AKAs host reception for 'Outstanding Young Women'

AKA BASILEUS Gilda Garrette (far L), is pictured with young ladies selected by the Epsilon Omega Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority as 'Outstanding Young Women, 1981,' during a recent reception hosted for them at the Brentwood. (L to R) are: Deborah Williams, Nina L. Dobson, Rhonda L. Datcher, Anne M. George, Verna Bigger, Lynn Jackson, Pamela Barber, Tammie Boone, Dorita V.

AFRO Photo by Roman Hankeuycz

Forehand, Lori J. Adair and Gina C. Lee. Far right is Heloise B. Frazier, anti - basileus. The young women will be feted in November.

AKA HONOREES pictured with reception co - chair Doris Shaw (far L) and Norma Bracy chair, (far R), are (L to R): Renee Camper, Pamila J. Brown, Michelle Harvey, Angele R. Walden, Regina Holmes, Jo Ann Portee, Magira Eve Wilson, Sharon Sifford, Julie M. Hall and Tanya M. Haram.

The Epsilon Omega Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. held a reception in honor of 34 young ladies who will be honored in a 'Salute to Outstanding Young Women, 1981.'

The reception was hosted June 21 at the Brentwood Home, 401 E. 25th St. at 2 p.m.

Co - chair Norma Bracey welcomed the honorees and their parents. Gilda Garrette, chapter basileus, also gave an inspiring welcome and co - chair Doris Shaw discussed the responsibilities for each honoree.

Rowena Lewis informed the honorees on the proper attire for the big moment in November and each honoree had a chance to stand and state something about herself.

The 'Salute to Outstanding Young Women' project was initiated in 1975 (International Women's Year) to recognize and focus attention on young women of scholastic achievement who attend college in preparation for their chosen fields, and in many cases, have outstanding positions in the working world.

The honorees are also involved in educational, civic and social activities and show promise as leaders.

Throughout the years the 'Salute to Outstanding Young Women' has focused on various themes, as it will this year. Last year's focus was on 'The Family.'

The 'Salute' will be held November 7 at The forum, Primrose Ave. at 12:30 p.m.

For ticket information please call 466 - 6093 or 426 - 2329.

FOR ART'S SAKE — Pictured during the recent cocktail sip hosted by the Coalition of Women's Clubs as a benefit closing for the Roman Beardon art exhibit at the Baltimore Museum of Art are (L to R): Mary Robinson, WO-BECO president; Thelma Daley, Arnold Lehman, director of the museum and Dr. Leslie King Hammond, museum trustee.

AFRO Photo by Mark Gail

—DOUGLASS

(Continued from Page 9)

The fellowship continued Saturday with an all - day picnic at the Dozens Club in Glen Burnie and workshop services on Sunday at Sharp ST. Memorial United Methodist Church.

Lay messages were given by class members, Anna Patterson Hines and Augusta Holsey Robinson, Doris Howard Wallace and Bowen Jackson, who sang two stirring solos.

Climaxing the festivities was a soiree with Millard Dorsey serving as toastmaster. Highlights of the evening were surprising awards.

Recipients were Margaret Hargrove Turner, Agnes Yates and Gertrude Muir Steele.

Eva Williams Cook and Gertrude Muir Steele led a lively game session and Thomas Edgar Williams brought back memories with slides of classmates from 1941 to the present.

Out - of - towners present were, Millard Dorsey and Helen Torrence Ellerbe of Washington, D.C.; Dorothy Covert Scott, Stuart, Fla.; Wendell Freeland, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Cornelius Tinsley, Charleston, S.C.; Reginald Wilson, White Plains, N.Y., Franklyn Wilson , Hillcrest Heights, Md. and Mary Payne of the February Class, New York;

In addition to Mr. Jeffries, officers and members of the reunion committee are:

Thomas Edgar Williams, acting vice chairman in the absence of Meredith Evans; Viola Martin Butler, secretary; Clara Slowe Thomas, assistant secretary; antoinette Braxton Hill, financial secretary; Anthony Ward, treasurer.

