YOU KNOW BECAUSE YOU READ THE AFRO

First public reception for Morgan president

DR. EARL S. RICHARDSON (C) enjoys a conversation with some of his Morgan students during the first public reception hosted for him since he was appointed new MSU president by alumnus, Tyrous "Terry" Addison at the Forum, last Friday, Jan. 25. (From left) are Tanma Grey, Lenette Banks, Yvonne Cook and Andrea Thomas.

nus, at the Forum last Friday,

The more than 200 guests attending began to arrive at 5 p.m. for an evening which was marked by Much animated conversation

Verda Welcome and Hilda Aston who came out to IN ON THE FESTIVITIES are (L to R) Mary honor Dr. Richardson.

TYROUS "TERRY" ADDISON (second from R), host for the affair, is seen with (from L) Robert

M. Williams, a Morgan graduate who is visiting here from Liberia, Africa.

CITY COUNCILWOMAN IRIS REEVES (R) and Mrs. Vera Hall discuss the latest developments on the Maryland political scene

ISIAH FLETCHER (L) chats with guests during the evening's festivities.

DR. ARIS T. ALLEN (L) is deeply engrossed in conversation with Louis Pinckney while Ms.

Phyllis McCutcheon greets a friend with a bright

HOWARD 'REDS' BOONE RETURNS TO BALTO FOR 50TH B'DAY FETE

Springfield, VA recently celebrated his 50th birthday with a gala birthday party years, Margaret Brooks

Margaret chartered a Gold Line bus to take 47 of their on a tour of Howard's hometown — Baltimore. Howard Boone is a retired army Colonel who is presently

Washington, DC, Norfolk and Greensboro, NC. Margaret Boone planned a party her husband would never forget. The party was not a surprise for Howard, but Boone was recently promoted to Eastern Regional Director in Vie de France,

York, Philadelphia,

French breads.

the details of the celebration were kept from him. arrived at the Boone's home in Springfield, where they had bus. Howard was crowned with a royal headdress and the evening officially began. the evening officially began. was an old neighborhood. The bus was properly watering hole, the Cozy France Corporation which including a six-foot sub sufspecializes in croissants and ficient to feed all aboard the Wright A birthday cake and Boone (Fred is a centain for tour. Guests used the PA system to pay tribute to party group.

All were truly in a festive Baltimore' and Maryland, My Baltimore Harbor, Dunbar Hospital. Chase Street (where points of interests in East Brooks of Linwood Ave.,

The Boone's party bus returned home to Springfield, Va. where all was in readiness for a real swinging party. They were joined by 30, more friends. Music was provided by Captain Bo and Mighty B Music Unlimited. Guests were graciously served by Kenneth and Son, Caterers.

Some of the guests for this and Century 21 represen-

Delta Airlines); Mr. and Mrs. Will Brooks, (Will is a teacher at Hampstead Junior High); Gary Brooks, a law student at the University of Baltimore and his fiancee, Miss Thra

Also present were Major General and Mrs. Edward Honor, Brigadier General and Mrs. Jack Rozier, Morgan graduates; Elizabeth Houston of Howard University, Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Greene. Fred is a member of Washington, DC's Mayor Marion Berry's cabinet): Mrs. Jan Willis, attorney and member of Hampton University's Board

THE BALTIMORE AFRO - AMERICAN FEBRUARY 2, 1985

refreshing sensation in smoking. eyond the ordinary. Kings