Charles Modeling Studio plans second anniversary, Oddysey

The committee for the 2nd anniversary Odyssey II of the Charles Modeling Studio was named last month to help plan this year's show that will be held on Sunday March 29, 1981 from 5 to 9 p.m. at the downtown Baltimore Hilton Hotel.

Sepcial guest appearances of Baltimore's own Softones, the vocal styling of Bill Harris, of Baltimore along with Ms. Ericka C. Williams of Philadelphia and the vibrant Tony Edges dancers.

The awards will be presented by Ms. Ruth Tolman of the World Modeling Association and Jack Bittenburg, Dean of the Fashion institute of Technology of New York City.

The Charles Moedling studio was founded by the Rev. Marvin C. Moore in February of 1979 to give the underprivileged young people of Baltimore an opportunity to be trained as professional models those who could not afford to go to a modeling school because of the absorbent costs.

Weekly classes are held at the downtown, YWCA. Every Wednesday night from 7 to 9 p.m.

Addison Enterprise 'It's a Family Affair'

By Marjorie R. Green

Addison Enterprise — "It's a Family Affair" headed by Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Addison (Delores) and family.

The immediate family consists of one boy, Wendell Jr. and three girls, Detra, Vernell and Yvonne.

Their first venture, the "Miss Black America" Baltimore Pageant is under the direction of Mrs. Addison assisted by Yvonne and Meredith Addison, a brother - in - law, who both work as assistant directors of the pageant.

The pageant, the first since 1978, will be presented in the Coppin State Auditorium on Sunday, April 26 at 2:30 p.m. The winner will compete in Jamaica, June 27, 1981 against young women representing the finest in young black womanhood. Tickets on sale for $10 include a subscription to receive the Miss Black America Magazine.

According to Mrs. Delores Addison, who works as a Social Insurance Specialist in the Office of Operational Policy and Procedures, Social Security Administration, the family first became interested in pageants when her niece, Marcia Lee, won the 1977 Miss Black Maryland Contest. In 1978, her daughter, Detra, won Baltimore's Miss Talented Teen Contest.

Both competed at the national contest level but were unsuccesful in their try for a national win. With two "Queens" in the family, Delores and other members of the family felt that more young black women should be given the chance to benefit from the same enriching experience.

The idea of Addison Enterprises was conceived last November and the franchise was purchased with their personal funds in December of the same year.

"It will be a spell - binding moment on April 26" states Mrs. Addison, "The girls are working four hours a day, twice a week."

Clarence Frazier retires from SSA

After 36 long years at the Social Security Administration, Clarence Frazier retires with a bang up reception.

During his 36 years at SSA he held several positions, as supervisor in the Data Processing and Earning Retrieval Section, and Social Insurance Claims Specialist & Instructional Staff. At the time of his retirement, he was an Assistant Module Manager in the Metro West Building.

Frazier is very active in St. John Baptist Church and one of the original Charter Members of the church. He was one of the first choir members, ushers and chairperson of the Worship Task Force.

He resides with his charming wife, Lillie, a counselor at Herring Run Junior High School, in their spacious Rock Coast Lane home in Columbia.

The couple has two daughters, cute Pamela, a programmer for the Bendix Corporation, a graduate of Morgan State University and their younger daughter Carla, a professional model and student in Los Angeles, California.

He is a person who deserves recognition. He is a person who has served his country and the Federal government well. It is very fitting that we honor our supervisor" said Ruth Webb, a committee member for the fabulous retirement banquet.

(Cuff Note) Enjoy yourself Clarence, you have served well. God bless you and your family.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

From the author of Vibration Cooking

Hosting without hassle.

"Whether you're serving six or sixteen, the ideal menu should allow the cook plenty of time to enjoy the food!

Here are a few simple rules for accomplishing that:

- Keep it simple—the less complicated the preparation, the more time you have to spend with your guests.
- Make it different—show your company how special they are by serving a meal that's different from the same old meat and potatoes.
- Make it economical—with today's prices, how else can you afford to entertain?

This menu is designed with these basic rules in mind. The Country Style Pork Chops stuffed with STOVE TOP® Cornbread Stuffing Mix and made with SHAKE 'N BAKE® Seasoned Coating Mix for Pork will look and taste as though you've spent hours in the kitchen. The Vegetables in a Blanket are made superb with OVEN FRY® Coating for Chicken—Crispy Crumb Recipe. Superb because they're so easy to make, and so delicious your guests will still be raving about them well into dessert.

Which brings us to the last rule: make it delicious! When the food is good, it does a lot of the entertaining for you. Enjoy!"