Also, Irene Lane Alexander, Della Mickle Baylor, George Morris Brooks, Lonnie Johnson Carr, Eva Williams Cook, Millard Dorsey, Helen Torrence Ellerbe, Helen Keys Harden, Anna Patterson Hines, Lucille Jones Scott, Ruth Mackay Perry, Daniel C. Palmer;

Also Edna Gover Ruff, Augusta Holsey Robinson, Myles Robinson, Asbury Rideout, Gertrude Muir Steele, Ruth Price Stewart, Alice Emanuel Stubbs, Margaret Hargrove Turner, Evelyn Robinson VanHook, Tileston Venable, Martha Harris Wagner, and Agnes Yates.

Many minority group young people are getting a boost toward higher education from a publicly-supported fund.

SOFT CONTACTS $25 EXAM FEE
WEAR THEM HOME THE SAME DAY! CONTACT LENSES $69
INCLUDES:
• STERILIZATION KIT • ONE HOUR SERVICE • 30 DAY TRIAL PERIOD • 60 DAY FREE FOLLOW-UP VISITS • ALL VISITS SUPERVISED BY REGISTERED DOCTOR.
EYEGLASS EYE EXAM $15 REGULAR LOW PRICE!
FASHION EYEGLASSES ONE LOW PRICE INCLUDES: • PLASTIC LENSES • CHOICE OF FRAMES • TINTING • HOYALUXITE • SINGLE VISION • NORMAL STRENGTH COMPLETE $27
SINGLE VISION $15.50 Complete
BI-FOCALS $35.00 Complete
OPTICAL FAIR
• EYES EXAMINED • PRESCRIPTION FILLED
INGLESIDE SHOPPING CENTER 5664 BALTIMORE NATIONAL PIKE 2 Minutes from Beltway Exit 15 East
744-2411

READ THE AFRO

Fourth of July

Our World Scenes

LUTHERAN HOSPITAL NURSE Phyllis Chaney receives a carnation from Gladys Sander, member of the hospital Auxiliary, on the recently celebrated Nurses' Day. Auxilians served refreshments in the lobby and provided flowers for nurses on all three shifts in appreciation of their service to Lutheran Hospital throughout the year.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES, Cornell Willingham of Reisterstown Rd. (L), and Angela Harp of Groveland Rd., receive their diplomas from Brian Dale, Counselor from the Home and Hospital Services Department of the Baltimore City School System. The ceremony was held in the Auditorium of The Children's Hospital, Inc. and Center for Reconstructive Surgery, on Greenspring Ave. There were ten students receiving diplomas and eight who received their ninth grade certificates.

NAACP BABY CONTEST WINNER Stacey Nicole Williams garnered the $2,021.55 which put her at the top through her sponsor, Southern Baptist Church. Second, third and fourth place winners (who all had over $1,000 raised for them) were Angela N.

DOROTHY KING of Baltimore City, 2nd Vice President of Girls Scouts of Central, Maryland, accepts the "Superior Award" on behalf of the Council Staff at the recent Annual Meeting of the United Way. The "Superior Award" was given for more than 70 percent "Fair Share" giving by the Girl Scouts of Central Maryland employees.

GARRETT L. REYNOLDS gets ready to try out his new Space Invaders video game, donated by the Midway Manufacturing Company as grand prize for the 9th Annual Ride-A-Bike-For-The-Retarded. Reynolds rode 32 kilometers for thesBaltimoresAssociation for Retarded Citizens (BARC) on the Catonsville-Arbutus route, collecting $148.00 to help Maryland's mentally retarded citizens. Overall, the event raised $60,000.00.

PASSES THE GAVEL — William Kesting of Colton Point, Md. (L), outgoing Chef de Gare of Voiture 456, The Forty and Eight, passes the gavel to his successor, Clyde R. Carter of Huntingtown, Md. Looking on is Warren L. Dearstine of Mechanicsville, Md.

YOUNG PATIENTS at Mt. Washington Pediatric Hospital were recently visited by the Hershey Park Furry Tales. Here Dutch, the Blue Bear, delights the children with furry fun, special gifts and chocolate kisses. The Furry Tales are members of Hershey Park's administrative stagg.

AFRO BICENTENNIAL BABY Adam Royce Brown (forefront) will celebrate his 5th birthday July 4. He will enter Kindergarten at the Arlington Baptist School in Hebbville this September. He is pictured here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Lynell Brown and baby sister, Joni.

