These are just a few of the reasons dine at Romeo's, located in the lobby of the Memorial Apartments, 301 McMechen Street in Baltimore.

Specializing in Phillippine dishes and seafood, Romeo's invited customers to feast on such native dishes as Pancit Bijon, a delicately seasoned dish featuring chicken, noodles and fresh vegetables, and some of his house specialities-Pork Barbecue on a Stick, Pork Mini Eggrolls and such desserts as Banana Eggroll:

culinary craft from his family's cook years ago. He has been in America now for 15 years, but has owned Romeo's for just about a year. Urged by a growing following that loved his Pork Barbecue on a Stick, which he featured at various fairs around the city, Romeo decided to start a restaurant. Aided by his manager Alicia Romulo, Romeo has begun to build a steady clientele, many of which residents of the Memorial Apart-
