Tell it to Jan

Dear Jan:

has been married for two years. My husband and I have been agreed to go our separate ways.

I suggested going to a marriage counselor, but he refused. During the two years of our stormy marriage, I took all the unpleasantries of this marriage adultery, alcoholism, plus more.

He has now turned my in-laws and our friends against me.

My husband admitted to committing adultery on the night of our reception. Instead of making amends, he has turned his back is living with a woman.
