Redd Foxx, a master of looking at life from a satirical point of view, is back in his own series once more. THE REDD FOXX SHOW, a new half-hour comedy, airs on January 18, at 8:00 p.m. on ABC (Channel 13).

In the new series, a perfect showcase for Redd's sorely! missed comedic talents, he plays Al Hughes, owner of a newsstand coffee shop/mini-mart located near a busy subway entrance in the heart of dear old New York City!

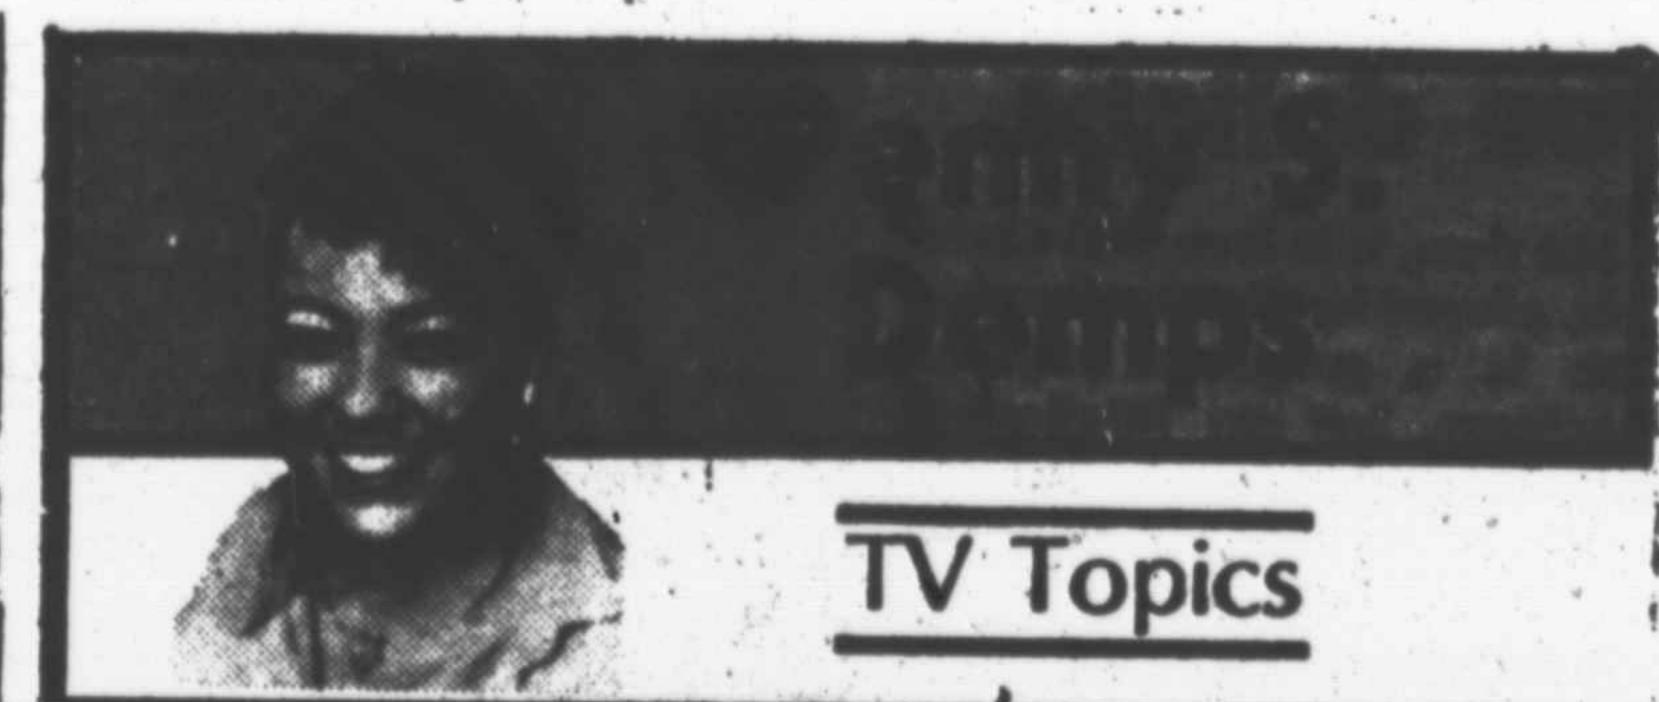

Comical situations abound as "The Big Apple's" outrogeous assortment of colorful characters herd into Al's coffee shop daily. And these customers run the gamut from yuppies to a streetwise adolescent playboy to a fashion-conscious transvestite!

Handling the multitudes of urban/ethnic types (and local riffraff) like a pro is Diana Olmos, Al's flippant Puerto Rican waitress and cook, played by Rosana Desoto.

Now this lady, a seemingly upscale combo of "Shirley" from WHAT'S HAPPENING" and the Rosanne Rosannadana character straight from SATURDAY NIGHT LIVE, serves up as many wisecracks as she does short-orders.

But, all things considered, it's obvious Diana and Al do harbor! a strong devotion to one another because, if nothing else, they argue with each other in a manner that only a deep familiarity and years of working together could evoke.

However, for all Al's crochety one soft-spot — kids, especially ones in trouble. In the series, Al now widowed, reveals that he THREE'S NOT A CROWD-Al Hughes (Redd Foxx) is flenked by his weitress/cook Diana Olmas (Rosana De Soto, right) and his behavior, he really does have delinquent faster-child Toni Rutledge (Pamela Segall, left) in the new comedy series THE RED POXX SHOW debuting Saturday, January 18, at 8 p.m. on Channel 13.

But on his own, it's a reluctant and support a troubled kid often; Al who feels that he's just not up newest project - a 15-year-old

Toni Rutledge (Pamela Segall) is actually a scared adolescent underneath her tough tomboy exterior. Now, as a juvenile some run-ins with the law, but since she's on the "road to recovery," the audience sees that she enriches Al's existence as much as she complicates it

An appealing element in this whole scenario is the depiction of this cranky old man (Foxx) and Toni facing problems and dilemmas together. The underlying theme being that if she can pull through these things, then anyone can.

It was interesting to note too, that Diana (the sexy waitress) was also taken in by Al when she was young, and although she realizes she owes him a lot, she really doesn't want to appear "overly" grateful!

through life's more intense moments and lesser tribulations with human insight, frailties and, of course, humor.

Al's — a nice place to spend a half-hour on Saturday evening. Even if you're not hungry! DANCERS WANTED FOR NEW LOCAL SHOW WJZ-TV (Channel 13) is looking for Baltimore's best dancers to delinquent, Toni may have had feature as regulars on their new SHAKEDOWN.

> Auditions will be held on Saturday, January 11, 12:00 noon to 6:00 p.m., at Golden Ring Mall. Interested dancers can register beginning at 11:00 a.m.

Judges will be looking for dancing couples between the ages of 17 and 30 years of age who are creative and energetic as well as trendsetters in the way they look Top 40 music will be provided for dancers to move to the beat while they showcase their talent.

SHAKEDOWN can be seen each Saturday at 11:30 p.m. on Channel 13 beginning February 1, 1986. Harold Anthony, entertainment critic for WJZ's CITY LINE, will host the show.
