

to master photographer

Gifted black lensman's work comes to the Museum of Art

See page 28

Copy 1981 by the AFRO-AMERICAN CO. for all material previously printed in the current National Edition

Upton-area folks set to open 'super' new supermarket

See Business section

Low-income home mortgage bonds OK'd

See Business page

MICRO PHOTO DIVISION CONT LIBRARY. WOOSTER Ballinole American

WE ARE NOW IN OUR 89TH YEAR

BALTIMORE, MD., JULY 11, 1981

LATE CITY EDITION

35 CENTS

Cuban held in wealthy investor's death

City hosts NOBLE

89th Year No. 96

500 black law officers here for convention

The nations black police chiefs will be in Baltimore next week for the fifth annual conference of the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives

The six day conference will be held July 14-19 at the Convention Center. Nearly 400 ranking police executives which includes some sheriffs and U.S. marshalls from 30 states and 52 cities as well as the Virgin Islands Bermuda Haiti and Trinidad will be attending the Deputy Commissioner Bishop is the national "Violent Crime i

The organization was first conceptualized during a 1976

law enforcement agencies from levels of government. Among Mitchell Ambassador Andrew ABC-TV World News Tonight.

keynote a plenary workshop on urged them not to "take the law resentment from police who at "Violent Crime in America: Who into their own hands."

Who is the law resentment from police who at the law resentment from police who at the law started here in the law resentment from police who at the law resentment from police who at the law started here in the law resentment from police who at the law started here in the law resentment from police who at the law resentment from police who Are the Victims?"

George Collins Chuck Stone William R. Bracey chief of New York City Police Departments 17,000 member patrol division and Paul Yates. The annual NOBLE ball will be held at the Convention Center will be used for the Major McNeal Brockington scholarship.

It is the intention and ultimate mission of NOBLE Inc. to develop and maintain open channels of communications between law enforcement agencies civic and service organizations and individual citizens to encourage participation by all concerned in a united and coordinated effort to reduce crime related problems by means of prevention in communities throughout the country.

and president of the Guardian Angels, announced protective organization. this week that a group of the Angels will be coming citizens' patrol group that got its they want to do, and want to do it start in the subways of New York lawfully, fine." meeting will be held at City Hall, said.

Members of the Guardian forcement."

The Angels were only recently like to recruit 50 members from franchise concept would

Police and politicians, while there. The group, led by 26 - year record.

Police spokesman Dennis Hill group. said the police department Silwa and others in the group several citizens groups, all of would exclude black entrepeneurs

"welcomes any effort to get were beaten, arrested and whom preferred to remain from any profit - making. citizens involved in law en- harassed by transportation police anonymous.

legitimate aids to enforcement and must not have a arrest System Inc. located in Coldspring response to requests made by individuals to gain monetarily but

Glenn Doughty's 'Shake and Bake' center gets $4 million city loan guarantee

By Sue Williams AFRO Staff Writer The Shake and Bake Fami Fun Center to be located on corner of McMechen and Pennsylvania is finally on its way to reality with construction due t begin later this month. Shake and Bake, a center which will house recreation activties including bowling roller skating electronic games as well as fast food outlets, has received wide attention lately because of the citys apparent reluctance to provide a loan guarantee for i

Trustees of the city after deciding that the benefits of the proposed center outweigh the risks involve in its financing recently mortgage-$4 million-making way for construction to begin. Creator of the Shake and Ba Doughty, told the AFRO that to shaped by a report on cable accept the recommendation that his knowledge it was the first time design here issued by Johns the city have a single franchise. the city had made a 100 percent Hopkins University. But Mayor Schaefer and the guarantee on any loan.

Initial funds for the center were purchased in the form of in dustrial revenue bonds by the There was some hesitancy on the part of the city to guarantee the bond purchases because city heads were not quite sure how such a center would thrive in a socalled "low income" area. But the mayor after blasting apparent non-support of the venture by black businessmen here relented under the condition that the Center was not to ask for any more funds from the city as well as other stipulations. Total cost of the project has been estimated at $5 12 million. Doughty and the planners of the Center received an initial $1.4 million Urban Development Action Grant under former. President Jimmy Carter.

Continued on page 2

His bound, gagged body found floating in Patapsco

the victim Armand Labat was arrested at his home in Northeas

Park by a railroad worker according to police. His hands were bound behind his back and his chin. A medical examiner said Labat had been strangled. A Washington police spokesman said relatives of Labat reported him missing July 1 after he failed to show up for a closing negotiation on a home he was

According to a 1980 real estate directory the victim was part Northwest Washington was appraised at $185,781.

Police report Ramirez speaks Continued on page 2

By Sue Williams AFRO Staff Writer

According to the president of a black-owned cable televisi derived going to out-of-state

Lester Green president of - venture idea which was proposed response to queries on how muc money the city and specificall the black community could stand to gain once a cable system is se

Green said that his and others concept, former Colts star Glenn opinions on the subject were

That report he said indicated size of Baltimore, four separate "hubs" or "distribution centers" would have to be set up in the city in order to regenerate the wires and carry cable throughout the

Any single company he said will into quadrants with at least one of the quadrants being owned by a

The Hopkins report he said was available to the CATV during their year - long study, the results of which were presented to the City Council last week.

But despite the report and pressure from black businessmen who wanted black ownership here, the Commission opted for the single franchise concept. Green said that the four black members on the Commission leaned toward the multiple franchise concept until the day before the reports being made

Continued on page 2

This Week's Mrs. AFRO

Lenny Moore gives 200 Colt tickets to AFRO Clean Block workers today

By Ida Peters AFRO Captains Co-Captains tertained today (Friday) at Memorial Plaza. McCulloh Homes Auditorium from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. by Lenny Moore of the Baltimore Colts and First Class the singing group.

August 23 at Memorial Stadium. flowers and paint.

will be awarded at the AFROs 89th Birthday Party and Parade and Advisors are being en- August 13 at 12 noon at War

The AFRO Clean Block Prize fund reach $4179. this week with a $150. check presented by Ronald Scott treasurer from the Prince Block Captains 200 passes to Daniels is Grand Master. Money attend the Baltimore Colts- is used to hold block parties at the Washington Redskins game on end of the campaign and buy

