friends for his conscious and subconscious development. Watch for difficult negotiations from some friends. Talk.

Spotlight on Capricorn December 22-January 20

"It's your frame and appearance that deceives . . ."

Capricorn, keeper of the highest place in the chart, the galactic center from whence spews the energies of the various planets. This solar return finds you concerned as usual with work, health and service.

You are as usual buttressed with a dreamlike spiritual quality that is inherent to religious people. Your best avenue of expression and of least resistance is through third house functions such as communicating on everyday matters with par-

Attend to your brothers, sisters, relatives and neighbors. If you were to study business or management even along a governmental line you would find peace, happiness and friends all having a beneficial effect upon your health and your service.

You should be free of medication this year and use only fresh non - dairy foods to heal, nourish and maintain your vibrant and brisk air of well being. Walking around the block, through the community and parks will shake your gloom and your mood will be more of reaping a harvest.

Your potential for creativity is immense. The better your physical body and disposition, the more intense your feelings and discoveries. Whatever is your art form, you will be inspired by numerous brilliant philosophical women.

All of you love children, theater and dinner. Strive to be naturally stimulated. Nothing artificial at this time because it will adversely effect your circulation and spoil your amorous and artistic gambles. All of this relaxed pace is best spent at creating something for the job

Heavy fourth house matters are demanding. Mars, Saturn and Pluto in Libra is tremendous masculine power. It represents a positive force when experienced as a pruning, a scathing, purifying winnowing in the glen.

purifying winnowing in the glen.
It's negative influence is felt when destructive power is used in the home or undercover. It can't have much power for good if directed toward the career.

It is constructively used to clean the cabinets of all poisons, bathrooms, kitchens, basements.

Look for old ideas, things, people, etc to pass away so that a new approach is manifested.

The busiest time this year begins the middle of September and runs straight through to the end of January. Don't try to grab the public approval.

If you must be on stage or take honors make sure it is for others, for your children, your wife, for clarity in general.

The spotlight will be on you the middle of May, unexpected but pleasant. Uranus is the fifth. You may write a spiritual drama or paint occult scenes. How about a philosophical love story, extending to the entire family.
