Letters to the Editor

DAWN Magazine welcomes letters expressing all viewpoints: Letters must include signature and mailing address. Names may be withheld for adequate reason. The editor reserves the right to condense letters. Address all correspondence to DAWN Magazine, 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md. 21203.

THE DIGNIFIED RESPONSE Los Angeles, CA - With reference to the response to the question regarding the late Miss Hazel Scott, which appeared in the DAWN Magazine, Dec. 1981 congratulate you for the dignity employed. It was truly fitting for those who contributed to richly to our history. The item in the

ROBERTA M. REDDICK

Kansas City, MO - I am a mother and a daughter, and was really deeply hurt because I read the poor misguided question about such a lovely, talented lady of our race, Mrs. Hazel Scott

Thank you for your wise answer, because how would anyone like to be asked a question about their love. To do so that is very poor and a dishonorable thing to

The whole thing would make the youth of today have a poor image of celebrities. More power to you, keep us on our toes. MRS. G. E. RHODES

We have conveyed your kind words to our Celebrity Roundup columnist, Jason, who beamed mightily knowing that some or our readers share the insights strictly for the amateur poet poems in print.

an effort for him - her to see their

Although some submissions

are made by professional freelance poets, the Gallerie is designed for the amateur, and carries no fees for publication.

The fashion feature is with us

again this month, as Paula

Brooks describes the coming trends in hats. Incidently, Paula continues on the international scene, for this month she takes a fashion troupe to the Virgin Islands for a show. She is also one of the judges for the Coty awards

presentations, given to out-

JOHN MURPHY III

KENNETH O. WILSON

and DAWN Operations

Vice President-Advertising

Board Chairman

BOB MATTHEWS

Executive Editor

standing fashion designers.

given in the column.

FASHIONS FOR WOMEN

New York, NY - Permit me to congratulate DAWN Magazine on the December 1981 edition which contained an excellent article on fashion by Paula Brooks. This article is an indication of the continued growth and creative depth of the magazine supplement.

Women, as you indicated, are very conscious about fashion. There are always many articles written on apparel, but little is done about furs. Black women becoming knowledgeable about furs, and are trend setters. How about a feature on this facet of the fashion industry

JAMES P. McQUAY

SCORPIO COMPLAINT

Cleveland, OH - It hadn't occurred to me previously, but I too am a Scorpio and realized after seeing the letter in the January issue that we have not been spotlighted in the horoscope for two years now.

This is to register a complaint on behalf of all of us Scorps, and hope you do something about it.

ERNESTINE POWELL

We are indeed chastened, and hasten to say that our resident astrologer will put together a forecast for Scorpio, which will be sent to those requesting it.

PUZZLE MISSING

Fairfax, VA — Usuaully each month I try to do the Black Histroy crossword puzzle, but it

February 1982

Last month's puzzle answer. was missing last month. Also missing was the answers to Puzzle No. 17, which ran in

Is it possible to get the answer to this puzzle?

It is indeed, and on this page you will find it. And, for your information, the puzzle is back in

The Editor's Desk

On the cover this month is a reproduction of an original oil painting of Henry O. Flipper, by our staff artist, Thomas A.

Flipper is the subject of our black history month feature story and we heartily recommend it to those who are interested in the story of the black man in the United States.

This month's edition also marks the first in a series of articles on sports and sports figures, written by Sam Lacy, sports editor of the Afro-American Newspaper chain.

Sam is well respected and well known in the sports world, where. he has been covering the sports scene in newspapers and on TV for over 40 years.

Still getting a lot of mail from people inquiring as to how to make submissions to the Poetrie Gallerie. So, for the umpteenth time, wesay, all that is necessary is to send in the poem, along with a self-addressed envelope.

We are still slightly astounded to find that so many of our readers are interested in poetry. The Gallerie, we must add, is

APRIL WASHINGTON Production Coordinator

NEW YORK OFFICE: Percell L. Johnson, Jr. N.Y. Senior Resident Agent

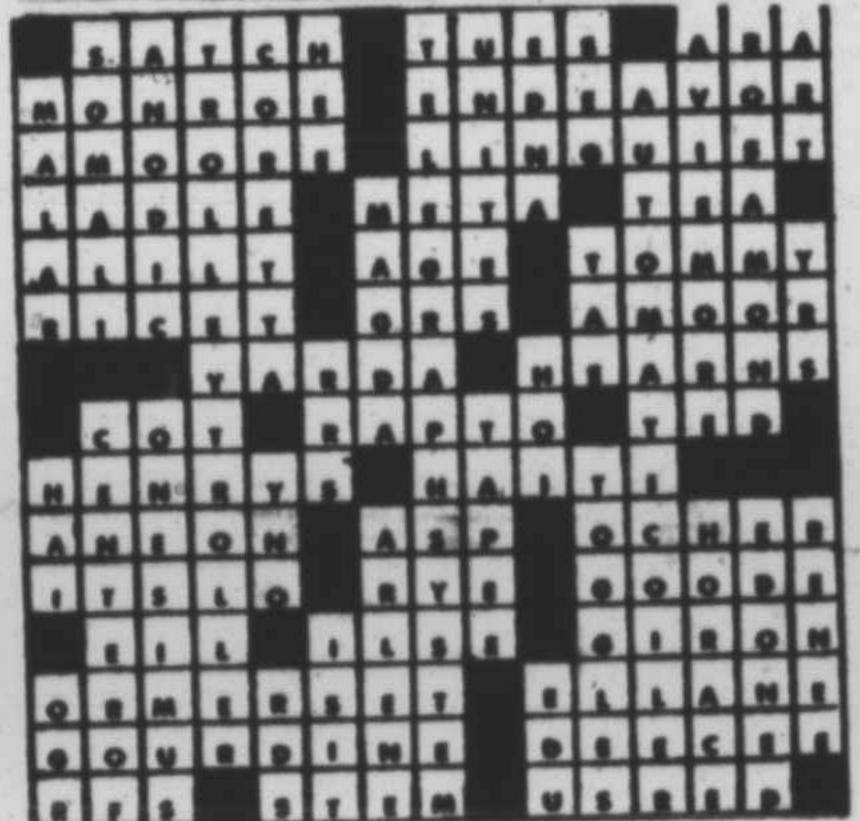

LEWIS F. BARNES JR. Account Executive

Vol. 9 No. 1 DAWN Magazine Offices: 628 N. Eutaw St. Baltimore, Md. 21203 (301) 728-8200

> N.Y. Offices: 295 Madison Ave., Suite 623 New York, N.Y. 10017 (212) 679-5152

Imsiale

O Black History Feature for this month concerns on page 6. O Dawn's newest feature on sports begins this month, and will be found O Fashion in Focus concentrates on hats. brings you news of the nation's capital. Page 14.

JACOB DURLEY

That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

There's only

Tiller

one way to

is hot, the taste is Kool.

Because there's only one

sensation this refreshing.