For the Laker's track team it was the first track title in the ten year history of the school.

When they beat Douglass 81-65 for the MSA "B" conference, even though they didn't do well overall in the MSA finals, Coach Leroy McKenzie pleased with the undefeated season.

"I was very happy with the way the season turned out and with our 3200 meter relay team", McKenzie said.

The Laker's 3200 meter relay team was made up of Rick Davis, Troy .Price, Alvin Wiley and Angelo Bailey. According to the Laker's coach, the squad's spark plug was junior Troy Price who also runs cross country.

Some other standouts of the "B" conference winners were David Hill who came a long way this season in the 100, 200 meter dash as well as the 400 and 800 relays.

Derrick Walton an honor student, did well in the 100 meter dash, triple and long jumps.
