Your horoscope:

By Harriette Lane

Capricom (The Goat) (December 22-January 19)

Your presence around family and friends is reassuring this month. An idea you've been playing around with since the beginning of Dec. will come to its fruition by the middle of the month. The mind is keen.

Virgos and Taureans are supportive. High power days begin 22-23. Have your priorities straight by Christmas in time to make one of the most important resolutions in your life by New Year's. Spend it with your family.

Aquarius (The Waterbearer) (January 20-February 18)

Ideas and creative juices flow through the month—Put them on paper—don't let those Aquarian dreams get away from you. Watch out for extravagant and impulsive spending around the 12th. You become more philosophical as the holidays approach. You find joy in the company of children. Make New Year plans early. Be prepared for possible last minute changes.

Pisces (The Fish) February 19-March 20)

Concentrate on getting financial matters straight as you plan for your holiday. The full moon on the eighth provides helpful inspiration. Be careful before committing yourself to permanent decisions that may affect your security. The holiday spirit motivates you to do good works for others.

By year's end, there is a deep feeling of personal loss that tempts you toward escapism—See the positive, and you'll be laughing at life in time for New Year's.

Aries (The Ram) (March 21-April 19)

You start the month sure of your power and energy to accomplish your goals. Don't feel you have to do them all at once. Tie up all loose ends by mid-month. Pressures in your occupation must be dealt with in fact.

During Christmas you are the perfect MC. The days following then shift to contemplation and reflection on what has transpired. You reach a high power peak just in time for the New Year! Don't overdo!

fApril 20-May 20)

The influence of sun in Sagittarius tends to make Taurus feel scattered. Don't be a stick-in-the-mud. Variate your activities. Include children. Love life is highlighted, especially around the 14th.

SAGITTARIUS—The Centaur

November 22-December 21)

A fire sign of mutable quality. The Centaur combines the animal passion of fire with the higher mind of man. Sagittarius always seeks to reconcile these two traits.

Much time will be spent trying to find the happy medium, but most times, one trait seems to dominate. The other reveals itself in sporadic bursts.

They passess a high strung energy well suited to philosophical thought and analysis. They are naturally personable, friendly, and honest to the point of being blunt. Their impulses can cause them grief, but optimism carries them through every time.

Forecast:

It's your birthday month, so you're bound to feel lucky and ready to conquer anything—Go with this feeling, and persevere in projects you start. Impulsive spending and extravagance cause financial strain by mid-month. Don't wear your heart on your sleeve.

You depend on friends for support, but motivation for self-improvement must be your own. Christmas will be a spiritual experience for you. Find time to relax before New Year activities begin.

Moodiness will be alleviated by the 23rd, in time for a peaceful, loving Christmas. Your celebrating continues into the New Year, but it is one of serenity.

Gemini (The Twins) May 21-June 20)

Restless energy drives you this month. Everybody wants some of your time, and somebody always needs your advice. This comes to a head by the 17th.

Your surge of power may make you self-righteous: Take this as your hint to slow down, and focus on the ones near to you who may need your support the most.

Cancer (The Crab) June 21-July 22)

Appearances really are deceiving where you're concerned this month. Others will not get the desired reactions to what they ask of you. A great deal of your moodiness can easily be remedied by good old fashioned stroking and attention to your needs for a change.

Dec. 9th will make this concept more clear to you.

July 23-August 22)

You're due for many high power days this month. You'll make the holiday season more festive for everybody. Unexpected visits come the week of the 10th. Unexpected letdowns come with the package-rely on your sense of humor to pull you through them.

Virgo (The Virgin) August 23-September 22)

You're all business in the beginning of the month. You keep the ship afloat during pre-holiday frivolity, and impress those in authority with your diligence. This comes to a peak during your high power days (13-15).

Your budget is already set for gift giving, and a loved one receives special attention from you that makes up for any neglect they've suffered earlier.

(September 23-October 23)

A whirlwind of social activity begins early for you in the month, and you're up to the task. Your decision making at times seems inspired, and shows others how special you are. Tighten up on spending around the 13th.

Get your holiday budget in order quickly. Don't overindulge in eating, especially around the 8th. You'll be most popular during your high power days (16-18).

Scorpio (The Scorpion) October 23-November 21)

You're a little tense from the month before—slow down a bit and get some rest, especially around the 5th. You impress others on the job around the 10th. Make room for a loved one on the 17th.

The peak power days for you follow (through the 18th). You find you need friends more than you know, and you're grateful to have them around for the holiday.
