Much Ado About Norfolk

Norfolk State quarterback Willie Gillus searches for a receiver against rival Virginia Union (photo by Joe Daniels).

mond, someone unveiled a green and this is one coach worth doin' the cluding the last three in a row, and five boss, passed away two summers ago, a gold (Norfolk State's colors) sign with cookin' and payin' the rent for.

folk State have gotten their wish.

At last year's Virginia Union- Native son Willard Bailey, NSU Decorating the great record at Union

team Division II tournament

State, Bailey produced a 106-32-4 "I was only one of many. Jesse Chavis brought along to Norfolk State. the result of that great man."

Norfolk State football mime in Rich- Class of '63, has come in home. And were five CIAA championshine, in recruiter and drill-sergeant defensive

"Tom and John are cut from the Chavis mold. I'm so fortunate in that regard," says Bailey. "In preparing for Stroh's and Stroh Light. Fire-Brewed for smoother taste.

for smoother taste.