THEY MISSED IT — The members of the President Reagan family (UPI photo of the group portrait) shown in the regalia worn to the various balls, missed the "best one of them all" the Maryland Official inaugural ball. The first family however ran from one to the other of the nine affairs scattered around Washington, puffing and blowing until after midnight.

Candlelight wedding unites Susan Cole and Kevin Bruce

Arriving at the church, in a Rolls Royce, escorted by her father, on Saturday afternoon, pretty, demure Miss Susan Elizabeth Cole gracefully stepped down the isle, amid the candle lighted, St. Mark's United Church Sanctuary to unite in marriage with handsome Kevin Stewart Bruce.

Approximately 500 friends and relatives gathered at the beautiful church to be a part of this special occasion and to witness the beginning of Susan's and Kevin's new life together.

The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. Bernard Keels, Pastor of St. Mark's United Methodist Church. Assisting the Rev. Keels during the ceremony was the Rev. Hans Goebel, a Lutheran Minister, from Detroit, Michigan.

Highlights of the ceremony included special prayers, the exchange of vows and symbols, the pronouncement, the service of the Lord's Supper and the Symbol of Unity, two flames were brought together to unite one candle which symbolized the utiity of two souls.

The organist, Jefferson Cleveland, accompanied soloist Garel Smith, while his melodious voice rang out with two favorite selections of the bride — "The Lord's Prayer" and "One In A Million."

After the recessional, the new Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Bruce stood between fireplaces in the sanctuary to receive their guests in the church parlor. An elegant reception was held for the guests in the reception room adjoining the parlor.

Given in marriage by her father, the Honorable Harry A. Cole, the bride was radiant in an off - white handkerchief - hemmed, contemporary, chiffon gown, featuring a high neck of Alencon lace, a blouson waistline and long tapered sleeves trimmed af the wrist in matching lace.

The bride selected an Alencon lace covered headpiece and a fingertipped veil edged in matching lace. She carried two silk roses of burgundy and pink.

Color coordinated, the maids of honor and the bridesmaids wore particularly beautiful caplet gowns of burgundy and pink. Two maids of honor carried one pink rose and each bridesmaid carried one burgundy rose.

The bridegroom and his best man, Jake Cox, friend of the groom were smartly dressed in black tuxedos. The ushers were also attired in black tuxedos.

Picture - book in black tuxedos were ringbearers Delvin Branch and Bryan Davis.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Harry Cole, (Doris) was especially elegant in a delicate pale pink, chiffon, high fashioned jacket gown featuring the blouson waist and a raised hemline in the front and dipped in the back. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Odell Bruce was attired in a burgundy dress detailed in white.

Mrs. Carrie Freeland, grandmother of the bride and better known as "Little Grandmother" was adorable in a hot pink chiffon dress.

Mrs. Susan Cole is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Harry Cole. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Carrie Freeland and the late Harvey L. Freeland. Kevin Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Bruce, Mr. Bruce is the paternal grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gwynn.

The new Mrs. Bruce is a January graduate of Towson State University with a degree in communications. She is, also, the producer of the Daily Lottery Numbers Game and co - host of the Maryland State Lottery Show for WMAR.

A political science graduate of Bowie State College, Mr. Bruce is currently employed with WMAR as an Account Executive.

The celebrants included the Rev. Bernard Keels, and the Rev. Hans Goebel, officiators; Jefferson Cleveland, organist; Garel Smith, soloist; Ms. Harriette Cole, sister of the bride, and Ms. Rhonda Brice, maids of honor; Jake Cox, best man; Delvin Branch, cousin of the bride, Bryan Davis, nephew of the bridegroom, ring-begrers; Makia Bruce, flowergirl.

Bridesmaids were Ms. Stephanie Cole, sister of the bride; Leslie Bruce, sister of the bridegroom; Robin Graves and Karen Harmon. The ushers were Melvin Fox, head usher,; James Bell, cousin of the bridegroom,; David Bruce, brother of the bridegroom, and Jamal Hakeem.

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Bruce

Dr. Pearl Cole Brackett, aunt of the bride, introduced guests to the receiving line. Mesdames Ellen D. Howard and Anne Irving coordinated the wedding. The hostesses were Mrs. Cheryl Lucas and Ms. Ellesi Smith.

Pre - nuptial surprises included two showers for the bride, consisting of a lingerie shower, hosted by Wilhelminia Garner, Ada Woodland and Jeanne Cummings at the home of Mrs. Garner, and a miscellaneous shower given by Rhonda Brice and Ann Irving at the home of Rhonda Brice.

The bridegroom was given a bachelor's party at the home of Jake Cox. Mrs. Odell Bruce hosted the rehearsal dinner which was catered by her son - in - law, Albert Davis.

After a honeymoon in the Poconos Mountains, the newlyweds will reside in Baltimore.

Out of town guests included: Wendell Freeland, uncle of the bride; Lisa Freeland, cousin of the bride, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, Bumpers, Va.; Ms. Cynthia Owens, St. Louis, Mo. and Reverend Hans Goebel, Detroit, Mich.
