OFFENSIVE AD

SAVANNAH, GA. - I believe you consider your magazine to be a family publication as it comes to various homes as a part of a weekly family newspaper.

Having this assumption in mind, I was more than slightly shocked when I saw a photograph you accepted as part of a Sears ad in the October issue of Dawn

Magazine.
Such exposure of a woman's body is appropriate only between husband and wife, and only at certain times. The emotions aroused in teenagers who will see your magazine cannot be as easily controlled.

LIKES POEM LOS ANGELES, CA - I would appreciate your having the writer of the poem "All I Want," to get in touch with me. The poem by K.A. Susa of Milwaukee, WI is superb, yet quite simple and to

The poem appeared in Vol. 8 No. 9 of Dawn Magazine. I am reachable at 1408 St. Andrews Pl., Los Angeles 90019.

OAKLAND, CA. - I read poem in the September edition of Dawn Magazine entitled "So Many Times." It was written by April Lorraine Carroll of San

I couldn't help writing to tell her that she seems to have been taught the wrong way and the right way, but she chose the wrong way of life.

I would like to get a message to her. I am reachable at 540 - 21st

This is particularly impressed in one's mind in Mexico and Colombia. It is my contention that some sort of program lauding the abilities and qualities that have been abased so ashamedly could be helped by a magazine such as Dawn giving a true picture of what we are like

This would help those who would travel out of this country. The negative people among us retard any real progress, and push us two steps back, when we make one forward.

RECORDS WANTED

SPRINGFIELD, MA. - I have been a fan of Muddy Waters and B.B. King for a great many years. I would like very much to buy their record albums, but don't know where to write for

Any help you can give would be appreciated. ROSIE LEE WILSON

No great feat, for a visit to any up to - date record store will probably have more albums by these blues greats than you might suspect.

Even if they don't have them immediately in stock — they can secure them for you easily.

SCORPIO COMPLAINT

BALTIMORE, MD. - I note with interest that Dawn Magazine has reinstituted "It's In The Stars," this time by a Chisa S. Shango. This is fine, and welcome the horoscope again.

But, as a Scorpio we have once again been given short shrift.

O News about the doings in the nation's capital is in National Roundup, page 7.

O In The Stars, with your horoscope readings, page

O Celebrity Roundup is in its accustomed place on

O Record review ratings this week are on page 19.

Last month's puzzle answer.

Seems that whenever there is a change in the Horoscope column, it happens at a time when the emphasis would have been on Scorpios. And, believe it or not, it happened again.

Chisa's column began with Sagittarius, with Scorpio left out once again. What about us?

KATHLEEN C. MURRAY

Alas, 'tis true, although we really didn't realize it. But, in discussion with Chisa, this was brought to her attention, so any Scorpios who want it - just write in, we will send you Chisa's charting of your sign.

The Editor's Desk

On the cover this month is a representative scene from the sundrenched islands of the Bahamas and Caribbean area. If it makes you drool a bit, there are a couple of stories about winter travel in the islands which may appeal to you.

Rather than accept the word o others, Dawn Magazine travelled to make a first - hand inspection of these tropical retreats.

Last month, this page was devoted to some of the many letters which came in from members of the Muslim faith, who roundly protested a story by one of our contributors.

We tried to pick a representative sample of some of the correspondence received, for everything sent to Dawn Magazine is read in its entirety,

Among our regular features, the Black History Grossword Puzzle is missing this month. Evidently things got crossed up in the mails, and we didn't receive the puzzle from its creator Kenneth Brown of Philadelphia in time for this

For the many who have asked, Dawn Magazine is made up seven weeks ahead of publication
