Alabamatalladega

Talladega College
The first college for Blacks in Alabama, founded by a group of free slaves as a primary school in 1867. See the three fresco panels by celebrated Black artist Hale Woodruff in the school library.

627 W. Battle Street, Talladega, AL 35160, (205) 362-0206

TUSKEEGEE

2 Tuskeegee University
One of the most revered sites in the chronicles of Black American History. Situated on 5,000 acres with more than 150 buildings. Founders' Market (site of Washington's original shanty),
The Oaks (Washington's home), the Booker T. Washington Monument and the George Washington Carver Museum and Research Center are some of the highlights. The legendary Tuskeegee Airmen (Black members of the U.S. Air Force) trained here in World War II under General B.O. Davis.

Tuskeegee University, Tuskeegee, AL 36088, (205) 727-8011.

California BECKWOURTH

Beckwourth Pass

Discovered in the 1850's by James P. Beckwourth as a short route through the Sierra Nevada Mountains. He was a member of a group of Black trappers and traders who contributed to the "winning of the west."

Route 70, 3 miles West of Route 395

LOS ANGELES

4 California Afro-American Museum
A modern 44,000 square foot park site with four galleries, completed in 1984 to house the Museum's permanent collection and temporary shows, research library, archives and theatre.

600 State Drive, Exposition Park, Los Angeles, CA 90037, (213) 744 7432

5 Lafayette Square
Renowned Black architect, Paul R. Williams designed many notable LA buildings and the private homes of some of Hollywood's greatest stars. Two of his homes can be seen on a walking tour of Lafayette Square.

For more info contact: the Los Angeles Conservancy 433 S. Spring St. Los Angeles, CA 90013, (213) 623-2489

Colorado DENVER Black-American West Museum

6 Black-American West and Heritage Center

A unique collection of information and artifacts on the life and times of the Black Cowboy plus the role and contribution of Blacks in the building and development of the frontier. This is the project of Paul W. Stewart who has also written a book on the subject. Open Wed.—Sat. with admission.

608 26th St., Denver, CO 80205, (303) 295-1026

Florida TALLAHASSEE

7 Black Archives Research Center and Museum

Located in the oldest building on the campus of Florida A & M, it contains the archives of the University, slave papers and rare books on Africa.

Florida A & M University, P.O. Box 809, Tallahassee, FL 32307, (904) 599-3020

Georgia ATLANTA 8 The Apex-African American Museum and Cultural Center

The historical center of Auburn Avenue, which Fortune Magazine once called "the richest Negro Street in the world."

Atlanta Life Insurance Headquarters
Visit the Lobby and Heritage Room for the art and historical collection of this famous institution.

100 Auburn Avenue, NE, Atlanta, GA 30303, (404) 659-2100

10 Atlanta University
Educational Complex

An unusual grouping of major Black institutions of higher learning, all with significant history and illustrious alumni.

Atlanta University—(404) 653-8400 Clark College—(404) 681-8000

Interdenomination Theological Center (404) 527-7711

Morehouse College - (404) 681-2800

Morehouse School of Medicine - (404) 752-1500

Morris Brown College — (404) 525-7831 Spelman College — (404) 681-3643

11 The Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Non-Violent Social Change

This complex includes King's gravesite, the Eternal Flame and the Ebenezer Baptist Church.

449 Auburn Avenue, Atlanta, GA 30312, (404) 524-1956

MACON

The Harriet Tubman Museum

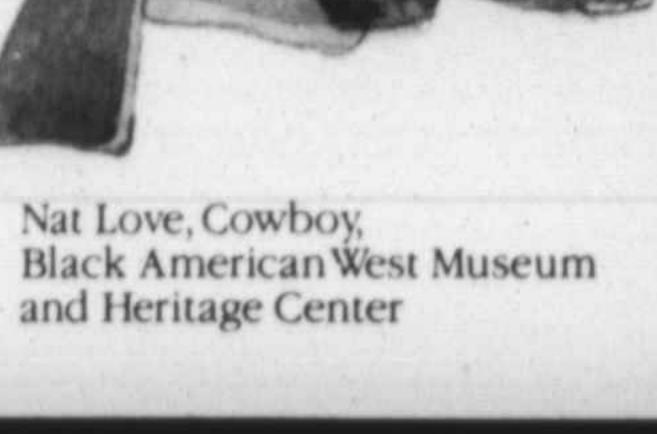

Founded by Father Richard Keil of the predominantly Black St. Peter Claver Catholic Church of Macon, home of memorabilia on Black history, local artists, Harriet Tubman and quarterly rotating exhibits of special interest and subjects.

340 Walnut Street, Macon, GA 31208, (912) 743-8544

Illinois CHICAGO 13 DuSable Museum of African American History

Founded in 1961 by Dr. Margaret Burroughs, a celebrated artist and named for the founder of Chicago, Jean-Baptiste Point DuSable, a French-African trapper. It is primarily a history museum but has a collection of contemporary Black Art and African Arts and Crafts.

740 E. 56th Place, Chicago, IL 60637, (312) 947-0600

Harriet Tubman,

Abolitionist