> A Learning In Focus Production, "Go Tell It On the Mountain" is the story of 14-year-old John Grimes, who struggles to free himself from the effects of a suffocating past that has emotionalcrippled his family. His deliverance can only come from a sense of his own strength and his ability to love and to try to forgive an unbending and selfrighteous stepfather.

> > Young John must also resolve his struggle with the mysterious world of his church and the unpredictable white world of wealth and power that beckons.

> > The film spans the period from 1902 to 1935 as it explores the pain and turmoil of the Grimes family, both in the rural south and in the volatile urban life of

The film features a powerful Douglas Turner Ward, Ruby Dee, James Bond III, C.C.H. Pounderand Academy Award winner. Alfre Woodard. Highlighted in the production is the driving force of gospel music featuring recording artists Linda Hopkins, Rose Weaver and Desiree Coleman.

Born in New York City, the first up in Harlem where his father was a preacher. From the age of 14 until he was 17, Baldwin was finest writers whose works include novels, essays and plays. He wrote Go Tell It On the
