Letters to the Editor

DAWN Magazine welcomes letters expressing all viewpoints. Letters must include signature and mailing address. Names may be withheld for adequate reason. The editor reserves the right to condense letters. Address all correspondence to DAWN Magazine, 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md.

RECORD REVIEWS

Pittsburgh, Pa. - I thoroughly enjoyed the record reviews that were in the June 1980 issue of DAWN Magazine, but there was no credit line.

Who does the record reviews, or is it a deep, dark secret. I know it doesn't matter, but I would like to know in case I disagree with the

MS. THERESA ALLEN DAWN Magazine assembled a panel, which meets bi-monthly to listen to and rate the records. The panel members range in age from 16 through 60, so that all groups have representation.

After the recrodings are played, each panel member votes, and the tallies are averaged for the final

WWII WACS

Cincinnati, O. - Since DAWN Magazine covered the first reunion of the World War 6888 Women's Army Corps group, I thought you might be interested in the latest developments.

Ten of the women, who served in England and France during WWII returned to the European area this year. We were given the VIP treatment in England, and visited the site where we were stationed.

MRS. MARY E. ROZIER

HAIR BRAIDING

Cleveland, O. - I think it was a couple of years ago that DAWN Magazine had an article about hair braiding and styles. If my memory serves me right, there

We changed our strategy just a wee bit in bringing you the story of black generals in the Air Force.

biographical sketch of each general, so that you know what their current assignments are, and

Those who have wondered about general officers in the U.S.

Navy and U.S. Coast Guard should be patient. It is in the

The death of reggae musician

Bob Marley has triggered an enormous surge in the popularity of the music, and posed many questions as to the successor to

The name of Peter Tosh is the "top reggae artist" throne.

KENNETH O. WILSON

and DAWN Operations

BOB MATTHEWS

Executive Editor

how they got there.

We have included this time a was an address for further information about the styles. Can you give me any information about this article? GLORIA D. FLOWERS

The article to which you referred was carried in the August 1979 edition of DAWN Magazine.

