REARRAGERAGERAGERAGERAGERAGER

Contents

Best Bets	1													Page	8
A Classic
Evening														Page	3
Delectab
Spirited:	S	P	0	t	5									Page	5
In Perfor	W	ā	T	K			•	•	•					Page	Ó
Flicks						•					٠			Page	7
Exhibits			•											Page	7
Miscella	1)	,										•		Page	7
Theatre														Page	8
Kid Stuff													-
The Tube			-					9		a	č	q	1	thru 1	1

the weekly entertainment leisure guide for the greater Washington and Baltimore areas. Published by the AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPER group.

Headquarters: 628 N. Eutaw St. Baltimore, MD. 21202

J. H. Murphy III, Chairman: J. J. Oliver Jr., Vice Chairman John J. Oliver Sr., President: Kenneth G. Wilson, Vice President Advertising: Relph Matthews, Managing Editor.

Advertisers! Find out how Friday Plus can help your impact on two great markets with cost-effectiveness. For the complete marketing picture, contact:

Bonnie M. Butler, Advertising Manager The Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore, MD. 21201 (301)728-8200

Ms. Janice Stewart, Advertising Manager The Washington AFRO-AMERICAN 2002 11th St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20001

(301)728-8200 ext. 271

Washington: Art Carter, Editor, Publisher (202)332-0080

EUBIE!!

Enjoy an evening of music by the 7:30 PM.

Euble Blake will be celebrating his 100th birthday this year and this benefit, tions, will have him receive various Jan. 20. awards for his unquestionable contributions to the music world.

Hosting the show will be the always master as the Kennedy Center's debonair Billy Dee Williams and guest performers/presenters include the Euble Blake Cultural Center of Rosemary Clooney, Joe Williams, Melba Baltimore, Maryland-"Euble Blake: A Moore, Cab Calloway, Phyllis Hyman, Century of Music." The benefit will be Patti LaBelle and many, many more. The held Thursday, Jan. 20 and will begin at benefit will also be televised for a future special on public television to air sometime in May.

Tickets for this gala affair range from in addition to offering his congratula- $35 to $125. Celebrate Euble Blake on

WHAT A REUNION!

In keeping with the precedent set dur- new year off right, the Meyerhoff is ing the latter part of '82, the Joseph presenting a reunion show featuring presenting quality entertainment for the greats--Count Basie, Sarah Vaughn, and new year of 1983 as well. To start the Joe Williams-in performance, for one show only, Sunday, Jan. 16 at 7:30 PM.

Count Basie, Sarah Vaughn and Joe Williams have been entertaining jazz and blues lovers for well over three decades. Many believe they are among the originators of the genre. For a oncein-a-lifetime concert, the trio will musically enlighten Baltimore audiences.

Tickets for this performance may be obtained by contacting Carnegie Concepts, Ltd., 202 E. 25th Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21213. For more information call 467-6900 or 338-0300.

to handle it, you have got to be prepared.

at The Wax Museum, Thursday night, ter results than the majority of female show it promises to be.

back trail now for the past year or two, prices.

by Janice Simmons

The Classics III, as its name suggests, is a first-class establishment. The new, spacious building boasts a modern design, split-level dance floor, two bars, game machines and a fabulous old fashioned popcorn machine— all on one

Open nightly. The Classics III holds happy hour from 5 to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday with no admission fee; after 9 p.m. the charge is $3.00. Friday and Saturday nights the club is open from 9 to 3; cover charge is $5.00. Dinner is served until 12:30 a.m.

The Classics III is located off Washington Beltway in Camp Springs, Maryland. From Baltimore, take 9 South into 495 East. Exit at Allentown Rd. (#9). The Classics' yellow neon sign is visible from the highway which makes it easy to find.

The dress code does not allow jeans, sneakers or T-sirts, and minimum age for admittance is 21.

Easily the most impressive aspects of The Classics III are its size, plush design, modish patrons and that fantastic popcorn machine.

friendly chat.

BALTIMORE/WASHINGTON AFRO-AMERICAN

The latest fashions are always on hand at The Classics - D.C.'s hottest night

Couples can enjoy a little quiet time at The Classics. The attractive decor. allows for a comfortable time out.

The Classics features a large dance floor on two levels to accomodate the latest dancing fads.

The Classics features the best in nighttime entertainment.

If not in the mood for dancing or socializing, electronic games are always available to provide a good time.

D.C. WELCOMES TINA TURNER

Jan. 20th for one show only. And what a musical stars half her age.

Get ready D.C.! Our Lady of Rock and proving to the public that a bad marriage and a few other unfortunate happenings along the way couldn't keep her down. The incomparable Tina Turner, minus At 40 years of age, Tina Turner is still

The Tina Turner Show will begin at 8 Tina Turner has been on the come- PM; Call The Wax Museum for ticket

