Organist Elder Brown is honored

By Ed Stephens Jr

Just to say, "We love you", the Jerusalem Holy Church Family where Elder Olive C. Brown is the pastor, recently honored their organist Stanley G. Edwards for his dedicated service. He is an outstanding loyal member who respects the positon granted to him as a musician and a driver for Bishop James F. Brown, who presided over the Southern District of Mount Sinai Holy Church of America. Dedication to God and to the Church is recommended to every man especially since there are few in number as workers or attenders. But Edward feels that he must represent what God has chosen him to be and only then will he be a servant to Christ. His dependability is in comparable when it comes to service, regardless of the circumstances or reasons and this sincerity inspired the church to recognize his efforts.

The son of Mr and Mrs John Edwards of Richmond, from a family of 15, Stanley Edwards came froma religious background and grew physically and spiritually in the church. Today his roots are steadfast in the Jerusalem Holy Church and it has become a tradition for him to be present for Sunday worship services.

When Stanley Edwards became 18, he received his operator's license from the State of Virginia and immediately assumed the responsibility as a principal driver for Bishop James F. Brown, Jr. Traveling to scheduled appointed destinations, his quietness and courtesy towards Bishop Brown made Edwards a choice candidate for the job. A bond of friendship grew between the two and Stanley Edwards' musicial abilities also began to emerge.

As his service increased through numerous engagements such as revivals, conventions and special programs, people began to acknowledge Edwards' talent as a musician. It wasn't long before he started playing the organ for various choirs with the church. Whenever there was service, you would find him seated behind the organ for devotions or as a soloist accompanist.

Today Stanley Edwards is the principal musician for Jerusalem Holy Church, the District Organist for The Southern District and has been unanimously voted as the National Organist for Mount Sinai Holy Church of America. Whenever there is a workshop for music, whether local or national, the name Stanley G. Edwards is somewhere to be mentioned. Having attended numerous recording sessions as a musician including James Cleveland Gospel Music Workshop of America, he has become totally committed to the music ministry.

A father of two lovely children, Demetrice and Stanley Jr, Stanley G. Edwards and his wife Velda are one family in Christ who truly believe that being a christian is living for Christ everyday. The pastor, Bishop Brown and members of the Jerusalem Holy Church are extremely grateful for his untiring service during his long tenure. To them he is a precious, vital gift who is the motivating force in the Music Department at the church and is always ready to serve in any way possible.

For his Appreication Service visitors traveled from several states just to be present for this honoring occasion held at the Jerusalem Holy Church in South Richmond. Music was provided for spiritual edification to the Lord by The New Beginnings, The Jerusalem Holy Church Mass Choir, The Nancy Wilson Concert Mass Choir (Greensboro N.C), Alice Lilly, Deboroah Patterson Brown, Velda Edwards, Paulette Williams and others.

Mrs. Theophra Silver, Mr. Charles Bose, Mrs. Arlene White, Deacon J. Martin Capehart and Professor Richard McKinney.

OBITUARIES

Ethel Travers Harris

Ethel Travers Harris, 91, wife of the late Dr. Bernard Harris, Sr., died Wednesday, March 2, 1988 at the Keswick Nursing Home.

She was born Nov. 5, 1897 to the late James and Sophia Travers in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mrs. Harris attended the Colored High School, now known as Douglass High School, where she graduated in 1914. After graduating from high school, she attended the Colored Teachers Training School, now known as Coppin State College.

She graduated from Coppin in 1917, and taught briefly in the Baltimore City Public School System.

As a life-long member of the Centennial Caroline Street Church, Mrs. Harris worked in the church as a church pianist, Sunday school teacher, Superintendent of the Primary Department of the Church School, organizer of the Mother's Club, and the church choir.

Included in her duties as a church member, Mrs. Harris was a member of the Trustee Board, the nominating committee, and the United Methodist Women.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris were distinguished members of the renowned Elks Club. In her continuous performance in the club, she was a member of Zorah Elliott Temple #717 of the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World (IBPOE of W).

She served as a member of the Peace and Harmony Council #1: IBPOE of W, as well as a member of the Past State Presidents of the club.

She held the position of Past Grand daughter Ruler of the IBPOE of W, State organizer of the IBPOE of W and organizer of the Elks Shoe Bank.

Mrs. Harris also held the position of Grand District Deputy of Peace and Harmony Council and Zorah Elliott Temple #717.

Mrs. Harris has other achievements to include in her scrap book of accomplishments. She served on the Board of Directors of the YWCA and board member of the Madison Avenue branch of the YWCA. She was a devoted member of the Sigma Wives and the Women's auxiliary of the Frontier International Service Club of Baltimore City.

The Barrett School, now known as Montrose, was proud to have Mrs. Harris as a board member. She also held the position of President of the Medical Auxiliary of the Monumental Medical Society.

Along with the many clubs and organizations that Mrs. Harris leaves to mourn, she also leaves six children; Elise H. Clarke, Bernadine H. Harrison, Bernard Harris, Jr., M.D., Robert H. Harris, Anita H. Watson, and James R. (Dickie) Harris.

She leaves two son-in-laws, two daughters-in-law, five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, a granddaughter-in-law, two grandsons-in-law, and a host of devoted friends.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harris were held at the Centennial-Caroline Street United Methodist Church, 1029 East Monument Street. The Reverend Mamie Alethia Williams-Munjoma officiated the ceremonies.
