collegiate Athletic Conference will join the SWAC team and players from the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association will be added to the MEAC squad.

• nine other independents will be represented, with Lincoln (Mo.), Central State, Langston, Bishop and Arkansas-Pine Bluff supplying the SWAC and UDC, Cheyney, Kentucky State and West Virginia State going to the MEAC.

The SWAC captured the first two Freedom Bowls, winning 36-22 two years ago and 14-0 last January.

N.C. A&T Hall

Six former football players were among the athletes inducted into North Carolina A&T's Sports Hall of Fame on Nov. 16.

They included John Cuthrell, Ron Francis, Maurice Godley, Donald Quarles, Lorenzo Stanford and Arthur Lee Worthy. Also to be inducted is former basketball star Melwood Davis, late boxing Coach Matt Brown and Athletic-Board-in-Control charter member Waddell Pearson.

Cuthrell, who played at A&T from 1953-56, was a two-time all-CIAA selection. He later coached football, basketball and track at the prep level. He also served as a high school referee for 20 years.

Francis was a tight end from 1961-64, won all-conference honors three times and played pro ball in the National and Canadian football

Godley, a renowned agronomist, played from 1936-38. He won allconference honors in 1938.

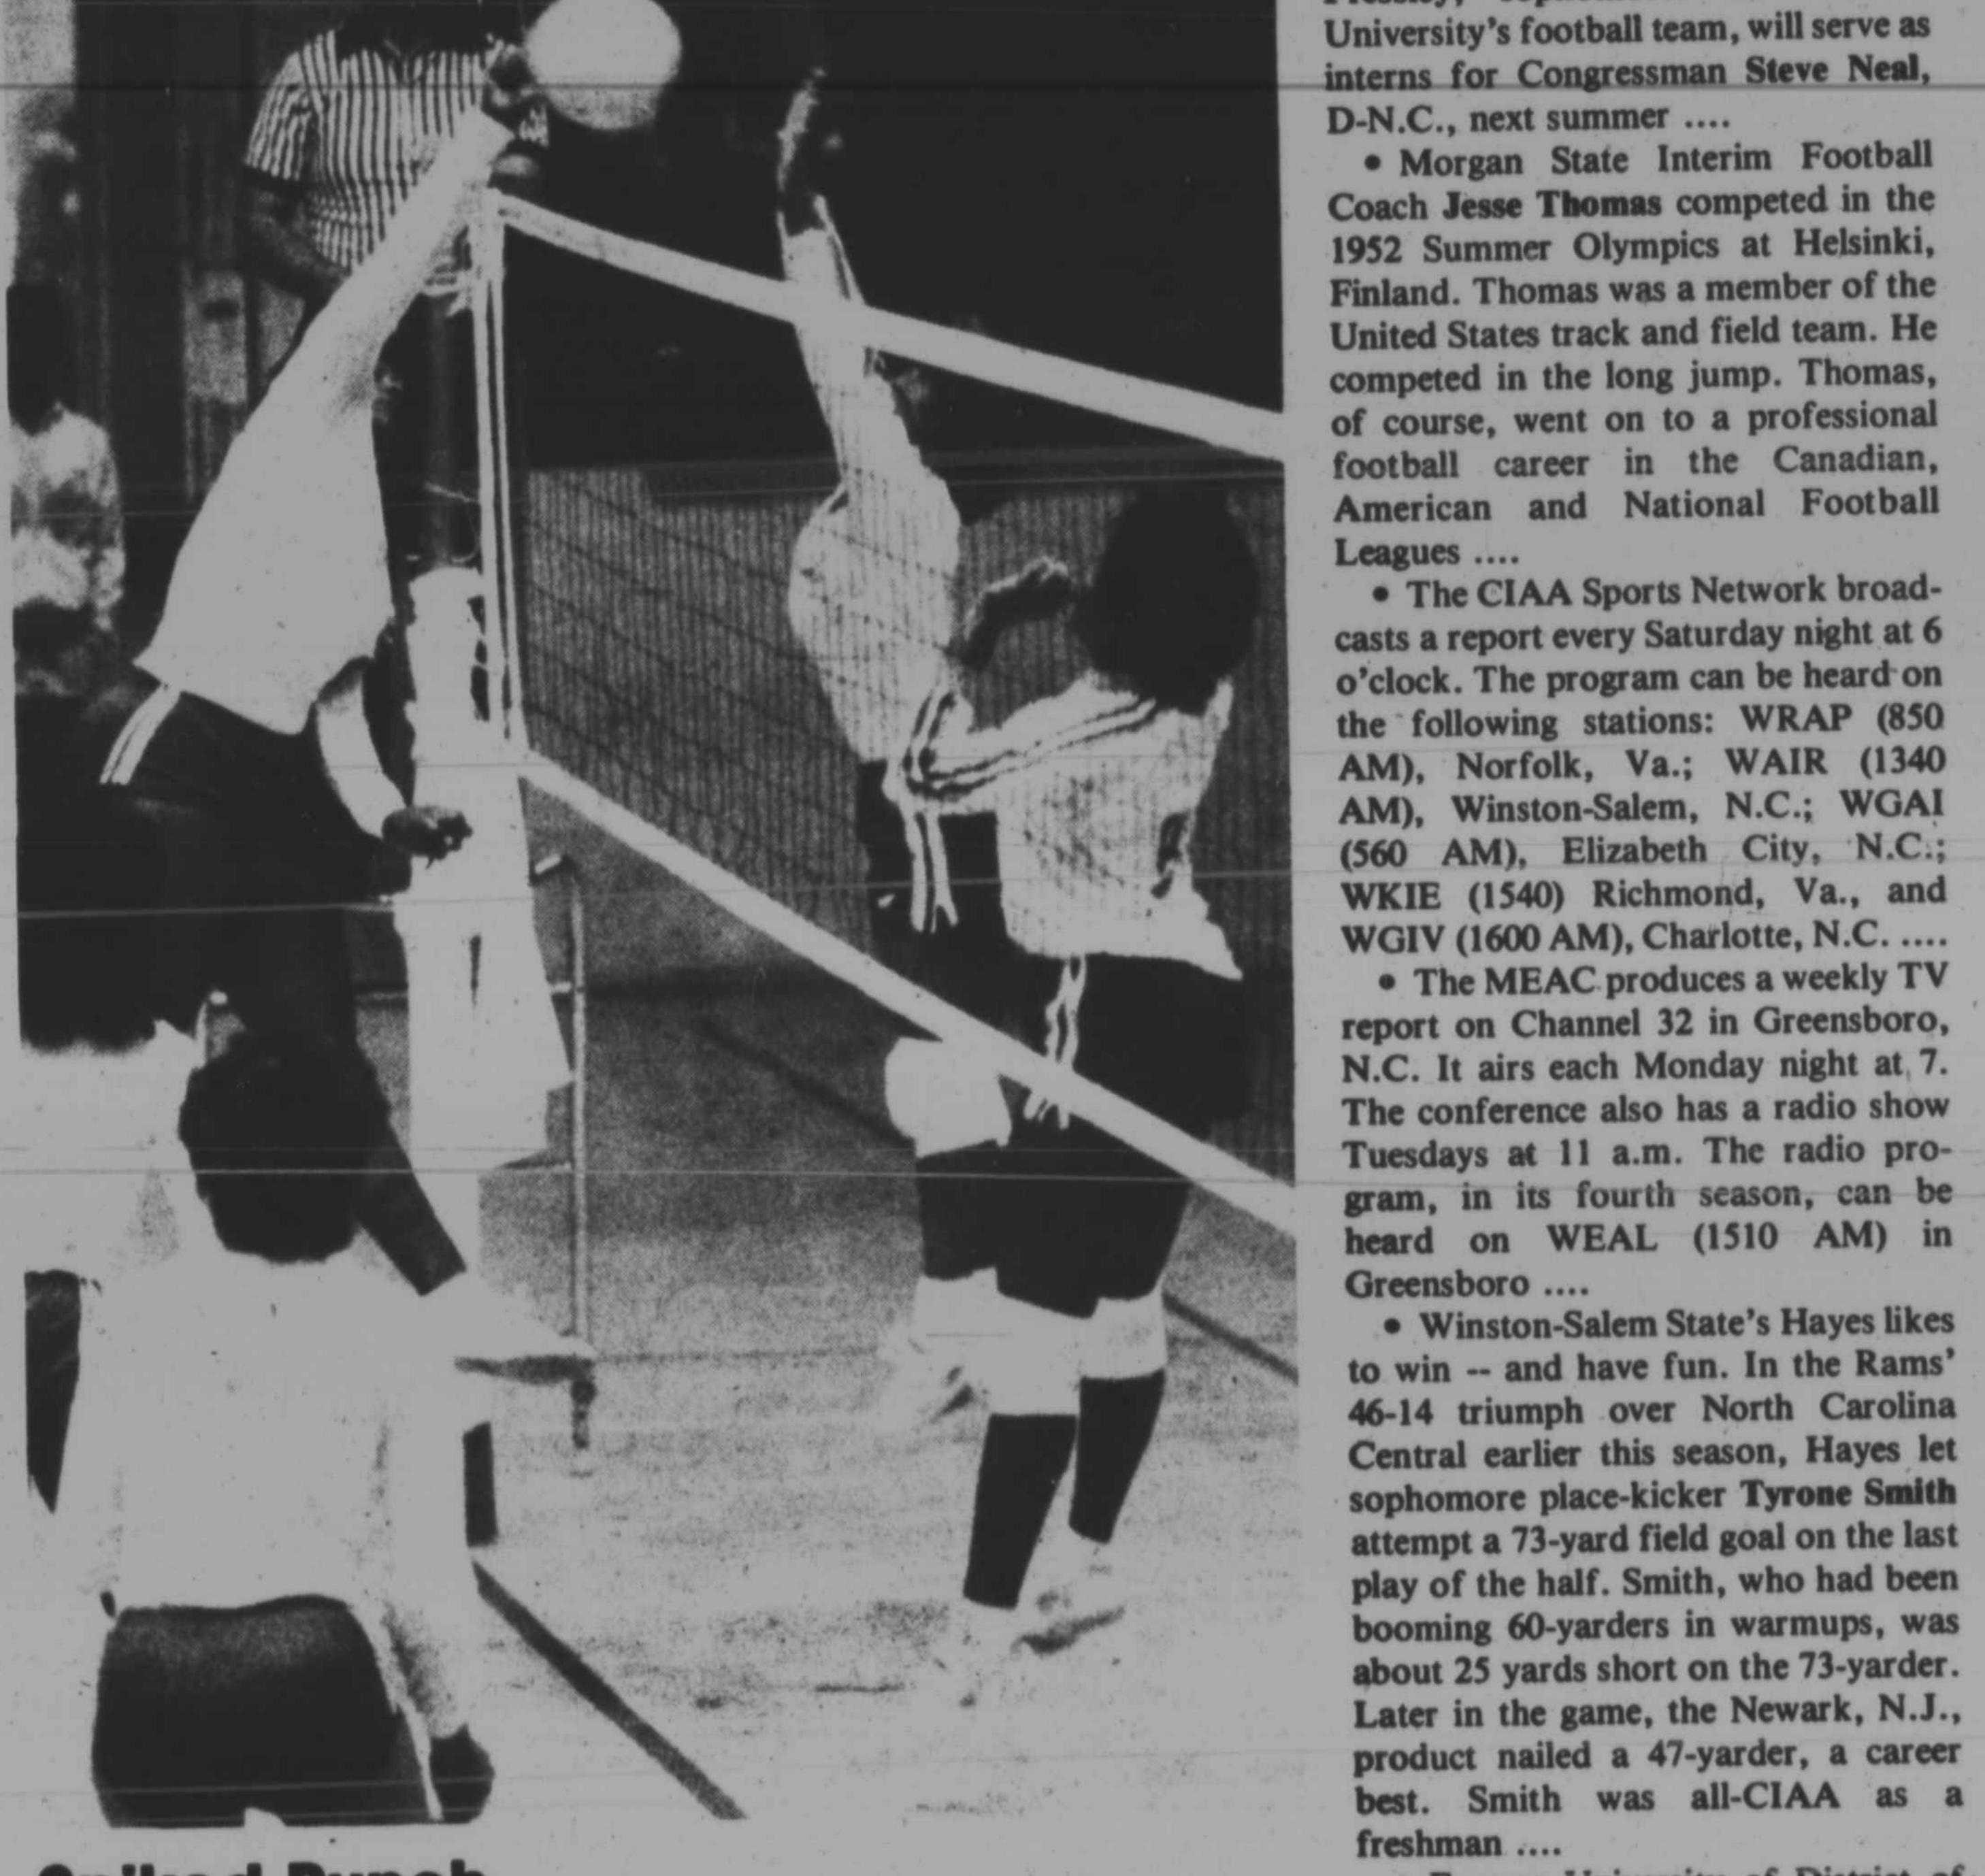

Quarles was a flashy and durable running back. He also boxed and was a runner-up in the 1953 NCAA Tourna-

Stanford and Worthy both were all-Americas during their Aggie days.

