Linda Harris, a former anchorperson for WBZ-TV in Boston, premieres December 16th as the newest co-host of WJZ-TV's PEO-

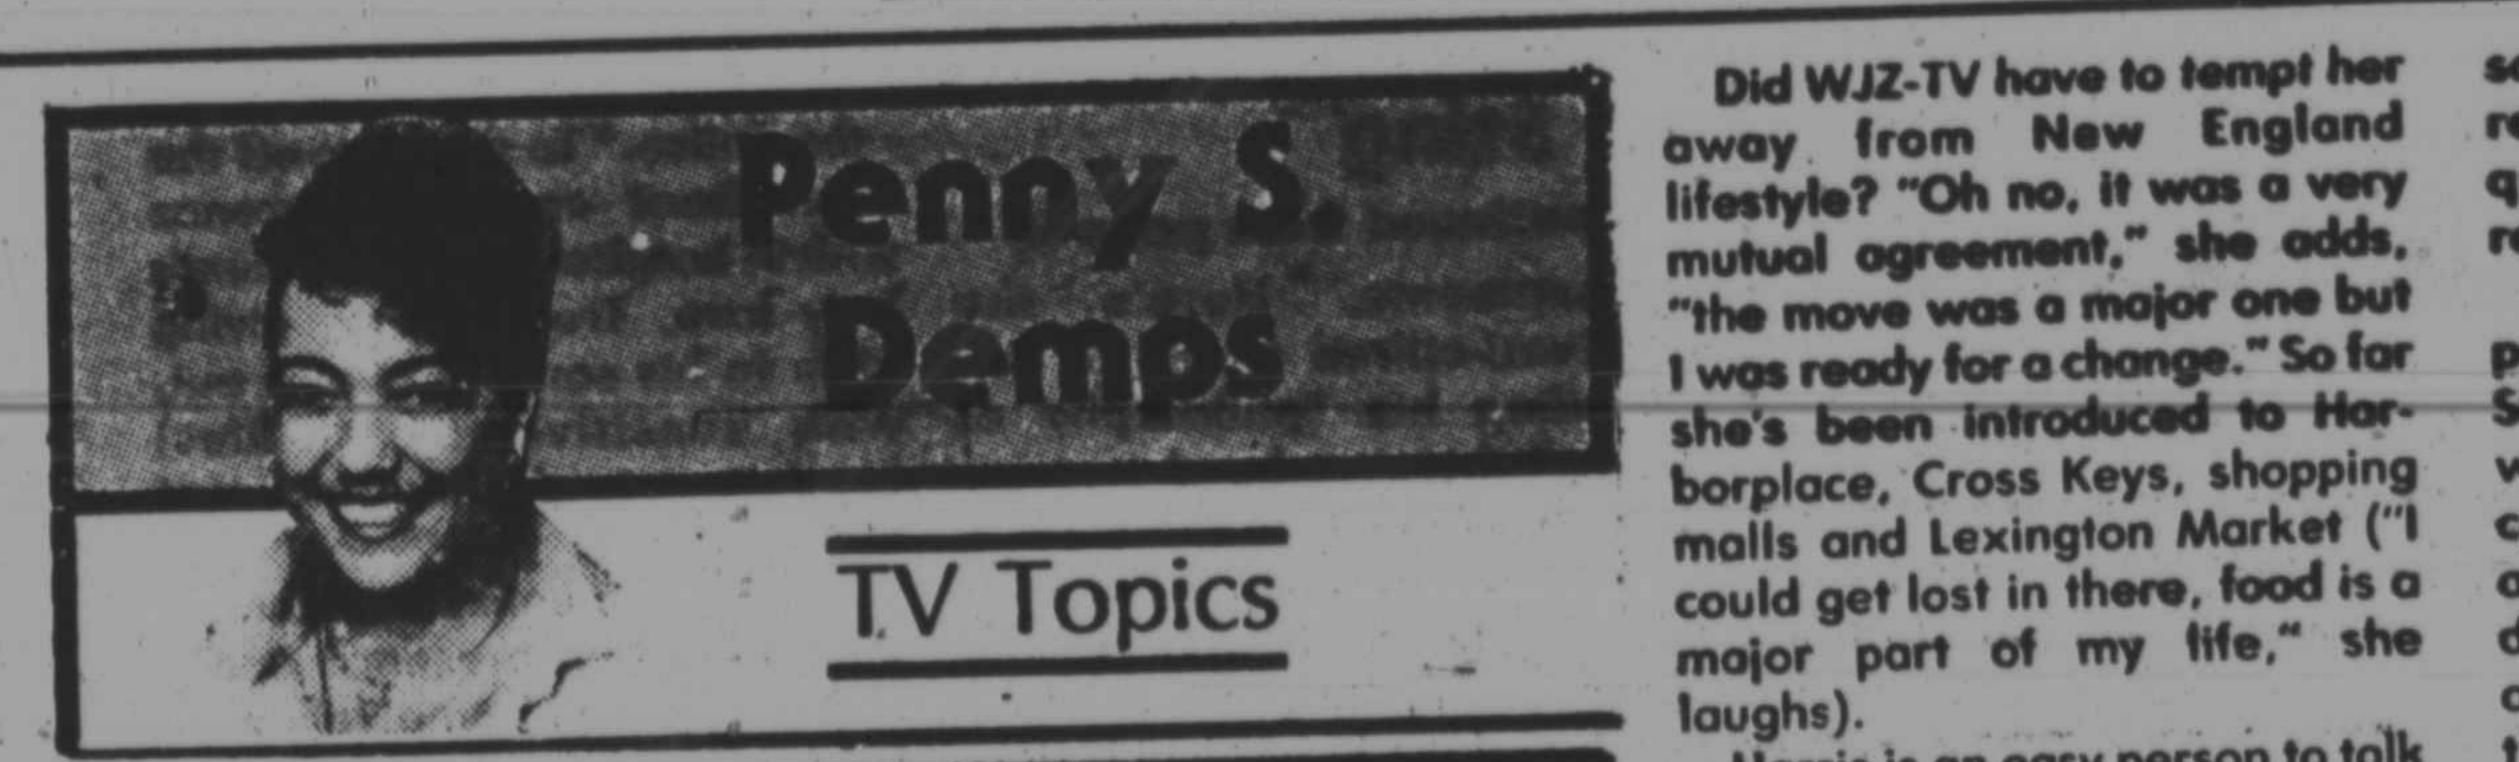

PLE ARE TALKING. telligent, charming, quick-witted woman who can easily think on her feet, is also blessed with an arresting "down-to-earth" sense of humor. More importantly, Linda Harris knows what she is (and will be) talking about. No emptyheaded guesswork here!

Aside from earning degrees in both Sociology and Education, she has worked her way up through ranks of TV since 1975 and is now ready to share her wealth of talent, energy and exaudiences.

Ms. Harris began her work in television quite by accident more than 10 years ago when she oppeared as a guest on a talk show guest because I was extremely passionate about the topic of discussion (the welfare of black children)," she states, "that led to guest-hosting and finally into a free-lance "subbing" situation that key me working on a constant schedule." A star was born in Boston and the rest is history!

Viewers in Baltimore should be familiar with Linda Harris. In 1978, her National Travel Tipster segments oppeared on Group W's (Channel 13) EVENING part PM MAGAZINE.
