LOOK BACKWARD FATHER TIME IN THY FLIGHT

AFRO photos tell the 1980 story in less than 1,000 words

GOOD FOR THE SOUL — This candid shot taken at a banquet found two ministers, a deacon and a trustee doubled up in refreshing laughter. They are (L to R) Ebenezer Baptist Church Deacon Robert RYALESPHOTO Ransom, Dr. Montague Brackett, pastor of Central Baptist Church; Dr. Clarence Poole, Ebenezer pastor and Trustee William Powell, also of Ebenezer.

and Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell, history.

RYALESPHOTO TWO FAMED CIVIL RIGHTS daughter of the greatest. Dr. Lillie LADIES, perhaps the most tamous of Mae Jackson. A noted attorney. Mrs. their time, are Mrs. Rosa Parks who. Mitchell instituted some of the most started the bus boycott movement far-reaching civil rights cases in U.S.

tears and hard times

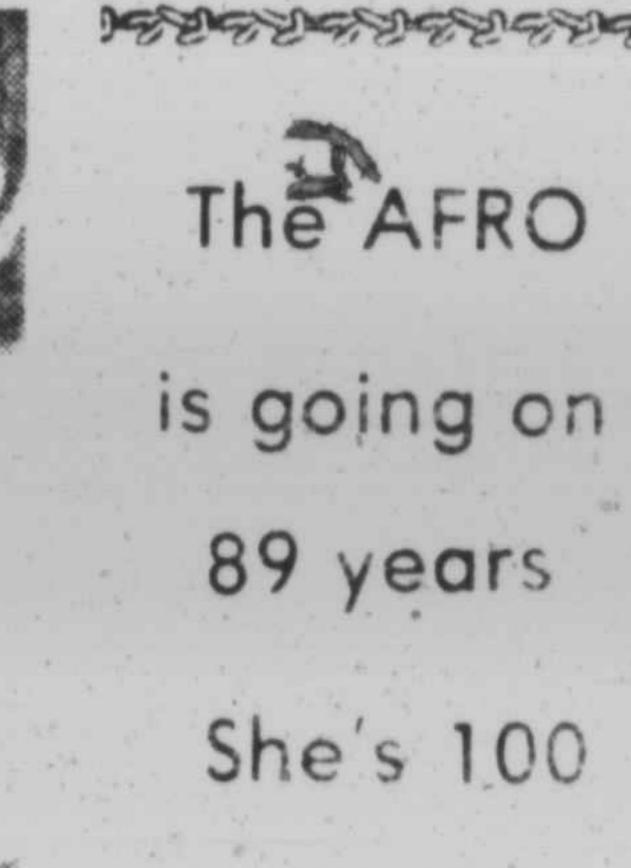

SMILING THROUGH THE YEARS - A rare photo is this one of two of the most famous in all the entertainment world, Cab Calloway and Eubie

RYALESPHOTO Blake, both still young at heart and still active on the American stage.

RYMESPHOTO 1.1 NCH TIME - Not an unusual sight in these one of the unemployed and less fortunate sear-ching for leftovers "anywhere they can find

MRS. ANNEBELLE WELLS MCDONALD .

UNIOUCHED BY THESE DESPERATE HARES this young artist, a day care center

RYALESPHOTO have to finish this painting before closing

RYALES PHOTO TAKING IT WITH HIM is this gentleman, a familiar figure downtown who is only one of the homeless carrying their wordly possessions in bags and sacks everywhere they go.

RYALESPHOTO SOMEWHERE OVER THE RAINBOW - Skies hard times experienced in the first year of the 1980s. Poverty has left many men despondent.

NAP TIME — To sleep and perhaps to dream. Or, as the poet says there is nothing else to do regar-

RYALES PHOTO dless of circumstances, "when sleep comes down to soothe the weary eyes."