Jack and Jill regional Conf. set for Columbia

By Pinnie L. Ross

The Columbia, Maryland, chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc., is hosting the Twelfth Eastern Regional Conference at the Columbia Inn, Columbia, Maryland, October 9 - 11, 1981.

The theme of this year's regional is "The Heritage of the Family Is the Foundation of the Future."

Jack and Jill of America is a service organization that was founded in Philadelphia in January 1938 by Mrs. Marion Stubbs Thomas, for the purpose of providing black children with broad civic, education, cultural and social exposure in the communities where they live.

There are now approximately 137 chapters of Jack and Jill throughout the United States.

Two of the highlights of the conference, which will bring together members from Connecticut, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Washington, D.C., will be a luncheon and a banquet, both open to the public.

The luncheon will be held at the Columbia Inn on Saturday, October 10 at 12:30 p.m. The innovative Baltimore - based dance troupe Olufumilayo will perform traditional African and contemporary dances.

Also to be held at the Columbia Inn, in the elegant Terrace Ballroom, will be a lavish banquet on Saturday, October 10 at 8 p.m.

The Honorable Thaddeus Garrett Jr., domestic policy advisor to Vice President George Bush will be the principal speaker.

Garrett, 33, a former urban and minority affairs advisor to the late Vice President Nelson Rockefeller, and a fourth - generation Republican, has been a member of the Consumer Product Safety Commission, a vice president of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, and an international trade consultant.

Featured on the cover of the August issue of Black Enterprise magazine, Garrett may well be one of the few black people in the country that has the ear of the President, as well as the Vice President.

Noted for his political acumen and public speaking abilities, Garrett, who is also an ordained Methodist minister, should prove to be an exciting speaker.

During the luncheon, the founding members of the Columbia chapter will be honored.

Other events during the conference will include an 8 p.m. reception on Friday, October 9; discussion groups on issues in parent - child relations from 2:30 to 5 p.m. on Saturday, October 10; and a memorial service on Sunday, October 11.

For further details, contact Fay Acker at 596 - 6513.

Celonia B. Walden and Leola M. Dorsey, trustees of Howard Community College, attended the 12th Annual Convention of the Association of Community College Trustees in Boston recently.

Mrs. Walden served this year as Chairman of the Northeast Region ACCT Nominating Committee and as a Round Table Discussion leader on College Foundations at the convention.

Mrs. Dorsey served as the chairman of the Nominating Committee for the Minority Affairs Assembly (Northeast Region).

Baltimore's Charles Tildon was elected Chairman of the Northeast Region Minority Affairs Assembly and alternate on the Northeast Region Nominating Committee for ACCT. He's chairman of the trustee board for the Community College of Baltimore.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Black Mary kay nat'l Director to be in Balto.

Ruell Cone
Nat'l Mary Kay Director

Ruell Cone, a National Sales Director with the Dallas, Texas - based Mary Kay Cosmetic, Inc., will be in Baltimore for a mini Jamboree, Oct. 9, 7:30 p.m. at Marriott's Hunt Valley Inn.

Mrs. Cone, who lives in Atlanta, Georgia, became an independent Beauty Consultant with Mary Cosmetics in April 1971.

From the beginning, her income was seraging $800 to $1,000 a month. She continued to advance in sales and recruiting and became a Sales Director in April 1972.

Within just one year, Mrs. Cone had established herself as a leader. She was the first black director to win a Cadillac and she won the Cadillac for four consecutive years.

In August, 1976, she became the only one in the history of the company to be the number one director in the nation and debut as a National Sales Director simultaneously.

The position of National Sales Director is at the top of the status structure of the Mary Kay sales force, and one that is held by only 24 women out of 120,000 involved in selling the skin care and glamour products of the firm founded by Mary Kay Ash in 1963.

"Though Mrs., Cone continues to sell Mary Kay products, she works primarily with her "offspring" units, sharing her expertise and giving them guidance and training.

"One day," she continues, "I was invited to a Mary Kay Beauty Show and made the decision to become a Beauty Consultant — on the spot. I set my goal to go all the way to the top."

Mrs. Cone, however, says she soon discovered that Mary Kay presented "a tremendous opportunity for me to help other people make their dreams come true as well as my own."

Woodlawn Highlights

Triple celebration for local lady

By Marjorie R. Green

BERNETTA ARCHER's bright glow these days can be attributed to a wedding, a reunion and a trip to Baton Rouge, La. in a few days.

The wedding took place in her grandmother's Baltimore home a little less than two months ago when Miss Bernetta Wilson exchanged wedding vows with Harry Archer.

