Tri-State

By Pattie Hodges, AFRO Staff Writer

22 lovely young ladies made their formal bow into society on Saturday evening, March 21, as the Tri - State Association of Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia, Imperial Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World (I.B.P.O.E.W) presented its 17th annual Debutante Cotillion.

800 proud parents, sponsors, guests, officers and members of the I.B.P.O.E.W. gathered at the Downtown Hilton Hotel for the event.

The program began with a prelude by the Wilbur Foster orchestra. Master of Ceremonies for the occasion was Dr. Charles E. Johnson.

Bringing special greetings from the I.B.P.O.E.W. were William S. Fountain, Brother State President; Alfredia C. Fountain, Daughter State President and William Braxton and Effie Coleman, chairpersons for the Cotillion.

The presentation of the debutantes for their formal bows, all of whom wore beautiful white gowns and carried old fashioned bouquets of spring flowers, was done by Nikki Randolph, who also served as choreographer for them.

Debutantes presented were: Alisa Michelle Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Veronica Anderson, a senior at Northwestern Senior High School, Baltimore, who was sponsored by Baltimore's Zorah Elliott Temple, escorted by Michael C. Griffin;

Jenell Denise Bradford, daughter of Ms. Linda Bradford, Fleet School, Annapolis, Md., sponsored by the Pride of Annapolis Temple, escorted by Derrick Smith;

Jeannie Mischele Brightful, daughter of Ms. Barbara Jean Brightful, a student at Frederick High School, Frederick, Md., sponsored by the Mountain City Lodge and the Madame C. J. Walker Temple, Frederick, Md., escorted by Edward Ingram;

Sonia Denise Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Brown, also of Frederick High School, sponsored by the same Lodge and Temple as Miss Brightful, escorted by Dwayne Jenkins;

Dawn Damita Cotton, daughter of Edward Cotton and Ms. Watine Beck, a student at Kent County High School, Worton, Md., sponsored by Star Temple, Rock Hall, Md., escorted by Jeffrey Needam;

Tracey Myrterese Ebb, daughter of Ms. Geneva Ebb, a student at Edmondson Senior High School, Baltimore, sponsored by Sampson Brooks Lodge and Sampson Brooks Temple, Baltimore, escorted by Kirk Scott;

Six states represented at Hawkins High School reunion

By Pattie Hodges, AFRO Staff Writer

Saturday, March 21, was a joyous occasion for the John R. Hawkins High School Alumni and Friends Inc.

Nearly 300 alumni members and their guests gathered at La Fontaine Bleu, Glen Burnie, for an evening marked by the happy reunion of schoolmates whose graduation dates from Hawkins High (in Warrenton, N.C.) spanned the years from 1934 until 1969.

There was the exchange of jubilant greetings between folks, some of whom had not seen each other in over 30 years, much hilarity in trying to recognize who was who, much reminiscing and bringing each other up - to - date on their lives.

Continuous open bar, a delectable sit-down dinner and lots of lively dancing added hearty zest to an evening of gaiety which began at 8 p.m. and ended at 2 a.m.

Alumni Association Prexy Wilson Smith, of Washington, D.C. welcomed all after dinner.

On hand to greet the alumni and guests was Alonzo T. Kelly, former long - term Mathematics instructor at Hawkins High, who migrated to the Baltimore City Public School System after 1947, and who is now retired.

The affair, sponsored by the Washington and Maryland Area Chapter, was a real winner which attracted alumni from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, North Carolina New York and Florida, as well as the Baltimore - Washington area.

Proceeds of the affair go to benefit the John R. Hawkins High School Scholarship Fund, which assists deserving graduates with furthering their education.

Officers of the Alumni Association are Wilson Smith, president; Annie Hendricks, vice president; Gloria Blair, secretary; Corene Alston, assistant secretary; Annie Hudgins, treasurer; Dorothy Smith, financial secretary; Dorothy Hill, Scholarship Projects chairperson; James Williams, chaplin and Dorothy Burgess, reporter.

Among those attending from out - of - town were: Sylvia M. Wynn, Landover, Md; Dorothy Hill, Seat Pleasant, Md.; Sadie D. Jerman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carter, Miss Monzola Morse, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, Mary Jerman Boyd and Jeanetta Davis Alston, Philadelphia, Pa.;

Also Ruth Ellis Perrineau, Bronx, N.Y.; Catherine Davis Foushee, Piscataway, N.J.; Mildred H. Young, Lanham, Md.; James H. Davis, Oxon Hill, Md.; Clara Cheek Brown, Camp Spring, Md.; James Perry, Norristown, Pa.; Flossie Dumson Davis, Silver Spring, Md.;

Also Marion Smith Scates, Jacksonville, Fla.; Janet Robertson, Greenbelt, Md.; Charles F. Jones, Trenton, N.J.; James Spruill, Washington, D.C.; Alvarez J. Powell, Hyattsville,
