BALTIMORE/WASHINGTON AFRO-AMERICAN

Next to summer vacation, the Christmas break can be the most dreaded time for parents and their children. It's cold, and the kids want to go out, everyone is bored.

For the Christmas vacation blahs, the Maryland Science Center is sponsoring a Toy Festival through January 9, 1983 featuring exhibits, films, lectures, and demonstrations. Call the Science Center. at 685-5225.

The Enoch Pratt Library has scheduled a variety of films to be shown at the following branches, Light Street, Brooklyn, Edmondson, Northwood, and Walbrook. Call the branches for times and titles.

On December 26, the Baltimore Civic Center is sponsoring a Christmas Party from 12-4 pm in the Hopkins Room. Call the Civic Center at 837-0903 for details.

"E.T." was one of the years best movies and shame on you if you missed it, but you get another chance, and at a reduced price, at the Boulevard on Greenmount Avenue and 33rd Street. Call the theatre at 235-4923. Also at the Security Cinema.

Can you skate? Want to learn? Take your child to Glen Doughty's Shake and Bake Skating Rink on Pennsylvania Avenue. The rink is one of the fastest in the city and there is a children's matinee on Sundays at 1 pm. Call the rink for in-(Continued on p. 15)