The reunion was with the Edmondson High School class of 1966. Bernetta's former classmates celebrated their 15th year last week end with a crab feast at La Fontaine Bleu on Erdman Avenue and a tea dance in the familiar surroundings of Edmondson High School on Edmondson Avenue.

The trip is a wedding gift from her co - workers in the Health Care Financing Administration in Woodlawn where Bernetta works as an accounting technician. She will travel to Baton Rouge to visit with her husband who is attending the Louisiana State University.

Bernetta is also looking forward to meeting her new in - laws in Ghana in the very near future.

OCREO Luncheon

Last week staff members in the Office of Civil Rights and Equal Opportunity (OCREO) entertained TELECIA RICHARDSON with a luncheon at Meushaws Hilltop Inn.

The luncheon was given to say goodbye to Telecia, a June graduate of Hillsborough High School in Tampa, Fla., who recently completed an assignment as a summer aid in SSA.

Telecia plans to leave Baltimore this weekend to visit with a sister who lives in Hampton, Va. before returning to her home in Tampa

While in Baltimore, she has been living with another sister, Mrs. Catherine Williams, a Budget Analyst in the Office of Financial Resources, SSA.

Mrs. Williams began her career as an Access student from the University of South Florida in August, 1974.

Miss Richardson has already made plans to return to Baltimore during the Christmas holidays so she can enjoy walking through the snow covered streets.

According to her, the inner harbor, the Baltimore shopping mails and the disco dances are also good reasons for an early return to this city.

In February she will continue her education as a Business administration major in the Hillsborough Community College. Tampa, Florida.

Greetings to old friends

We exchanged greetings with former SSA employee Mrs. Julia Nichols last week in the Supermarket.

The same week we ran into recent retiree, Mrs. Thelma Baylor. In anticipation of a trip to visit her daughter overseas, Mrs. Baylor has enrolled in a Spanish Speaking class. Both ladies send well wishes to all their former co - workers

92nd Birthday

Mrs. Grace E. Day, who was 92 years old Friday, Oct. 2, was hosted at a birthday party Sunday, Oct. 4.

Hosting for her was her daughter Mrs. Ethel Vaughn, who held the fete at her Glenwood Ave. home.

More than 50 family members and friends gathered to celebrate Mrs. Day's longevity.

Party fare was a scrumptuous buffet dinner prepared by hostess daughter, Mrs. Vaughn.

There was a huge white sheet cake, decorated with pink and blue roses, which was inscribed lovingly, "We all thank God for you, Mother — Have a Happy 92nd Birthday — With all our Love. (and which contained the names of all of her children — 'James, Herbert, Clarence, Walter, Shelton and Jessie; (and at the bottom of the cake) "Oh, yes, Ethel says "Me, too."

Guests sang 'Happy Birthday' and Mrs. Day, who was thrilled, got to see many of her friends she hadn't seen in years. She received many monetary gifts and scads of cards.

Included among the guests were Mrs. Day's five grandchildren and 10 great - grandchildren.

Out-of-town relatives came from Long Island, N.Y., Brooklyn, N.Y., Camden, N.J., Lanham and Laurel, Md. and the District of Columbia. There were many also from Baltimore.

Guests came at 4 p.m. and lingered until 11.

Beta Sigma Tau's Rededication Service

The Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Tau Fraternity held a Rededication Program recently at Meushaw's Restaurant, Hilltop Motor Inn.

The evening's activities were geared to renew the fraternity commitment to the brothers in attendance.

Brother Robert W. Griner gave an address related to this issue in which he cited the three R's of Responsibility, Reasonability and Reliability, which ultimately led to the fourth R — Rededication.

Special highlight of the program was the Rededication Service itself which offered each brother an opportunity to pledge anew his commitment to the fraternity and its activities.

Also cited at the program were three brothers who have given more than 25 years of continuous service to the fraternity. Honored for their quarter of a century (Plus) were Brothers Robert Griner, Joseph Farham and Arthur Scribner.

A brief citation was read by the sponsors — Brothers R. Hawkins, M. Wilson and D. Mitchell, recognizing the achievements of the three brothers honored.

Each honoree will receive a leather - engraved attache case in honor of the occasion.

Acting as emcee for the affair was Brother Daniel Dixon. The Planning Committee included Brother R. Griner, C. Wilson, A. Scribner and D. Dixon.

Other brothers in attendance were Walter Cole, Gary Cole, Brawley Davis, Joseph Farham, Robert Hawkins, Charles Griffin, Oliver Brown; Also David Mitchell, Richard Holley, William Dias, James Johnson, Maurice Robinson and Merriman Wilson.

The Chapter also paid special homage to all deceased brothers. Acting as media specialist for the activity was Frederick A. Griner.

Also acting in a supportive role and lending impetus to the entire evening's festivities were the Beta Wives Organization, which acts as an auxiliary to the fraternity.

