LIFESTYLE

Social Notes

New Jack And Jillers

The Baltimore County Chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc., has just recently inducted ten new members to its Jack and Jill Family of families.

The newest chapter in the Baltimore Metropolitan Area was installed on October 1, 1988. It was organized by Mrs. Gloria Richardson Marrow.

With her, 21 other mothers in the Baltimore County Community chartered the chapter.

The "neophyte" members are: Yvonne Brooks-Little, Stacey Cruise-Lee, Carolyn Cole, Karen Davis, Joyce Estes, Paula Johnson, Mignon Moore, Shirlene Williams, Gwendolyn Wright, and Aldonna Wylie.

The chapter officers are: Gloria R. Marrow, President; Bernadette Randall, Vice President; Maxine Hurley, Parliamentarian; Linda Hollis, Sgt. At Arms; Barbara Jones, Chaplain;

Georgia Simpson, Financial Secretary; Georgia Diggins, Treasurer; Winnie Thomas, Corresponding Secretary; Phyllis King, Recording Secretary; Sheila Whitaker, Program Director; and Agnes R. Hill, Journalist.

Mrs. Gloria R. Marrow, the President, also serves as the chapter's first Historian.

Other chapter members are: Harriett Dunlap, Linda Vaughn, LaFrance Muldrow, Francine Johnson, Audrey Jones, Jeannette Godfrey, Sheila Bennett, Glendora Mitchell, Anita T. Hunter, Patricia Watson, and Mattie Brownley.

The membership induction and reception were held at the home of Sheila Bennett on March 4, 1989.

At the official unveiling of the Archives Room, the history of Provident and Lutheran Hospitals are recaptured. The archives are located in the Liberty Medical Center. Looking on at the Provident Hospital display is (L to R) Grover McCrea, Board Vice Chair; William Jews, CEO of Liberty Medical and Dr. Anne Emery, board member.

Chi Eta Phi Sorority, Inc.

Gamma Chapter Chi Eta Phi, Inc. will be hosting the 37th Annual Northeast Regional Conference, April 20-23.

Program Theme: "Retooling for Power." Soror Louise G. James R.N. M.S.N., Regional Director from Omicron Chapter, New York City will preside at all meetings.

Soror Pearl D. Holland R.N. M.P.H., is Basileus to the local chapter-Gamma.

Soror Earline Ford R.N. and Soror Lelia Davage R.N. M.E.D. are the coordinators for this weekend event.

Chi Eta Phi Sorority, Inc. is an International Organization of Registered Professional Nurses. The sorority provides services to the community and promotes and supports the nursing profession. There are five geographical regions.

This is the Northeast region. Gamma Chapter of Baltimore will host over 300 guests from all over the area.

An opening plenary meeting will be held 8:00 p.m. Friday. The keynote speaker will be Brigadier General Clara L. Adams-Ender, Army Nurse Chief-Army Nurse Corp.

The town is buzzing. . .

ABOUT that item in the Washington edition of the AFRO in which a woman juror assigned to hear a sex-related case, suddenly bared her breasts in the courtroom. When asked why, she replied, "Your honor, I need a husband." The judge promptly removed her from the case — and the courtroom.

• • •

ABOUT superstar Dionne Warwick who has become too too busy to spend any time giving interviews to the black press. Hmmmmm, how quickly we forget from whence we came.

• • •

ABOUT the West Virginia state senate adopting a resolution to send to Gov. Carroll Campbell, Jr., urging him to pardon singer James Brown. The resolution states: "He is an excellent dancer and can do a full leg split while in mid-dance ... and he has prettier hair than anyone in the Senate." All of this was for naught, since the resolution was adopted minutes after the 1989 session's midnight deadline.

Alphas Hold Black & Gold Banquet

One of the highlights of the Eastern Regional Convention of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., this past weekend, was the Black and Gold Banquet which took place on Saturday evening.

The festive event was attended by more than 600 people, including men of Alpha, their escorts and friends.

Among the Alpha dignitaries attending the event were Dr. Henry Ponder, General President (he is also the President of Fisk University;

Also present at the banquet were the members of the Delta Lambda's 1989 Sphinx Club. The new initiates to the fraternity, who officially became members on April 5, included the following five individuals:

Jerome Watkins, from Maple Hill, N.C., graduate of North Carolina A&T College with a degree in Computer Science.

