

Dear Family:
It is my wish that you be spared from anxiety, expense and inconvenience at the time of my death.

Therefore, in the attached portfolio you will find information which I have recorded, and a plan which represents my wishes.

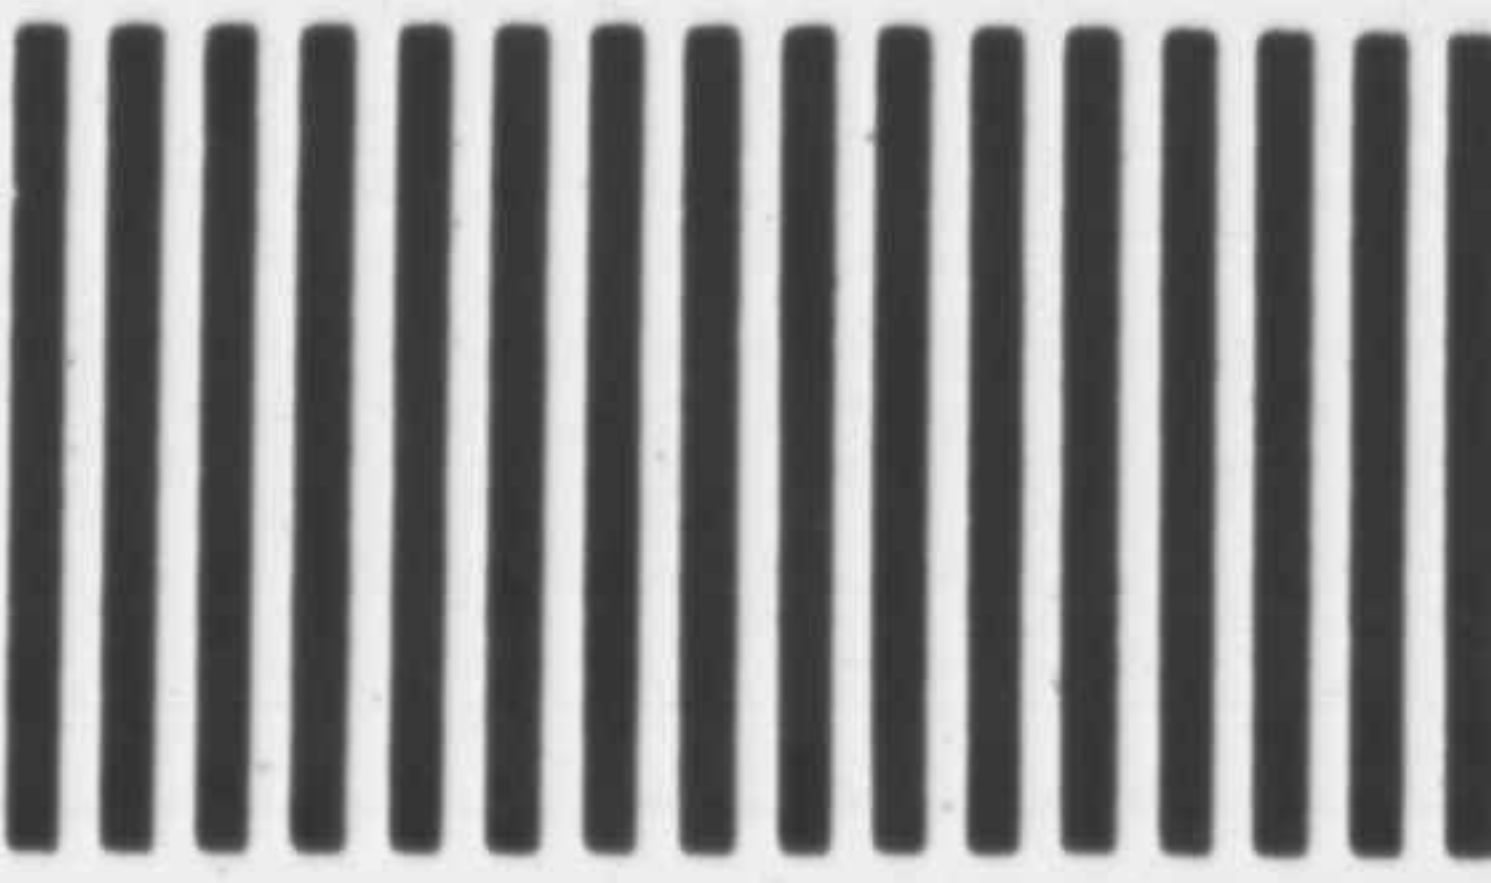

You will find all vital statistics and detailed information that will be needed, along with a list of documents you will wish to have. By recording this information in advance, I know everything will be conducted with minimum confusion and inconvenience for you.

I hope you will approve of these arrangements of that they will help you retain a warm memory of the wonderful years we have shared together.

Gud bless all of you.