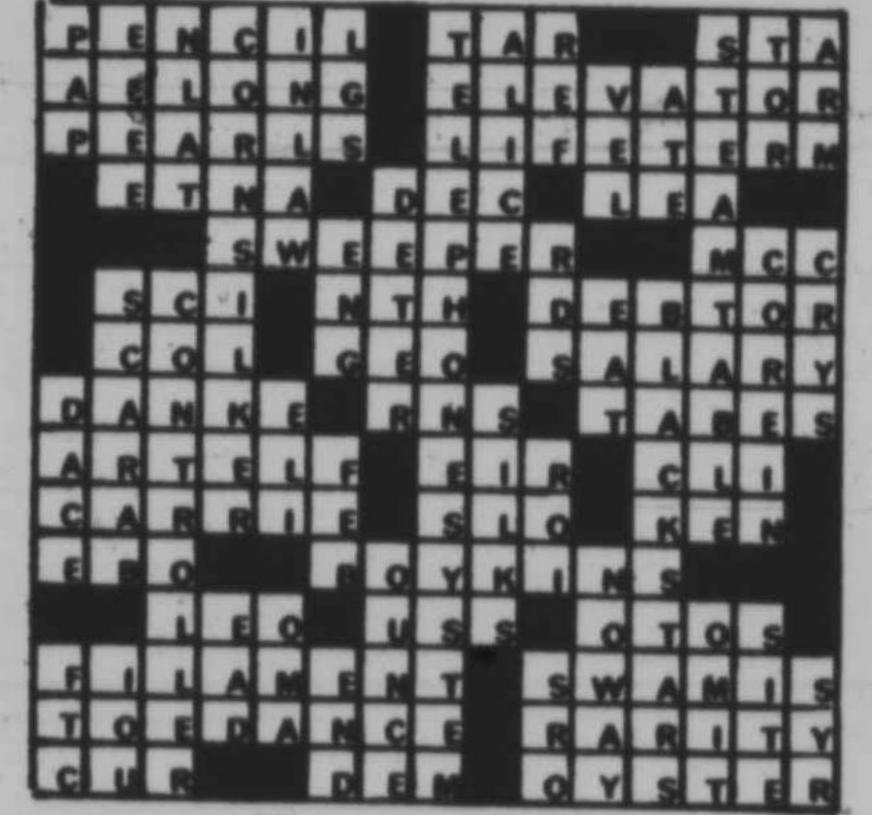

There was no address given in the article of places where hair braiding was offered, but the author did indicate that almost any up-to-date beauty salon can steer those interested into the right direction.

CORRESPONDENT Detroit, Mich. - Do you have any information you can share about Ollie Stewart who was a writer for the Afro-American Newspaper chain for many years.

The last I read about him was when he came back from Paris on his way home because of illness. HELEN M. BARNES

Foreign Correspondent Ollie Stewart, who wrote from Paris for over 30 years, died in Atlanta, Ga. in May, 1977.

Although he was not a contributor to DAWN Magazine, he was a noted staff member of the Afro-American Newspapers, publishers of DAWN.

Last month's puzzle answer.

SOMETIMES THE LAW TRAVELS WITH YOU

You're on vacation, in a strange city, away from the security of your home. The last thing you need is a legal problem. But it does happen.

Auto breakdowns and repairs. If you charge auto repairs and later find they were inadequate or unnecessary, you can refuse to pay the credit card bill, but only if the repairs are done fairly close to home." It is against federal law to refuse to pay such charges if the repairs are done outside your home state or more than 100 miles from home."

Membership in a national automobile club can be particularly useful by giving you access to reliable repair shops.

The Editor's Desk

On the cover this month is Brig. Gen. James T. Boddie Jr. of Baltimore, Md. This is the official U.S. Air Force photography of the general officer, and serves notice that this issue of DAWN Magazine contains biographical sketches of all of the black generals currently serving in the U.S. Air Force.

Every now and again, it becomes necessary to print an explanatory note concerning the poetrie gallerie, since the volume of mail received monthly for this feature is staggering.

Believe it or not, the backlog of submissions has been whittled down considerably - in fact, within a month we expect to be up to date.

of the writers who complained about not receiving their material back failed to send in a stamped, self-addressed envelope along with their poems.

A lot of readers have asked for help in getting their poetry published in book form, but DAWN Magazine is not in that facet of the publishing business.

The poetrie gallerie is strictly a non-professional outlet for those readers who are interested in having their work assessed and perhaps printed. There is no remuneration involved, however copies of the magazine can be sent to those poets who have difficulty getting a copy of DAWN.

prominently mentioned, along with many others. DAWN Magazine has a story in the works.

DAWN MAGAZINE July 1981 Vol. 8 No. 6 JOHN MURPHY III SHEILA JONES DAWN Magazine Offices: Board Chairman Production Coordinator 628 N. Butaw St.

NEW YORK OFFICE: Percell L. Johnson, Jr. Vice President - Advertising N.Y. Senior Resident Agent LEWIS L. BARNES, JR. Account Executive WALTER ROUNDTREE

Account Executive

Baltimore, Md. 21203 [301] 728-8200 N.Y. Offices:

295 Madison Ave., Suite 623 New York, N.Y. 10017 [212] 679-5152

mside

*Celebrity Roundup answers a reader about singer Jackie Wilson. Page 4. •A look at the 10 general officers in the U.S. Air Force begins on page 6. *Over 5,000 black physicians belong to the National Medical Association. Their story on page 8. Black History Crossword Puzzle will be found on page 11.

News about events on the countrywide scene is inin National Roundup, page 14.

•A review and rating of brand new record releases. page 16.

Poetrie Gallerie fans will find their display on page

Fines and court dates. If you receive traffic citations or find yourself a witness, plaintiff or defendant in a court case, you can ask for an immediate hearing to avoid having to return to the city later. However, you're at the mercy of the court.