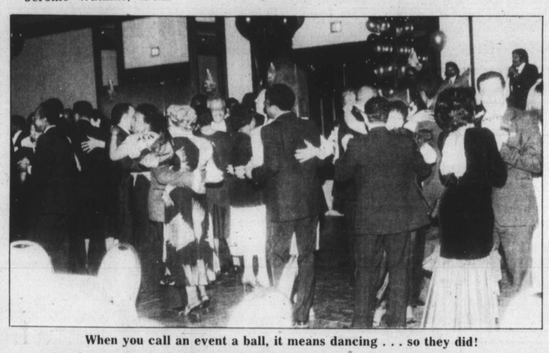
Harlow Fullwood, Jr., graduate of Virginia Union University. He is from Ashville, North Carolina.

Hiram L. Tanner Columbus, Ohio, B.A. degree in Civil Engineering from Ohio Northern and graduate degrees from the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Henry Williams, from Rocky Mount, North Carolina, graduate of North Carolina A&T, and holds masters and doctoral degrees from the University of Maryland.

Frederick I. Douglass, from Meadville, Pa., a graduate of Morgan State University.

NEOPHYTES—Newly initiated members of Delta Lambda Chapter are (L to R) Jerome Watkins, Frederick I. Douglass, Dr. Charles Solters, chapter president; Harlow Fullwood, Jr., Henry Williams, and Hiram Tunney.



When you call an event a ball, it means dancing . . . so they did!

IMMERSED in conversation are Francis W. Gates, chairman of Board of Regents; Mrs. Ada Gates, Chester S. Gates and Mrs. Carrie T. Gates.

ALL IN THE EYES seems to be what Stuart and Eugenia Douglas are saying.

(Photo by Ricardo Gray)

MSU Scholarship Ball

Morgan State University's Fourth Annual Presidential Scholarship Ball, which was held at The Palladium recently was a spectacular success that proved to be one of the major highlights of the Spring social calendar.

Several members of the Presidential Scholarship Ball Committee arrived early at The Palladium and worked feverishly to transform the facility into an even more elegant ballroom, decorated with bright flowers and other adornments.

(Continued on Page B5)

SMILES portray the happy feeling of Charles J. Byrd, Jr., and Sheila Lewis, as they float along on the dance floor.

ENJOYING the festivities are (L to R) Bryant Bolling, Jacqueline Thompson, Russell Lyles and Virginia Vauls.

COLUMBIA CAPERS

By Pinnie Ross

Some people say, "It's a teen world, and don't forget it." I say, "It's our world, and don't forget it."

There is a tremendous amount of pressure on teens in today's world. Drug abuse, alcohol abuse and teen pregnancy . And there are always some who follow the leader, not using the good mind that God has given them.

Yes, some are trying to do what their peers are doing and ruining their lives.

The mistake which grown-ups make is that they crowd all teenagers together, but all teens do not belong to the crowd not using their brains. Just look around, you will find that there are more good teens than bad if you take the time to look and help.

May I introduce you to three young teens from Howard County who are doing nicely in school, helping in the community and using their minds to be successful.

But let's not stop here, for there are many, many more like these teens around the State of Maryland.

• • •

Lady number one is Miss Erika Clark, daughter of Wallace and Gwendolyn Clark. This young lady is an honor student at Oakland Mills High School in Columbia.

Her school activities include rigorous gifted and talented courses, Italian Club treasurer, Student Government Association representative recording secretary of the Black Awareness Club, Class Treasurer, captain of the girls' basketball team and varsity soccer team cheerleader.

She has studied at La Ferte Bernard, Sorthe, France and travelled to Italy and England.

Erika's community activities include teaching Sunday School at St. John Baptist Church, service on the Youth Usher Board, service on the Long Reach Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemorative Committee and the East of Columbia Library Committee.

She also served as a volunteer in the Jesse Jackson Presidential Campaign.

Taunya L. English

Erika Clark

Cage B. Lewis

Our Lady number two is Caya Beth Lewis, a 15-year-old honor student at Centennial High School in Columbia. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roger Lewis.

Caya serves as Vice President of the Student Government Association, a member of the school chorus, past president of the Student Council, a volunteer at the Cedar Lane Special Education School;

As acolyte at Epworth United Methodist Church and is a student at the Columbia School of Theatrical Arts. She enjoys reading and the performing arts.

Caya's stage experiences include performances at the Burn Brea Dinner Theater, Toby's Dinner Theater, Rockville Musical Theater, Baltimore Methodist Touring Troupe and the Arena Playhouse.

• • •

Our young lady number three is Taunya Lamar English, the daughter of Lamont and Evelyn English.

Taunya is a senior at Altholton High School in Columbia where she served as Treasurer of the Junior Class, Chairman of the 1988 Prom Committee, is a member of the French and Lettermen's Clubs;

A Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership Ambassador, a leader in the Black Student Union and is a student executive in the Parent-Teacher-Student Association.

She has been honored by the MacDonald Corporation as a National Program Participant for Outstanding Leadership, Scholarship and Character.

