IT'S IN THE STARS

Carson, CA — Where can I write a personal letter to Penny Demps, the person who puts together the In the Stars horoscope in Dawn Magazine.

Secondly, when is Dawn inserted into the paper. I pick up my copy in the Los Angeles Sentinel.

R. SUMNER

Miami, FL — I would like to compliment Penny Demps on the horoscopes in Dawn Magazine. I want to know if there is a daily issue or monthly ones. I am interested in all I can get on Taurus.

DARLEHE GRANT

Personal letters may be addressed to Miss Penny Demps here at the Dawn Magazine Baltimore offices. The address is given below. Dawn is a monthly publication, and is usually inserted in member papers in the second week in the month. It may differ in some regions, so the best bet is to check with the individual papers which carry Dawn.

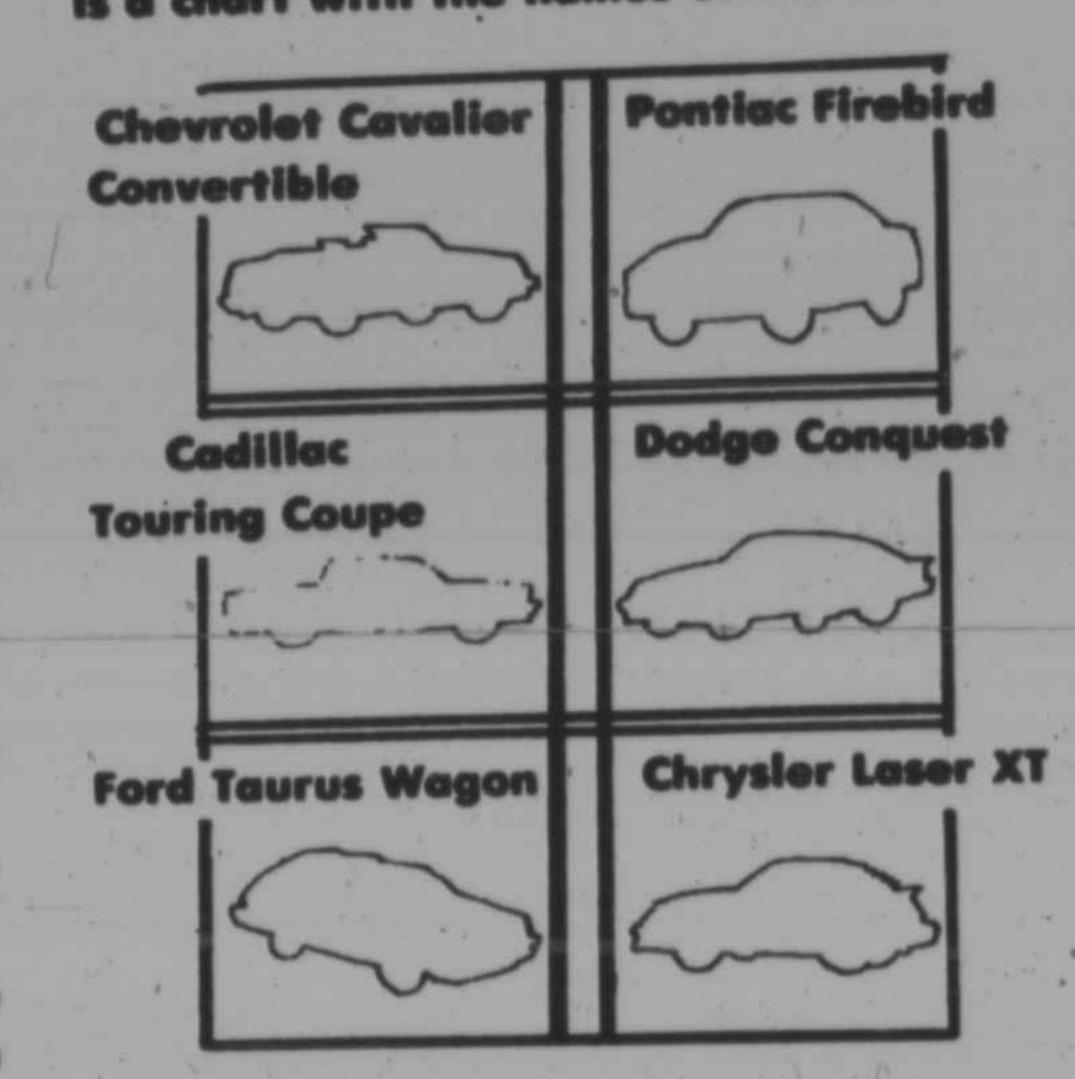

SPECIAL AUTOMOTIVE ISSUE

Newark, NJ — In my opinion, Dawn Magazine did a creditable job in showing the new autos for 1986, but nowhere could I find the names of the cars pictured on the front cover.

KENNETH NEAL

Absolutely correct, we goofed--so here is a chart with the names of the autos.

Editor's Desk

On the cover this month is a photo in keeping with the holiday season, a photograph of a Meru Village woman and child of Kenya, Africa.

The photo is one of a series taken by veteran photographer, Howard Morehead who has produced a reminder of another, brighter side of Africa.

Morehead first gained national attention as a photographer of girls: the luscious, sundrenched beauty of the seashore, shown in all her curvacious glory, became a Morehead trademark.

His work matched that of the best "cheesecake" photographer of the day and resulted in the publication of his first book, "Gentlemen Prefer Bronze," a collection of pictures of beautiful black women.

by Olympic star Mal Whitfield, has been published in Africa. Morehead has two more books in progress: "I See My People" and "World of Women."

The holder of numerous photographic awards and civic citations, Morehead produced and directed the annual Miss Bronze California Beauty Pageant for twelve years.

Although he no longer produces the pageant, he has retained a company, Bronze Beauty Enterprises (P.O. Box 42977, Los Angeles, CA 90042), for the sales and distribution of his "Visions of Africa" portfolios.

Next month, Dawn Magazine presents a tribute to Martin Luther King, Jr., as the country prepares to honor him with the first national holiday for a black man.

And don't forget, the February issue of Dawn Magazine is once again dedicated to Black History Month. As usual, we will attempt to bring you stories about little-known blacks who made important contributions to our history and culture.
