaplain and Mrs. Doris Wallace, chairperson, hospitality.

Mrs. Delores Sykes was conclave chairperson. Mrs. Merita Stokes was cochairperson.

Other members of the host chapter are Mesdames Blanche Beckham, Miriam Brown, Elise Clarke, Gladys Daniels, Bernadine Harrison, Dorothy Johnston, Nikki Randolph, Anabel Rawlings, Joan Phillips and Anita Watson.

The Committee for the AFRO-AMERICAN 'Father of the Year Contest' wishes to extend warmest thanks to Crip's Florist Shop for the lovely flowers it provided for the "Father of the Year' Reception held in June at The Ritz.