Taunya enjoys field hockey, track, lacrosse, reading and travel. She has been accepted at Hampton University, where she will pursue a career in international business and psychology.

WOODLAWN HIGHLIGHTS

By Marjorie Green

SSA To Honor

In a special ceremony on the grounds outside the Woodlawn Social Security Complex, SSA official paid tribute to several employees who have donated many hours as volunteer helpers in the community.

Marie Johnson, a file clerk in the Office of Central Records Operations (OCRO) was among the honorees.

Her involvement includes volunteer work with residential nursing homes, the Waxter Center and the SSA Adopt A School Program.

A program that included tutoring Walbrook High school students in their individual subject areas of need. Already the recipient of several awards, Mrs. Johnson also serves as Branch Coordinator of the SSA Holiday Christmas Tree project which gives warm winter clothing to area youngsters in need.

In addition, she is a member of the Urban League Guild, mother of adult twins, Grayling and Gregory, and has one granddaughter, Sheree Monique Johnson.

Fitness Program At

It all started when Ed Arthur, longtime director, Office For Central Records Operations, SSA, discarded several pounds of excess weight.

A group called the Health-Wisers was formed and employees organized to control various health problems through exercise and weight control.

The program has generated a lot of excitement throughout SSA. Following the kick-off Wednesday at high noon, interested employees are invited to attend seminars, exercise classes and make contributions to Nutri-Line, the official newsletter written and produced by members of Health-Wisers.

In an effort to spread the word to employees that the SSA management staff is interested in their health, Arthur led the kick-off march around the Metro West building in downtown Baltimore.

—MSU ball

(Continued from Page B4)

The festivities began at 9:00 p.m. and the spiffily attired guests were soon whirling around the dance floor to the syncopated rhythms of the Bobby Felder Orchestra.

Following a sumptuous buffet banquet, there was a program interlude that featured the "Presentation of Colors" by Morgan's ROTC cadets who displayed the American and Maryland flags with zest, and vigorous rendering of a solo entitled "Leaders In America" by Mrs. Margaret Lindsey-Johnson.

The Hon. Kurt L. Schmoke, Mayor of Baltimore City was present to bring greetings and to offer words of encouragement to the supporters of Morgan State University.

Next, Mary Robinson, Chairman of the 1989 Presidential Scholarship Ball Committee, thanked the contributors and workers who made the Ball a success and then introduced Dr. Earl S. Richardson, Morgan's President.

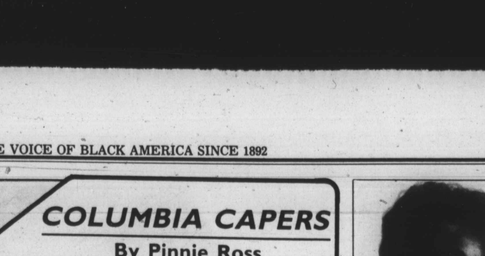
Dr. Richardson made a brief presentation of the current status of Morgan and culminated his remarks with the announcement that Governor William Donald Schaefer had allocated $5 million to make needed improvements to the dormitories at Morgan.

JOIN NOW!

AFRO Clean Block

55th Year

1934-1989



1. The captain must try to get all persons in the block to sign up and and send their names to the AFRO-AMERICAN.
2. He or she must call a meeting of all adults and children and elect a president who will act as an advisor.
3. Have a secretary, who will write down what is done at each meeting and send reports to the AFRO-AMERICAN.
4. Elect a marshal, who will call out the clean-up brigade at a definite time each day, so that by all working together at the same time, the block will soon improve in appearance.
5. Do not paint trees or curbs.

To Participate

Call 728-8200

Ext. 291

Narda Terry

AFRO Clean Block, Director

AFRO Clean Block

628 N. Eutaw St. • Baltimore, Md. 21201

Yes, I want to be Captain of my block ( )

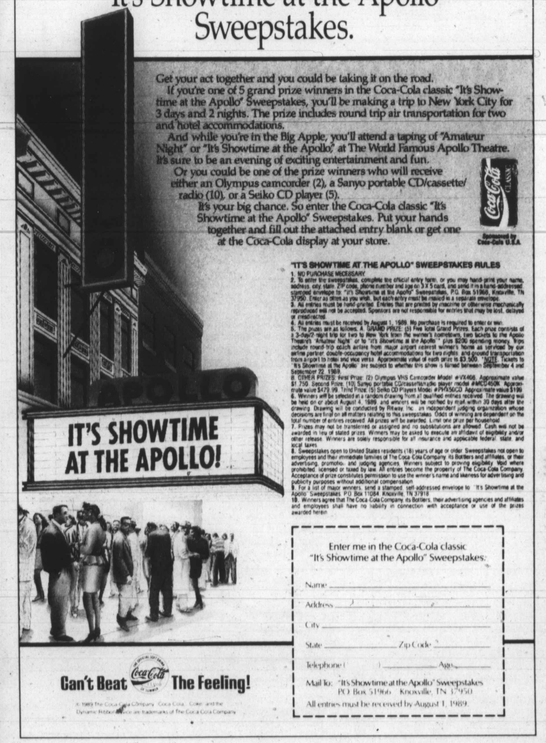
Name _____

Address _____

City _____ Zip _____ Telephone _____

Win a free trip to New York City!