Goodwine Plays On

Despite the death of his grandparents in a house fire in his native parents' behest.

Goodwine, a preseason all-CIAA the Week the Trojans' 23-14 win over stubborn 1,701 yards, although he was slowed by season

Spiked Punch

North Carolina A&T's Jennifer Williams, left, spikes during the recent MEAC Volleyball Tournament. Williams was named the Most Valuable Player in the event, won by Howard over the Aggies at A&T (photo by Joe Daniels).

Johnson C. Smith.

Miscellany

injuries last year and totaled only 679

• Defensive tackle Leon Coles has changed his mind and will return to • The low-profile Southern Inter- Winston-Salem State. The 6-4, Plant City, Fla., Virginia State defen- collegiate Athletic Conference has 260-pound sophomore had not returnsive tackle Rudy Goodwine decided to picked up a modicum of support from ed for preseason practice in August. play on the day of the funeral at his a major daily newspaper. The Atlanta He told Coach Bill Hayes then that he Constitution selects the SIAC Player of intended to enroll at Atlanta Junior College with the intention of transferrselection, went on to turn in the most • Central State (Ohio) all-America ing to Georgia Tech, one of several inspiring performance of the season. Mark Corbin surpassed the 3,000-yard NCAA Division I-A schools to recruit The 6-foot-3, 280-pound senior barrier in the Marauders' win over him. Now the East Orange, N.J., proregistered seven tackles, a sack and two Alabama A&M Oct. 5. The senior duct plans to re-enroll at WSSU in interceptions. He returned one in- gained 135 yards in a 36-3 win over the January. He started as a freshman and terception for a 20-yard touchdown Bulldogs. Corbin was the nation's would have been one of the best and the second set up another score in leading rusher as a sophomore with linemen on the Rams' defense this its powerhouse days. He coached Vince interns for Congressman Steve Neal, D-N.C., next summer • Morgan State Interim Football Coach Jesse Thomas competed in the

Pressley, sophomores on Howard

1952 Summer Olympics at Helsinki, Finland. Thomas was a member of the United States track and field team. He competed in the long jump. Thomas, of course, went on to a professional football career in the Canadian, American and National Football Leagues

• The CIAA Sports Network broadcasts a report every Saturday night at 6 o'clock. The program can be heard on the following stations: WRAP (850 AM), Norfolk, Va.; WAIR (1340 AM), Winston-Salem, N.C.; WGAI (560 AM), Elizabeth City, N.C.; WKIE (1540) Richmond, Va., and WGIV (1600 AM), Charlotte, N.C.

• The MEAC produces a weekly TV report on Channel 32 in Greensboro, N.C. It airs each Monday night at 7. The conference also has a radio show Tuesdays at 11 a.m. The radio program, in its fourth season, can be heard on WEAL (1510 AM) in Greensboro

• Winston-Salem State's Hayes likes to win -- and have fun. In the Rams' 46-14 triumph over North Carolina Central earlier this season, Hayes let sophomore place-kicker Tyrone Smith attempt a 73-yard field goal on the last play of the half. Smith, who had been booming 60-yarders in warmups, was about 25 yards short on the 73-yarder. Later in the game, the Newark, N.J., product nailed a 47-yarder, a career best. Smith was all-CIAA as a

• Former University of District of Columbia all-America Earl Jones was traded during the preseason by the Los Angeles Lakers to the San Antonio Spurs. The 7-foot Jones sat out most of last year with a broken leg and it became obvious he would be traded when the Lakers obtained veteran Maurice Lucas and signed rookie A.C. Green. The Lakers received future considerations for Jones, whom they had recently re-signed. The Lakers also may try to obtain Ralph Sampson, who is disgruntled with Houston Coach Bill

• The Golden State Warriors have cut guard Eric Boyd, who was a standout at North Carolina A&T

· Costa Kittles has been named interim baseball coach at Florida A&M. Kittles replaces Melvin Gilliam, who had no winning seasons in three years. Kittles had been FAMU's coach during

Please See Page 15

Black College Sports Review