—Elks

A solo, acknowledgements and a tribute to the honoree was done by Carrie Jones.

Following other presentations, words of gratitude were spoken by the honoree, who has served in many capacities in Elkdom since May 1955. On the Banquet committee were: P.S.P. Zelma S. Saunders, Chairman; P.S.P. Diane Knight, Co - Chairman; P.S.D.R. Rosetta Rudolph, Secretary; P.S.D.R. Rena Hudson, Treasurer; P.S.P. Lawyer Dixon, Chairman of Souvenir Book; Bro. VAGS pay tribute to the late Vivian G. Alleyne

The members of the VAG's are pleased to commemorate and pay tribute to their friend and guiding spirit, the late Vivian Garth Alleyne, who passed away October 6, 1958, and whose initials formed their club's name.

The VAG'S was organized March 12, 1960 by Mrs. Ruth B. Brown and a small group of ladies who had served voluntarily on many civic projects with Mrs. Alleyne.

These ladies shared a common interest to continue to serve the community and to carry out the creed of Vivian Garth Alleyne, quote "Service is The Rent You Pay For The Space You Occupy on Earth."

Over the past twenty one years of the existence of the VAG'S, their purpose has been to raise funds to provide financial assistance to an organization, agency, institution or individuals, selected by the members annually, to be presented as a monetary gift in the name of Vivian Garth Alleyne as a memorial to her

According to the President's report, the VAG'S can look in retrospect to accomplishing many of their goals in fund raising, because of the excellent support received from friends who believed in the VAG'S objectives.

Over these twenty one years the VAG'S have earned and given back to the community over $30,000 or more to the improvement and development of the economic, civic, health and social status of people to improve their quality of life.

Some of the recipients of the VAG'S fund raising projects are Provident Hospital, Inc., Camp Farthest Out, YWCA, & YMCA, Day Camp for Boys & Girls, NAACP, The AFRO - AMERICAN Clean Block, Baltimore AFRO - AMERICAN, Mrs. Santa Xmas Fund, American Cancer Society, The Arena Players, Maryland Baptist Home for the Aged, Boy Scouts of America, Maryland League of Women's Club, Restoration of Orchard Street Church, N.M. Carroll Home for the Aged, Muscular Dystrophy, Beautification of the City of Baltimore. American Heart Association, Negro College Fund and many others too numerous to name.

The Officers and members of the VAG'S are Mrs. Rose Lewis, president; Mrs. Eva Mary Jeffreys, vice president; Mrs. Elizabeth M. Spicer, secretary; Mrs. Gladys Knox, treasurer; Miss Fannie Lane, financial secretary; Mrs. Odell Payne, chaplain; Mrs. Mildred Gambrill, sergeant - at - arms; Mrs. Ruth B. Brown, president emeritus; Mrs. Alberta Simms, coordinator club projects; Mrs. Frances Bibbs, Mrs. Juanita Green, Mrs. Esther S. Brown, Mrs. Mildred Williams, Mrs. Gloria J. Johnston, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Parker, Mrs. Ida Swanson and Miss Edna Walker.

Chapter members are Mrs. Ruth B. Brown, Mrs. Frances Bibbs, Mrs. Frances Bibbs, Queenie Lane, Miss Fannie Lane, Mrs. Gloria J. Johnston, Mrs. Elizabeth Parker, Mrs. Elizabeth Spicer, Mrs. Alberta Simms and Miss Edna Walker.

Honorary members are Delegate — Lena K. Lee and Mrs. Virginia Champ.

Deceased members are Mrs. Ruth B. Murray and Mrs. Violet H. Whyte

Whatever success the VAG'S have enjoyed has been possible because each member has been given the opportunity to use her special talents in being involved in the club's programs. Thus, they have been able to keep the group alive and functioning to the best of their abilities, while enjoying good fellowship, harmony and respect for the individual participant.

The late Vivian Garth Alleyne has been an inspiration to all of the club members. She was an outstanding Social Worker coming from Chicago to serve as Industrial Secretary at the YWCA, then located at Dolphin and Druid Hill Avenue. She was known not only locally, but nationally for her leadership qualities.

An outspoken leader who affected all of them when it was not always expedient to stand up and be counted. Her dedication and perseverance for the rights and service of others is still the objective of the group.

The VAG'S are looking forward to gearing their new programs to volunteerism to Senior Citizens, to "Life Line," a very new service offered at Provident Hospital, also to disseminate information for various social problems.

The club will continue to work toward improving the quality of life through all channels to Senior Citizens seeking directions, for better health care, thus continuing to exemplify their motto "Service is The Rent You Pay For The Space You Occupy on Earth."