Enter the Coca-Cola CLASSIC "It's Showtime at the Apollo" Sweepstakes.



Get your act together and you could be taking it on the road.

If you're one of 5 grand prize winners in the Coca-Cola classic "It's Showtime at the Apollo" Sweepstakes, you'll be making a trip to New York City for 3 days and 2 nights. The prize includes round trip air transportation for two and hotel accommodations.

And while you're in the Big Apple, you'll attend a taping of "Amateur Night" or "It's Showtime at the Apollo" at The World Famous Apollo Theatre. It's sure to be an evening of exciting entertainment and fun.

Or you could be one of the prize winners who will receive either an Olympus camcorder (2), a Sanyo portable CD/cassette/radio (10), or a Seiko CD player (5).

It's your big chance. So enter the Coca-Cola classic "It's Showtime at the Apollo" Sweepstakes. Put your hands together and fill out the attached entry blank or get one at the Coca-Cola display at your store.

Sponsored by Coca-Cola U.S.A.

"IT'S SHOWTIME AT THE APOLLO" SWEEPSTAKES RULES

1. NO PURCHASE NECESSARY
2. To enter the sweepstakes, complete the official entry form, or you may hand-print your name, address, daytime phone number and age on 3 X 5 card, and print it in same address-stamped envelope to: "It's Showtime at the Apollo" Sweepstakes, P.O. Box 51984, Knoxville, TN 37950. Enter as often as you wish, but each entry must be mailed in a separate envelope.
3. All entries must be hand-printed. Entries that are printed by computer or other automatically reproduced way will be disqualified. Sponsors are not responsible for entries that may be lost, delayed or misdirected.
4. All entries must be received by August 1, 1989. No purchase is required to enter or win.
5. The prizes are as follows: A. GRAND PRIZE: (5) Free Total Grand Promo. Each prize consists of a 3-day/2-night stay for two in New York (from the winner's hometown), two tickets to the Apollo Theatre's "Amateur Night" or to "It's Showtime at the Apollo," plus $200 spending money. Prize includes round-trip coach airfare from regular airport nearest winner's home as will-ticked by our airline partner (double-occupancy hotel accommodations for two nights and ground transportation between the airport and the hotel are also provided). Approximate retail value of each prize is $1,500. B. Runners-Up: (10) Tickets to "It's Showtime at the Apollo" are awarded to whichever time shows it is most convenient between 4 and September 30, 1989.
6. Winners will be selected in a random drawing from all qualified entries received. The drawing will be held on or about August 4, 1989, and winners will be notified by mail within 20 days after the drawing. Drawing will be conducted by Ntreau, Inc., an independent judging organization whose decisions are final. Odds of winning depend on the number of eligible entries received and the total number of prizes awarded. All prizes will be awarded. Limit one prize per household.
7. Prizes may not be transferred or assigned and no substitutions are allowed. Cash was not be awarded in lieu of stated prizes. Winners may be asked to execute an affidavit of eligibility and/or other release. Winners are solely responsible for all insurance and applicable federal, state and local taxes.
8. Sweepstakes open to United States residents (18 years of age or older. Sweepstakes not open to employees of The Coca-Cola Company, Coca-Cola USA, Ntreau, Inc., their advertising agencies and affiliates and employees and members of their families living anywhere.
9. For a list of major winners, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: "It's Showtime at the Apollo" Sweepstakes P.O. Box 11084 Knoxville, TN 37919.
10. Winners agree that The Coca-Cola Company, its Bottlers, their advertising agencies and affiliates and employees shall have no liability in connection with acceptance or use of the prizes awarded herein.

Enter me in the Coca-Cola classic "It's Showtime at the Apollo" Sweepstakes:

Name _____

Address _____

City _____

State _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone ( ) _____ Age _____

Mail to: "It's Showtime at the Apollo" Sweepstakes PO Box 51986 Knoxville, TN 37950

All entries must be received by August 1, 1989

Can't Beat Coca-Cola The Feeling!

© 1989 The Coca-Cola Company. Coca-Cola, Coke and the Dynamic Ribbon device are trademarks of The Coca-Cola Company.