Forty years and the challenge continues, founding of the United Negro for several years. It's eatchy, It's more willing to investigate the challenges that the organization describes the plight of hundreds that that better chance comes faces are greater than ever. In of black students, that every from the positive emotional and 1982, out of the 1,101,499 black year, apply to traditionally white community support that is prestudents attending institutes of schools and eventually wind up sent at black schools, from the higher learning nationwide, on- dropping out, unable to complete overt and covert racism that is ly 216,572 were enrolled in their four years. universities (43,089 attending member institutions would like to are evident daily. UNCF member institutions). This see these students originally enrolled in black colleges in over they have a better chance of a decade. varied ranging from controver- statistics. situation any less unfortunate. Morehouse, Dillard, Fisk, and any less disappointing.

waste." That's the slogan that has blacks to pass and eventually Today, forty years after the represented the UNCF idealogy graduate. Others, more aware, graduating, a three and a half The reasons for this decline are times better chance, according to

Xavier have lower standards, "A mind is a terrible thing to thus making it "easier" for young responsible for many of the current decisions being made by black students. They have heard

(Continued on page 7)

NEWSPAPERS

Supports

THE

The Park Heights Development Corporation Congratulates the United Negro College Fund

CORPORATION

ENCOURAGES YOU TO MAKE OUR GROWTH YOUR OPPORTUNITY!

- . BUSINESS RESOURCE CENTER

CORPORATION

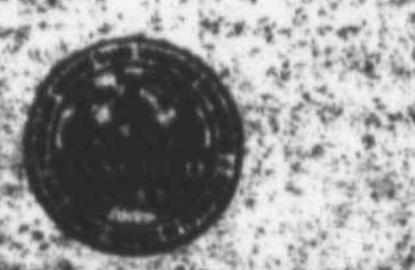

A Non Profit Organization

LOUNGE

664-1041

We Salute

Fund

The United Negro College Fund: committed to strength By E.T. Goodman

(Continued from page 6)

this celebrity gala will feature ago, that the quality of secondary grams effered at UNCF schools has attracted more job recruit-

including figures like Nobel Prize

DEPARTURES

Salutes