Tatum, sponsored by Fulton Baptist Church; Lanaea C. Parker, sponsored by First United Church of Christ and Aubrey F. McMillian Jr., sponsored by Israel Baptist Church. First, second and third place winners received loving cups and government bonds. Fourth through eighth place winners received loving cups. All babies received certificates. The contest grossed nearly $15,000 for the NAACP.

Pacesetters

James H. Thornton College Placement Services Prexy

Tracy R. Rone Miss Nat'l Teenager finalist

Travis W. Vauls on Blue Cross Bd. of Dir.

James H. Thornton, Director of Career Planning and Placement of Coppin State College, was elected president of the College Placement Services Inc., Advisory Board during the 1981 Plenary Conference held recently in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Thornton is beginning his fourth year of service on the board. He has previously held the offices of secretary and vice president and is currently chairperson of the CPS By - Laws Revision Committee.

A native of North Carolina, Thornton has been Coppin's Placement Director since 1972. Prior to his coming to Coppin he headed a neighborhood center of the Urban Services Agency.

Thornton holds two degrees from Coppin State — a bachelor of science in Elementary Education and a Master's in Correctional Education.

The College Placement Services is committed to the advancement of effective career counseling and placement programs for minority college students and for colleges and universities with significant enrollments of minority students.

CPS has been the catalyst responsible for the establishment of career counseling and placement services at most of the predominantly minority four - year colleges and universities in the United States.

It has provide services to universities, including: 83 historically black four year institutions, 28 four year institutions with large enrollments of minority students, and 13 two - year colleges with large or predominant minority enrollments.

As president of the Board, Thornton will head the advisory body for all of the institutions affiliated with CPS programs.

Tracy Renee Rone, age 16, daughter of Ms. Imogene Rone, 102 Village of Pine Ct., has been selected as a state finalist in the 1981 Maryland National Teen Ager Pageant, to be held at the Hunt Valley Inn on July 3, 4, and 5.

The Maryland National Teen - Ager Pageant is the official state finals to the Miss National Teen - Ager Pageant, to be held in August.

The winner of the state Pageant will receive a $500 cash scholarship, a full Barbizon Modeling Scholarship, and an all - expense paid trip to the National Finals, to compete with the 51 other winners representing every state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico for the national title.

Miss Rone, sponsored by Reuben H. Donnelley, Ms. Joyce N. Smith, Mrs. Fellisco Keeling and the Tau Gamma Delta Sorority, Inc. (Pi Chapter), is a student at Randallstown High School.

She has also been a student in Art, at the Maryland Institute of the Wally Saunders Dance Studio, Maryland Ballet School, Harriet Sauber Elsner School of Dance and Francine's School of Dance.

She has also served at Randallstown as junior class president, guidance aide and has been active in Student Government activities and the Randallstown Theatre Association.

She has received numerous honors including the Governor's Citation, selection to present an award to the winner of the Preakness Race — 'Champion Our Children,' and held a 3.5 overall grade average from grades 8 - 10.

Travis W. Vauls, president of the Baltimore Urban League, Inc., has been elected to the Blue Cross of Maryland Board of Directors.

Vauls became associated with the Urban League in 1967 as director of Leadership Development and was deputy director before becoming president in February of 1970.

An active participant in many social welfare organizations, he is chairman of the executive committee of the Voluntary Council on Equal Opportunity, Inc., a member of the Private Industry Council, the Overall Economic Development Committee and of the Baltimore City Advisory Council on Vocational Education.

Vauls earned a B.S. degree in 1953 and an MBA in 1975 from Morgan State Univer-

On the grill or on the range, KRAFT Barbecue Sauce simmers in tangy, snappy flavor six ways: Regular flavor, Hot Hickory Smoke flavored, Onion Bits, Garlic flavored, and Onion Bits Hickory Smoke flavored. Indoors or outdoors it's the Boss Sauce.
THE BOSS SAUCE IS AT HOME ON THE RANGE.
KRAFT BARBECUE SAUCE
BARBECUED MEATLOAF
2 lbs. ground beef
2 eggs, beaten
2 cups fresh bread crumbs
1 cup KRAFT Barbecue Sauce
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1½ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
Combine all ingredients except ½ cup barbecue sauce; mix lightly. Shape into loaf in 13 x 9 x 2" baking pan. Bake at 350° 1 hour. Spread with remaining sauce; continue baking for 15 minutes.
6 to 8 servings
KRAFT ....MEANS MORE THAN COOKING.

JUL