Chesapeake Club — Revitalized

In 1950 four men, the late Dr. Bernard Harris; the late William (Bill Dixon; J. Alvin Jones, former Maryland State Senator; and Lloyal Randolph, Maryland State Delegate, discussed among themselves the possibility of organizing a club of men whose interest would be in Charitable, civic and Social activities.

They had been impressed with such clubs at the pyramid club, which was very well known in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at that time, and wondered if such a club could be formed in Baltimore.

Mail went out to all men over Baltimore that a meeting would be held on Sunday afternoon, April 2, 1950 at the Madison Avenue YMCA. The response was so great that many men were unable to get into the building to hear what was being said.

Dr. Harris served as chairman. Scores of those in attendance pledged to join the club and supported their pledges with cash. The men vowed to purchase a suitable club house.

Subsequent meetings were held on Sunday afternoons at either the Druid Hill Avenue YMCA or the York Hotel Blue Room, at Madison Ave. and Dolphin St.

In October, 1950, an election of officers and board was held and Dr. Bernard Harris, Sr. was officially elected president.

In June, 1951, the club became incorporated and in October, 1951, the property at 1114 W. Mosher Street was purchased as a club house.

In August, 1954, the club moved from Mosher Street to its present location, 2216 Eutaw Place.

During its thirty years of existence, the club has been involved in many civic, charitable, and social enterprises. At least three hundred (300) men at one time or another have been members of the Chesapeake Club, Inc.

According to William Dorsey, charter member, the current Cheseapeake Club president Leon Brown has caught the spirit of the late founder, Dr. Harris.

Plans are now being made by the club to celebrate its 30th anniversary during the week of Oct. 11.

The initial activity for the week will be a sermon at Ames AME Church on Sunday, Oct. 11, to be heard by all members.

Each day there will be 'Open House' at the club, with Monday, Oct. 12 designated 'Senior Citizens' Day.' There will be refreshments served and possibly, a film shown.

Thursday, Oct. 13, there will be a 'Games Night' — fun for everyone.

Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 14 and 15 the club will have 'Ladies' Nights — ladies will be admitted free of charge, will enjoy refreshments and dramatized by the club members.

Friday, Oct. 16 there will be special 'Club Night' activities and a contest.

Saturday, Oct. 17 will be highlighted by 'Night at the Races' a filmstrip of eight exciting races.

It promises to be a week of interesting and fun activities.

According to Leon Brown, new president, plans have been made for the club to have committees which will work with the NAACP, voter registration and already there has been a committee formed for the benefit of the Dr. Lillie Jackson Museum.

There are also plans for special activities for senior citizens in the neighborhood.

The club hopes to increase its membership, which, at its inception, was 300 members.

New president Leon Brown is a law enforcement officer at the Jessup House of Correction, having secured a B.S. Degree in Law Enforcement in 1979.

It is his first year as president and he is oft to a dynamic start.

The club is now being renovated and is located in what is now the historical section of Baltimore.

Philomathians plan 50th anniversary year

The Philomathians study club (Lovers of Learning) which was founded in 1932 by the late Vivian Johnson Cook and Vashti Turley Murphy kicked off their 50th Anniversary year with the theme "The Black Woman and Her World."

The purpose of the club is to study some aspect of contemporary life; to honor women who have made significant contributions and participate in the cultural and intellectual life of the community.

The September meeting was held at the home of the president Mrs. Gloria Phillips and reports were heard from the 50th Anniversary Committee headed by Mrs. Mae Peck.

The October meeting was held at the home of Dr. Elizabeth Murphy Moss at shich time Mrs. Ida Murphy Peters, AFRO Entertainment Editor was guest speaker on "Cultural Activities of Interest."

She reviewed the plays "Othello" with James Earl Jones and "Oh, Brother!" the new play about black white twins at the National Theatre in D.C. plus Charles Patterson in "Lesson From Aloes" at Center Stage" "Porch," "Patio" at Arena Players.

Special guests at the meeting were Mesdames Hiawatha Shaw Moore (former We Wives charter members) and her sister Virgie Leonard; Mrs. LaVerne Smith of Richmond, on the faculty of U of M College Park; Mesdames Jo Brown, Verniece Reynolds, Saretha Greene.

Club members include Mesdames Helen Lee, Vashti McKenzie, Christine Moore, Marion Patterson, Mae Peck, Myrtice Bennett, Rev. Marie Cooke Braxton, Althea Cornish, Jeanne Davis, Sally Fletcher.

Also Dr. Regina Goff Henry, Dr. Ruth Brett Quarles, Cr. Beryle W. Williams, Dr. Thelma P. Bando, Dr. Flossie Dedmond and Dr. E. Irene Diggs.
